The Latest News from Europe—Interesting from Hungary.

The New York Courier and Herald have telegraphic dispatches from London, with the latest news. The anniversary in Paris, on the 4th, of the Proclamation of the Republic, was splendidly celebrated. The despatch of the Courier gives this brief notice of it.

FRANCE.—Paris, Friday, 5 P. M.—Up to this hour the fête has passed admirably. The religious ceremony was very impressive. The illuminations commence at nightfall, and nothing likely to disturb public tranquillity is feared. The French government reports the necessity of reforming prison discipline in France. The Bank of France returns for this week show that the discounted bills account is not lower than it has been since the revolution.

AUSTRIA AND SARDINIA are about to sign an offensive and defensive treaty. Sardinia will pay eighty millions of francs to Austria, who will then evacuate Alexandria.

GERMANY.—FORBIDDEN DISSOLUTION OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TURKISH.—The news from Germany is full of interest. Later advices from Frankfurt mention that it is more than probable matters will assume an unpleasant aspect there. The arrival of Knutshach, with 8000 troops, Prussian, is confirmed. Two thousand men entered Mayence on the 20th ult. Reports say that they will enter Frankfurt. A coup d'état against the Parliament is expected. There was much excitement both at Frankfurt and Cologne. At the former place, the Constituent Assembly had adopted a resolution to cause the armed force of the State and civic guard to take anew the oath of allegiance to the constitution. The garrison is also to be reinforced.

VIENNA.—THE INDEPENDENCE OF HUNGARY PROCLAIMED.—Sixteen hundred wounded were brought in on the 30th April. The siege of Comorn has been raised. The Hungarian dictator is installed at Peste—he has proclaimed the independence of Hungary. The Hungarian cause was daily gaining ground. The 110,000 Russians will enter Austria in four columns.

ITALY.—Our advices from Rome state that the Constituent Assembly at Rome, on the 21st ult., declared its sitting permanent, and passed a resolution that any deputy who should desert his post should be considered a traitor to his country. It also drew up and despatched to Civita Vecchia a protest to Oudinot and issued an address to the people. The Assembly then summoned the Triumvirate to its presence, to give an account of the proposed French intervention; who having attended, Mazzini stated that they had received no official communication on the subject; that they had faith in the good institutions of France, but it was, nevertheless, necessary not to neglect all measures requisite for the country's safety. The assembly then, at the suggestion of Mazzini, resolved, in conformity with the new constitution, that though thoroughly determined to resist the union of temporal and spiritual powers in one and the same person, they were ready to assure the Pope the full and perfect exercise of his ecclesiastical powers.

IMPORTANT REMOR FROM MEXICO.—The N. O. Delta, of the 27th ult., publishes the subjoined letter, dated MATAMOROS, April 20, 1849.

"Parades is kicking up the devil at present. The pronunciados (insurgents) took San Luis Potosi on the 17th inst., and have marched on Queretaro. The troops sent from here to put down the revolt have pronounced in favor of Parades, and joined the revolutionists as soon as they crossed the mountains."

Our previous advices from Mexico (says the Delta) represented that a formidable insurrection had broken out in the vicinity of San Luis, and that a large body of troops had been sent on by the Government to put down the insurgents. If the above intelligence be correct, we may expect the unfortunate republic of Mexico soon to be plunged into the horrors of anarchy, if not a civil war.

Thoughts on Temperance.

Messrs. Editors:—In my last, I attempted to show that intemperance operated deleteriously upon the intellect. In this I shall attempt to show that its effects are equally injurious to the physical constitution of man.

In the human system, the utmost order, harmony and dependence of parts is observable; and it is equally apparent that this order must be preserved, or the most alarming symptoms will appear and the most fatal consequences ensue. Experience and observation confirm us in the opinion that the free and habitual use of ardent spirits is directly calculated to destroy this order, lay the foundation of numerous and painful diseases, and ultimate in premature death. Indeed drunkenness itself is a disease—a disease which is performing the work of death with a more desolating vengeance than the yellow fever, the Cholera or any other epidemic of which we have any knowledge—a disease which in almost every case proves fatal. In looking at the drunkard, it is often difficult to say whether in taking the census he ought to be numbered with the living or the dead. He is already a naked skeleton, or a bloated corpse, or walking mummy, (when he can walk,) a mass of animated putrefaction, and a stench in the nostrils of every decent and respectable man.

This, evil however, comes not to us single handed. By strongly exciting the stomach, it soon destroys its tone, brings on loss of appetite, induces dyspepsia, &c. By increasing arterial action, it plays upon the delicate structure of the lungs, paints the hectic flush upon the cheek, and causes the hoarse and deep-seated cough which indicates with so much certainty the miserable end of the unhappy victim. Yet, with these facts before us, how tame are our efforts to save our friends from so shameful and wretched an end. Though they are literally "rotting" away under the influence of diseases superinduced by intemperance, yet our moral sensibilities seem not to be awake to their awful condition. Shall we continue longer to sit still and see our fellows swept down in hecatombs by this foe, whose appetite is never satisfied, and whose constant cry is "give! give!" Shall we securely fold our arms when consequences so dreadful must certainly be the result of our inactivity? Shall the voice of weeping as it comes, from the abode of disconsolate wives and starving children, pierce the very heavens and we remain unmoved? In the name of temperance and humanity, we ask you to forbid it. Let us arouse from our sleep. It is no time for cold calculation now that the enemy is upon us.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Girard Life Insurance Annuity and Trust Company of Philadelphia.
Office No. 159 Chestnut Street.
Capital $300,000.
CHARTER PERPETUAL.

CONTINUE to make Insurances on Lives on the most favorable terms, receive and execute Trusts and receive deposits on interest.

The Capital being paid up and invested, together with accumulated premium fund, affords a perfect security to the insured. The premium may be paid in yearly, half yearly, or quarterly payments.

The Company add a BONUS at stated periods to the insurances for life. This plan of insurance is the most approved of, and is more generally in use, than any other in Great Britain, (where the subject is best understood by the people, and where they have had the longest experience,) as appears from the fact, that out of 117 Life Insurance Companies there, of all kinds, 87 are on this plan.

The first BONUS was appropriated in December 1844, amounting to 10 per cent. on the sum insured under the oldest policies; to 8 3/4 per cent. 7 1/2 per cent., &c. &c. on others, in proportion to the time of standing, making an addition of $100; $87.50; $75, &c. &c. to every 1,000, originally insured, which is an average of more than 50 per cent. on the premiums paid, and without increasing the annual payment of the company.

The operation of the BONUS will be seen by the following examples from the Life Insurance Register of the Company, thus:

| Policy. | Sum Insured. | Bonus or Addition. | Am't. of pol. and bonus payable at the party's decease. |
|---------|--------------|--------------------|---|
| No. 58  | $1,000      | $700.00           | $1,700.00  |
| " 88    | 2,500        | 250.00             | 2,750.00  |
| " 205   | 4,000        | 400.00             | 4,400.00  |

GREEN'S OXYGENATED BITTERS, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c.

This medicine is an excellent tonic. It imparts strength and vigor to the digestive organs and thus strengthens the whole system. Hence it is just the thing for Spring, when so many need something strengthening. Let every one read the following cases, and if you have one or more symptoms like those mentioned, don't fail to try this invaluable medicine.

Severe Case of Dyspepsia.

From R. P. STOW, Esq., Asst. Clerk U. S. House Representatives.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 15, 1846.

DR. G. B. GREEN:—Dear Sir—I feel it not only a pleasure, but a duty, to make known to you and to the public, (if you desire it,) the surprising effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in relieving me from that most discouraging disorder, Dyspepsia. I have been afflicted for about seventeen years with the usual attendant symptoms, viz: constipation of the bowels, headache, pain in the chest, flatulence acidity of the stomach, and severe nausea; and for months at a time not the least particle of moisture would appear on the surface of the chest or limbs, and most of the time I was extremely bilious. I have used various remedies, have been strict in my diet, have been dosed with calomel and emetics day after day by physicians, but all to no good purpose. Hearing of the wonderful effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in the cure of Dyspepsia, I procured some as a last resort, have used four bottles of the medicine, and find the bad symptoms all removed, and myself once more in the enjoyment of health. None but the Dyspeptic sufferer, who has felt all the horrors of the disease, can at all appreciate the value of the medicine. I most sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, and with me be able to rejoice in the return of health.

Lady Cured of Neuralgia.

From Rev. THOMAS KIDDER, of Vermont.

Windsor, Vt., Aug. 5, 1846.

DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the "Oxygenated Bitters," with which you furnished my wife, has wrought a cure in her case. About two years since, my wife was violently attacked with neuralgia in the face, through the chest, in the wrists and ankles. So violent was the disease, added to a general derangement of the female system
