THE SINGING JOUR PRINTER.—Police-man Bagley who picked up John Long on the sidewalk on Saturday night in an apparently dying state, brought his pri-soner before the sitting Police magistrate Sunday morning. On being introduced into the office, Long commenced sing-ing—

"Who has not known that painful hour, When from the fumes of liquor waking, Reason in part regains her power, With stomach sick and noddle aching.

O, how we execrate the wine, The punch, the song, the midnight revel; Ah, gettting tipsy is divine, But getting sober is the devil."

"Bring that man up here," said the magistrate—"John you are charged with getting drunk last night—have you got any money to pay your fine with?" Pris.—Talk not to me of money [Put-ting his hand to his aching head.] Ah, your honor, did you but know how my head aches, you would let me go at once. Magistrate—Your head aches does it ?

it? Prisoner—Ah, don't it ? Magistrate—Well, I should suppose any man's head would ache who would make such a beast of himself as toget drunk and lay down on the side-walk. I say, are you able to pay your fine ? Prisoner - Able to pay my fine ! I say, talk not to me of money ! Magistrate—What's your occupation? Prisoner —I'm a printer, sir. Magistrate—And you disgrace your profession, too.

Prisoner -- I'm a printer, sir. Magistrate--And you disgrace your profession, too. Prisoner--[Scratching his head--which is done very frequently by those who sleep in the station-house.]-- Did 1 understand you, sir, that 1 belong to a disgraceful profession 1 Know you not that we of the type control the mighty mind of man. I've seen better times, your honor--but als! the days of fat takes are past and gone. There's no work in the city. Of the cursed sub treasury! By the evidence of the policeman it appears that the prisoner was found not far from the ruins of the Park Theatre, at 11 o'clock at night reposing on the side-walk. He belonged to that class of typos who have a peculiar antipathy to typose who have a peculiar antipathy to typose who have a negative should u-nite Church and State--and whenever he was seized with a fit of the blue der-ils, he would drown them out with "blue ruin." He was fined one dollar--no money. Committed. Moreno Herms.

Among the news brought by the late arrival from the Satt Lake is the subjoin-ed: A winter's hunt, by rival parties of 100 men each, has destroyed about 700 wolves and foxes, 2 wolverines, 20 minx and polecat, 500 flawics, owls and magpies, and 100 ravens, in this valley and vicinity.

magpies, and 100 ravens, in this valley and vicinity. On the return of a portion of the mormon battalion, through the northern part of western California, they discov-ered an extensive gold mine, which enable them, by a few days delay, to bring sufficient of the dust to make money plenty in this place for all ordi-uary purposes of public convenience; in the exchange, the brethren deposited the gold dust with the Presidency, who issued bills, or paper currency; and the 'Kirtland Safety Fund,' resigned, is on par with gold.

On the 1st of Jaunary last, John Smith, uncle to the prophet Joseph Smith, was ordained Patriarch of the Church, holding the keys and powers thereof, same as Father Joseph Smith and Hiram. All the vacancies in the list of Twelve Apostles were filled on the 12th of Feb-uary last. In the former part of February, the Bishops took an unventory of the bread-stuffs in the Valley, when it was repor-ted a little more than three-fourths of a pound per day, for each soul, until the fifth of July, and considerable was known to exist which was not reported. As a natural consequence, some were nearly destitute, while others had an abundance ; the common price of corn, since harvest, has been two dollars; some have sold for three; at present there is none in market at any price. Wheat has ranged from four to five dol-lars, and potaives from six to twenty dollars per bushel, and though not to be bought at present, it is expected there will be a good supply for seed another year. will be a good supply for seed another year. A GENUTINE PROGRESSIVE.- Major Lewis Fig, of Nelson county, Kentucky, who claims to be the real and genuine "Tecumsch Killer," offers himself as a candidate for the Convention to remodel the clostitution of that State. He an-nounces that he will not only advocate the election of Judges, Magistrates, &c., kc, by the people, but will also go for the election of Judges, Magistrates, &c., by the people, but will also go for the election of Preachers, Schoal-mas-nussances, and says he will go for abol-shing them. He considers it quite Anti-Democratic to grant any set of men exclusive privileges, merely to be-debts, while they never pay their own. Baltimore Argus.

 Severe Case of Dyspepsia.
 From R. P. STOW, Esq., Asst. Clerk U. S. House Representatives.
 WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15, 1846.
 Da. GRO. B. GREEN:-Dear Sir-I feel it not only a pleasu e, but a duty, to make known to you and to the public, (if you desire it.) the sur-prising effects of the -Oxygenated Bitters," in relieving me from that most discouraging disor-der, Dyspepsia. I have been afflicted for about seventeen years with the usual attendant symp-toms, viz: contribution of the bowels, headache, pain in the clesst, flatulence acidity of the stom-ach, and severe nausea; and for months at a time not the least particle of moisture would appear on the surface of the chest or limbs, and most of the time I was extremely billous. I have used various remedies, have been strict in my diet, have been dosed with calomel and emetics day after day by physicians, but all to ne good pur-pose. Hearing of the wonderful effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in the cure of Dyspepsia, I procured some as a last resort, have used four bottles of the medici e, and find the bad symp-toms all removed, and myself once more in the enjowment of health. None but the Dyspepties sufferer, who has felt a 1 the horrors of the dis-case, can at all appreciate the value of the medic-cine. I most sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, and with we be of the medic-cine, in most sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, and with me be able to re-jore in the return of health. very

 DEAN SIRI--IL gives me great pleasure to inform you that the 'Oxygenated Bitters,'' with which you furnished my wife, has wrought a cure in her case. 'A bout two years since, my wife was violently attacked with neuralgia in the face, through the cheet, in the wrists and ankles. So violent was the disease. added to a speneral derangement of the female system, that the strongth was completely prostrated, her flesh wasted, and she rendered miserable indeed. I tell grateful for the restoration of the health, and in duy bound to give publicity to the above facts, that to there similarly afflicted may know where to seek for cure. Truly your friend.
 From Hon. MYRON LAWRENCE, of Mass.
 "For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humoral Asthma. I was compleid to sit up one-third of the night, and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great diffic ity of breathing. In all my attendance upon our courts I never went to bed in Northampton in twenty years but wice, I and then excorpled to get up. Now I is now the 'Oxygenated Bitter,'' according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abded, and perseverance in the use of it energies to the its vitue may be widely its medual ble, and here store such a remedy is incalculable, and the set of such a remedy is incalculable, and the set of such a remedy is incalculable, and the set of such a remedy is incalculable, and the set of such a remedy is incalculable, and the set of the sub words of the store on the sub its vitues may be widely its fluxed and its beneficent agency extensively employed."

ne generally, that they have established at the place above mentioned, a BOARD-ING SCHOOL for the education of young men. The course of instruction comprises, in addition to the usual branches of a common English education: Philosophy, Mathematics, and the Latin and Greek languages. The location is distinguished for its healthfulness and the moral and religious character of the surrounding community Every attention will be paid to the health and morals of the pu-pils as well as to their mental training and advancement in scientific knowl-edge, and every facility will be afforded for their personal comfort and conveni-ence. The year is divided into two ses-sions of five months each ; the winter session commencing on the 1st of No-vember, and the Summer session com-mencing on the 23d of April. Terms per Session :--For Orthegra-phy, History and composition, $8.--Mathematics, Greek and Latin lan-guages, $ 2. Boarding, exclusive of fuel and light, $1.25 per week. Instruc-tion given in French and German, at an additional charge. The subscribers, en-couraged by the liberal patronage which they have already received, would re-peat, that they are determined to spare no effort in making the Institution one that will commend itself to all parents who desire to give their sons thorough preparatory education, without expo-sing them to the contaminating and im-moral influcuces that exist in more pop-ulous communities.
