THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20, 1849.
The Flour market continues quiet, and both buyers and sellers are anxious to learn the tenor of the steamer's advices before operating. Holders ask $4.75 for strictly round parcels. Sales of 500 bbls old stock, recently inspected at $4.62 1/2 per bbl. Rye Flour—Sales of 3 to 100 bbls at $3. Most holders will not accept this price. Corn Meal is in limited demand. Small sales at $2.75 per bbl.
There is a good demand for wheat, and prices are fully maintained. Sales of old red at $1.05 and a small lot of new crop white at $1.08. Further sales of Rye at 57 cents per bushel. Corn is scarce and wanted. Sales of yellow, part at 60 cts. and part at a price to be fixed. Oats—We quote inferior and prime Southern at 25 a 30 cts., and Pennsylvania at 31 a 32 cts per bushel. Whiskey in barrels is held at 25 cents. Small sales of bbls at 24 cents.
The inspections of Flour and Meal at this port for the week ending the 19th inst., were as follows—10,556 bbls, and 100 hfl bbls Flour; 1,839 bbls Rye Flour; and 975 bbls, and 10 hfl bbls. Corn Meal.—Daily News.

DIED.

In this borough, on the morning of the 19th inst., Mr. PHILIP REARD, aged about 24 years.
In West township, on the morning of the 16th inst., Mr. JOHN BORSY, aged about 45 years.
In West township, on the 13th inst., Mr. SAMUEL MYTON, a highly respected citizen, aged about 50 years.

[The following tribute to the memory of Mr. SAMUEL LEVY, by a young friend of this borough, was handed in too late for insertion in our last paper, which contained the announcement of his death.—Ed.]

For the Journal.

Mr. Levy was a native of Delaware county, Pa.; was graduated at Dickinson College in the class of 1817, taking the first honor. Since that time he has been a member of the Engineer corps Pennsylvania Rail Road, stationed at Birmingham. When death strikes down a friend, and when, too, that one is afflicted with high and noble qualities, we are afflicted with a double pang; sorrow deep and abiding, such as none but those who have been deprived of one bound by the closest ties can feel, fill our hearts with sadness. The feeling produced among his friends and associates by the announcement of his untimely departure, evince that he was universally esteemed. We mourn that not only we are deprived of the pleasure and profit of his intercourse, but our sympathy extends to his family, bereft of a faithful and affectionate son and brother. Society has lost an ornament, and his immediate acquaintances a friend whom to know was to love and respect.

Endowed with talents of a superior order, truly desirous to play an honorable part in the great drama of human life, had he not been cut down in the bloom of his existence, his prospect of future usefulness was bright and cheering.—His disposition kind and conciliating endeared him to all those with whom he had any intercourse. But he has passed from among us, yet his virtues live after him, and long will they and his memory alike be cherished by those who had the good fortune to be his friends.
"Gone be the turbaned thee,
Friend of my better days,
None knew thee but to love thee,
Nor named thee, but to praise.
"Though memory bids me weep thee,
Nor thoughts nor words are free,
The griefs fixed too deeply,
That mourns a man like thee."

CHAMBERSBURG FEMALE SEMINARY, CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

The Misses Pinno, Principals.

THIS is a select Family Boarding and Day School; Chambersburg affording a most desirable location for the purpose of such an Institution.
This establishment occupies one of the most delightful situations in the town. Surrounded by extensive grounds, containing ornamental trees, shrubbery, and fine fruit; it is peculiarly adapted to the purpose of a Boarding School. These grounds afford the young ladies opportunity for amusement and exercise, without leaving the care of their teachers, who embrace the advantages these hours of relaxation offer for mingling agreeably with them, thus studying their characters, securing their affections, and advancing their improvement in various respects.

The boarding pupils form a family circle with their Teachers; and enjoy all the comforts, and happy influences of a well regulated home.—Their personal habits and manners are watched over with interest and care, and abundant testimony has been given to the rapid improvement of those entrusted to them, in these respects.
The course of instruction pursued is extensive and thorough, embracing all the various branches of an English education, the Latin and French languages, Music and Drawing. The advantages for Music are very superior, such are seldom to be found in any Institution.

Pupils will be carried through the regular course and receive Diplomas as testimonials at its close, or such branches be selected as the parent or guardian may choose. The number of pupils is limited, as it is the chief object and sincere desire of the Principals to benefit those committed to their care; and, as far as possible, instruction is given by themselves in preference to employing assistants; but in the choice of Teachers who must, to some extent, be associated with them, the greatest care is taken, and those only selected whose views of teaching are congenial, and whom they can implicitly trust.
The Principals of this Institution design that its advantages, Literary, Moral and Religious, shall be of the highest order, and no efforts shall be spared to make them at least equal to those of any other, either in the city or country. It is a chartered Institution, and under the care of a Board of Trustees.

A new term will commence upon the 1st of September, and applications for admission or any further information may be made to the Misses Pinno, at their residence, or to any of the gentlemen of the committee in Chambersburg, or to John G. Miles, Esq., John Scott, Esq., Huntingdon.

The undersigned Committee of this Board take pleasure in commending the Institution to the confidence of the public and the patronage of parents who would secure for their daughters the advantages of a thorough and liberal education.

The Chambersburg Female Seminary has long occupied an elevated position in the public estimation as a school of uncommon merit. It has contributed in no small degree to elevate the standard of female education in our country, to deepen and extend the conviction of its importance; and to furnish incontestable proof of the advantages which such a system, properly conducted, is destined to confer on a community. Such evidence has been amply furnished in the history of this Institution. It has been eminently successful in training the minds and disciplining the affections of not a few who are now filling with dignity responsible stations in the domestic and social circles of life, and who are exerting an efficient influence on the well being of society.

Of the young Ladies who have charge of the Institution, the Committee deem it needless to speak in the way of commendation. Their character, and qualifications as teachers, are of the highest order. We can therefore, safely say to parents who wish to place their daughters at Boarding School, that this is an Institution to which they may send them with entire confidence that they will be watched over with maternal care and furnished with every requisite facility for receiving an accomplished Christian education.

Frederick Smith, Esq., Barnard Wolff, S. D. Culbertson, M. D., Rev. Daniel McKinley, Rev. B. S. Schneck, Committee.

WHAT IS THE MATTER

with me, Doctor? What is the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer! It is the liver which is diseased, and the Cholagogue is the remedy always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourself. For sale by above named agents.

BETTER DIE THAN LIVE,

if I am to be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED

in the above exclamation is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents.
