

Foreign News. ARRIVAL OF THE CALEDONIA.

The steamer Caledonia, with Liverpool advices to the 12th inst., arrived at Halifax, N. S., on Thursday afternoon. The news by her was immediately despatched by Express to St. John's N. B., and from thence, at a late hour on Friday night, transmitted to Baltimore by telegraph.

The Caledonia sailed from Liverpool on the 12th inst., and has consequently been nearly thirteen days on her passage to Halifax. She brings £10,000 sterling in specie, or about $20,000, and forty passengers, of which fifteen stopped at Halifax.

The money market continues easy. In consequence of the threatening aspect of affairs in France and Italy, public securities were depressed.

The bill for the modification of the navigation laws, was carried in the House of Lords by a majority of 10.

This result gives the whig ministry a new tenure of office. In the House of Commons, the Parliamentary Oath Bill, having for its object the release of Jewish disabilities, has been a second time read and agreed to, by a larger majority than before.

The House of Lords have affirmed the judgment of the Queen's Court of Ireland, in the case of O'Brien and McManus.

GERMANY. The quarrel between the various parties and princes throughout Germany, has reached the highest pitch.

In Saxony the conflict has already taken place, and has resulted in favor of the people. They fought with the troops. The railways were taken up, in order to prevent the arrival of troops from Berlin.

The arrival of a corps of Prussians finally restored some degree of tranquility by military force. The fight was renewed next day, and the cannonading continued until night.

On the 7th the battle was renewed, and at 4 o'clock in the morning an obstinate and bloody conflict was going on in the streets.

Intelligence from Dresden to the 8th, states that hostilities are still between the people and the Royalists, without any immediate prospect of a termination. A reward has been offered by the latter for the members of the Provisional Government established by the former.

Disturbances had broken out at Liepzig between the people and the military, but the former had, after a short struggle, been suppressed. An insurrection had also broken out at Breslau, on the 20th, and the troops were fighting in the streets.

AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY. In the midst of all these commotions, the Austrian Government is in danger of dissolution from the continual successes of the Hungarians, who had taken Graw, Raab, and Reyscho.

The Russians were in the meantime, advancing in great force. The Hungarians were excited to the highest pitch of enthusiasm, and declare that Austria and Russia combined cannot subdue them.

Efforts are being made to stir up a rebellion in Galicia, and in fact the whole country from Jozsef to Pesth is either involved in or on the brink of a revolt.

England and France have indicated their disapproval of the Russian intervention in Hungary.

ITALY. The French had been met in their advance towards Rome by the Republicans, and had lost 130 killed, and 400 wounded. Among the former was a Captain Oudinot.

The Danish war still continues. The quarrel between President Bonaparte and his cousin is growing fiercer.

LATER ARRIVAL. Arrival of the Niagara. Seven days later from Europe.

The Steamship Niagara, arrived at New York on Saturday evening. She brings £2,000 in specie, and 63 passengers.

The Europa arrived at Liverpool on Monday, making the run in 9 days from New York. In commercial affairs there is no particular announcement in the prospect. Money continues plentiful.

Pennsylvania State Stock sold in London, on the 15th, at 8 1/2, which was the only American stock noticed in the papers. The chief demand for American securities is on German account.

From the manufacturing districts generally, complaint is made that the goods sent away have little or no profit whatever.

The elections in France on the 13th passed off without a single violation of good order. No definite opinion can yet be formed as to the relative success of parties. No doubt is entertained but there is a large majority in favor of peace and order.

The Constitutional states that the election in fifty-two Departments known on Thursday night, gives the following result:—153 Representatives, of which 298 are moderates, 81 democrats or socialists and 73 friends of the constitution.

The Austrians entered the Papal States on the north, and Marshall Winpian threatened with fire and sword all who resisted him. In the South the Neapolitans were advancing for the same purpose, but their vanguard was met at Albino by the Romans and defeated. The Neapolitan force consisted of a body of 10,000 troops, and, after a short conflict, they threw away their arms and fled.

accepted the propositions made by Lord Palmerston, but what these propositions are, does not appear.

The plot gradually reveals itself in Germany. The Sovereigns have evidently combined for the overthrow of the Liberals.

There has been a formidable disturbance in Dusseldorf, on the Rhine, but it has been suppressed. At Frankfurt the riot was becoming more revolutionary and anarchical every day. All the moderate men have, in consequence, left it.

Ireland continues quiet and as miserable as ever. Details of the outbreak in Canada, were laid before Parliament on the 15th, which elicited some discussion of no importance, beyond the fact that the Government evinced a determination to sustain Lord Elgin.

No formal discussion of Canadian affairs would be had, until after the receipt of later intelligence, which reached Liverpool probably on the 20th, in the Cambria.

COFFEE MARKET.—A rather improved feeling prevails in the grain trade. The flour market is better than at the sailing of the Caledonia. Philadelphia and Baltimore 23s. a 23s. 6d. per bbl., at which price there is a moderate but steady inquiry. The best descriptions of Ohio are quoted at 24s. per bbl.

CORN.—The demand for Indian corn still continues, and further advance has taken place in prices. White is selling at 32s. a 33s. per quarter, and 31s. a 30s. for yellow.

MEAL.—The demand for Indian Meal is steady, but the supply is small. Sales at 15s. 6d. to 16s. 9d. per bbl.

WHEAT.—The present sales of American Wheat are at 5s. 10d. to 7s. The London and Wakefield markets, held yesterday, were steady, but not active.

LATEST FROM CALIFORNIA. Col. Fremont's Arrival Oct. The Mobile papers received on Tuesday, contain full accounts of the news brought by the Royal Mail steamer Severn from Vera Cruz, with the latest advices from California. The Severn arrived at Mobile on the 21st inst., having left Vera Cruz on the 17th. She brought thirty-seven passengers and $147,000 in specie.

Among the passengers by the Severn, is Mr. Parrot, the American Consul at Mazatlan. He is on his way to Washington. He found the road from Vera Cruz to Mazatlan lined with travellers to California. A perpetual stream of emigrants and adventurers, travelling by every conceivable mode of conveyance, in wagons, carts, &c., on horses, mules and a-foot—some without hats or shoes—was pouring across the country, intent on reaching the gold regions of the West. The opportunities of conveyance in vessels from Mazatlan to San Francisco were abundant. Mr. Parrot has recently been to the latter place, and is of opinion, that unless some active measures were adopted by our government, the inhabitants would organize a government for themselves. They complain greatly of the neglect of Congress at the last session to give them a territorial government.

A rumor reached Mr. Parrot, before leaving Mazatlan, that a mutiny had occurred on the U. S. ship Ohio, in consequence of the recapture and attempted punishment of a number of deserters, who had attempted to go to the gold region. Commodore Jones had succeeded in quelling the mutineers, and putting them in irons. It was believed that some of them would be capitally executed.

Another rumor of a revolt in the Second Regiment, in California, had reached Mazatlan; though the information was not certainly reliable.

City of Mexico papers to the 14th instant, were brought by this arrival. They contain news from San Francisco as late as the 9th April. It confirms the previous accounts of the abundance of the precious metals. The consequence was general gambling, and notwithstanding the scarcity of intoxicating liquors, general inebriety. Provisions at the placers were still exorbitantly high priced.

According to the Alta Californian, the magistrates of the principal towns were about to present to Governor Smith and Commodore Jones a memorial of the state of the affairs of the provincial government, begging their assistance to carry out the plans which they had adopted to preserve good order, political and commercial. Also the legislative assembly of the district of San Francisco had prepared to lay before the Governor and Commodore a statement of the means adopted for the protection of the life, liberty and property of individuals. It was also desired that on the first of August a deputation should meet at Monterey to form a Constitution for California, supposing that the Congress of the Union will immediately erect the province into a sovereignty of the Confederation.

A weekly paper called the "Placer Times," is soon to be published at Sacramento. It is to give accurate information in relation to the mines. Sacramento has grown very rapidly and contains many handsome houses.

Plans were on foot to establish regular lines of mails though California. In the port of San Francisco there were eighty vessels, which number was daily augmented by new arrivals.

The town of San Francisco was under great excitement which arose from rumors that were afloat that the military were preparing to attack it, and that Gen. Smith had abolished all measures of safety taken by the legislature. The alcalde and the council of the town were displaced by justices of peace and police officers. The disorder which reigned in all branches of the administration was attributed to the conduct of the late governor, Col. Mason.

The reporter of the "Alta Californian" says he has seen a piece of gold, found in the river Stanislaus, by a man of the name of Weber, weighing 78 ounces and valued at $1248.

The Charleston Courier of 20th, has the following telegraphic dispatch, under the date of NEW ORLEANS, May 22. The barque Florida arrived at New Orleans on Monday from Chagres. Mr. Bell, of the U. S. Navy, came passenger in the Florida. Mr. B. has a lump of gold in his possession worth two thousand dollars. The accounts of the abundance of gold heretofore published, are said not to be exaggerated.

The Florida brings the gratifying intelligence that Col. Fremont had arrived in California.

"The Groans of the Britons." The "noise and confusion" of the Locofoco office-holders, as they, one by one, "kicked the bucket" under the operations of the Rough and Ready "galliotine," is a source of infinite amusement to the Whigs. One would think, that after a long life of infamous political iniquity, the rascals would prepare themselves to die in something like a decent, penitent manner. Like all old hardened, hopeless sinners, however, they give "up the ghost" amid volleys of blasphemies and imprecations against the over-ruling, inexorable hand that brings them unprepared, to their final account. Nevertheless, if there is any consolation in the beautifully expressed truth that "There is a tear for all that die, A mourner o'er the humblest grave," they have it; for that hoary old sinner, Father Ritchie, has volunteered to act as chief mourner for the whole crowd. We wish him good luck in the low price of onions.

By the way, nine out of ten of these fellows have failed to fill the Jeffersonian standard—and they know it. They ought, therefore, to do themselves the justice to die decently.—Chambersburg Whig.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.—Died, last week at Noblestown, Allegheny Co. Mr. DARBY DUNLAVY, in the 102d year of his age. Mr. D. was born as we learn in Ireland, but for many years has resided in this county, a substantial and respectable farmer where many of his descendants are now living.

PICTURE OF A GUILLOTINE.—The Pittsburgh Post has a picture of a frightful looking instrument which it calls a guillotine, with a dozen or fifteen heads scattered all around it. We could not possibly imagine, says the Louisville Journal, a more striking and palpable justification than this picture affords of the doings of the administration. A maner, villanous looking set of heads and faces were never seen on human shoulders—or off.

PITTSBURG AND ALLEGHENY SCRIP.—We learn that the Scrip of Pittsburg and Allegheny County is now purchased by brokers at ten per cent discount. Allegheny City Scrip is not so ready sale, in consequence of some defect or doubt that exists in regard to the right of the corporate authorities to dispose of the city property.

A DANIEL COME TO JUDGMENT.—Sir Edward Ryan's chief officer's servant had leave to go on shore; as he was going over the side, the mate thought he recognized one of his own shirts on his black boy; he of course stopped him and examined it, and found that it really was his; he then ordered the boy's box to be searched, and property belonging to him and the 2d officer was found in it. The boy was taken before Mr. Bird for examination. The Consular Agent, after patiently hearing the case, stated that he would give his decision on the following day. The following day came and the decision with it. I have made particular inquiry; quoth he, and find that it is customary for servants to wear their master's clothes when they go ashore,—there is no charge against the boy.—Canton Commercial List.

REMEDY FOR CHOLERA.—The British Ambassador at Vienna, Lord Ponsonby, in a letter to his brother, the Bishop of Derry, states, that by his knowledge, dissolved calomel proved to be a certain cure for cholera, both at Paris and in Germany, and if taken in time, the cure is generally effected before it is possible to procure a physician—that is, in less than an hour.

CALIFORNIA.—Private information received at the Department in Washington, states that preliminary intensions are in progress for the formation of a government in California, which will probably be consummated before the meeting of the next Congress.

UGLY EDITORS.—The editor of the Louisville Democrat, and Prentice of the Louisville Journal, have been discussing the relative personal beauty of each other lately. Prentice says that a lady, under the influence of chloroform, kissed the editor of the Democrat, and, upon returning to consciousness, was so mortified at what she had done that she went away and hung herself, and that on another occasion, when the same editor tried to look his prettiest, he was knocked down by a fellow from the country who supposed he was making faces at him. The editor of the Democrat retorts by saying that Prentice might be of some service as a "scarecrow," and Prentice in reply denies that his neighbor of the Democrat could be of any use even in keeping off the foul birds, for although he might "scare away the crows," he would be sure to attract the buzzards!

MARRIED. In this borough, on Thursday evening, 31st ult., by Rev. John Miller, Rev. EPHRAIM McCOLLUM, to Miss REBECCA HILDEBRAND, of this borough.

With the above notice we received a liberal portion of the wedding cake. Those who in their happy hours, retain kind thoughts of others, surely deserve to be blessed. And if the printers' wishes could rule the decrees of fate, no cloud of sorrow would ever cast a shadow upon the fair bride's future—and the pathway of her wedded life, would be strewn with roses only.

THE MARKETS. No change since our last issue.

DENTAL SURGERY. Drs. Neff & Miller. RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of Huntingdon and vicinity, that they have fitted up a room in the S. E. corner of Johnston's Hotel (entrance through Neff & Bro's Jewelry store) where they will take great pleasure in attending to all who may favor them with a call.

$5.00 REWARD. LOST on the 28th inst., between Millersburg and Vanleidersville, a POCKET BOOK containing about $50.00 in money, and a number of notes on different persons, and other papers.—The name is in the book. Any person finding said book and returning it to the owner, shall receive the above reward.

JAS. DEAN. Jackstown, June 5, 1849.

CAUTION. A travelling "gentleman" who calls himself Dr. J. A. VANDERSLICE, from Holland, now of Philadelphia, paid our town a visit last week, for the purpose of curing all diseases, without any other recompense than first cost for his medicine. The public should be on their guard, against this old quack. His sole purpose is to make money by charging enormous prices for tricks that will do more harm than good. In this town he made his brags of getting a fee of $25.00 from a poor woman, for medicine that cost him forty-five cents! All those who harbor him at night, should lock him up in his bedroom, provided there are any females about the house: for it is his practice to insult them in day-light as well as night. A. PATIENT. June 5, 1849.

Junata Cabinet Manufacturing Establishment. JOHN H. WHITTAKER, Respectfully begs leave to inform his friends and customers and the public generally, that he has built a large and commodious shop immediately in the rear of the public house of John Whittaker, Sr., on the bank between the river and canal, where he will constantly keep on hand furniture of all kinds, of the best quality, embracing all descriptions, kinds, styles and varieties of parlor, medium and plain household furniture, which will be offered for sale at this very
