regret at the bombardment of Rone.

Hungary and Austria.

The news is contradictory, some accounts giving the advantage to the Austrians. In the South two actions have happened, giving the advantage to the Austrians. The Hungarian General Perezel, from the fortress of Peterwardeim, made an attack on some Austrian entrenchments, but was ultimatly repulsed and driven with loss into Peterwardeim, although the Austrians admit that their own troops suffered severely. The other battle was fought by Baron Jellerchich, and it is asserted to have been a brilliant victory; but the Austrian accounts are evidently not trustworthy—at least as regards their own losses.

The London Globe of the evening of the The London Globe of the evening of the 22d says, we have intelligence from Vienna to June 16th. The great news is a tremendous encounter with the Hungarians. The Austrians and Russians are said to have been completely defeated, and to have left on the field the fabulous number of twenty three thousand killed. This battle took place on the 13th and 15th, on the large plain between Kaub and Weisselburg. It lasted 61 hours. The loss of the Maygars is stated at 8,000. The Austrians were commanded by Hayman, the Russians by Rubizer, and the Hungarians by Georgey. Although the news is up to the 13th this battle has been received in private letters. Singulaly enough sians by Rubizer, and the Hungarians by Georgey. Although the news is up to the 13th this battle has been received in private letters. Singulaly enough no papers allude to it. The Lloyd of Vienna contains not the most distant allasion to it, and another affair which must not be confounded with the above, is mentioned as having occurred at Cyoma. A brigade was sent by Scheick from Ordensburg; under Gen. Wyss, in that direction, Gen. W. was taken prisoner, and the Uhlan Col. Baron Yessner, killed.

Scheick sent out this brigade to cover his right flank; as he was marching to Rand, it was beaten on the 13th ult. Some reports represent this whole brigade as having been destroyed, others say that 4,000 men have deserted en masse from Scheick to the Magyars. What is certain—carts of wounded for three days have been continually pouring into Presburg and the places about. A fresh recruitment throughout all Austria, is intended.

Letters from Oclenburg, state that a certain Count, Imperial Chamberlain, and others, in whose possession a number of passports of the Rebel party have been found, have been arrested. The only mention or rather allusion which can be gleaned from Vienna papers, with regard to a great battle reported, is in the above.

Private letters say that the battle is said to have taken place near Raab, is surmise, and the defeat of the Wyss brigade, has given origin to the fabulous rumors.

brigade, has given origin to the labeled rumors.

On the other hand the authorities maintain that the rout of Wyh was only an episode of the other battle.

A letter of the 13th ult., from Cracow, in the Breslaw Gazette mentions an affair between the vanguard of Magyars and the Russians within the Gallacian frontier at Lorbornaw. The Russian Col. Magden was killed. Two hundred Capacks were cut off and taken prisoners. Another letter of the 15th from Cracow mentions a report of an engagment at ington, of a daily Whig Administration paper, to be called The Republic, the editorial supervision of which will be committed to the exclusive care of Alexander C. Bullitt and John O. Sargent.

The Republic will give to the principles upon which the administration of Gen. Taylor came into power a cordial, zealous, and constant support. It will be a faithful record of the times; it will discuss public measures in an impartial and independent splrit. It will be a vehicle of the lacest and most authentic information: it will be, in a word, a political newspaper, devoted to the liberatizing and progressive doctrines which prevailed in the late Presidential crinxes; to the interests of labor, as developed in the wants of agriculture, commerce, and marufactures, and to the cause of literature, science, and general intelligence.

The Republic will acknowledge no allegiance except to the country. It will aim to merit the confidence and support of the American people. It will be the organ of no person, or party or fraction of a party, in that compulsory sense which would hinder it from speaking boldly and candidy to the People about whatever it concerns them to know.

The Republic will be printed upon a double royal sheet, in a new, large, clear, readable type. Besides the Daily paper, there will be published a Trieweck y and Weekly Republic, made up of the most interesting and important matter of the Daily issue.
