APPLETON'S GREAT CENTRAL CHEAP BOOK STORE, 164 Chestnut Street, Corner of Seventh, Swan's Buildings, PHILADELPHIA.

KNOWING the wants of the community, the Proprietor of this establishment has fitted up a store in the most elegant manner, having due regard to the comfort of his customers, so that every stranger visiting his Book Store, may feel entirely at home.

HIS IMMENSE STOCK of Books is classified according to the various Departments of Literature, so that visitors can find the books they are in search of for themselves. Buying his stock for the most part at the AUCTION SALES, and being connected with one of the LARGEST PUBLISHING HOUSES in this country, besides publishing largely himself, enables him to sell ALL BOOKS at LOWER PRICES than any other house of a similar character on this continent. His facilities for the IMPORTATION of Books from Europe are unsurpassed, having a branch of his Establishment in London, where orders of private gentlemen are carefully executed and forwarded to this Country by every STEAMER and PACKET.

A CATALOGUE of Books with the prices attached is issued quarterly, containing Lists of New Additions made to his large collection, which are in all cases for sale at the LOWEST PRICES, or, from 25 to 75 per cent. below Publishers' Prices. This in buying even a few books, quite a considerable amount is saved.

As a still further INDUCEMENT to strangers visiting the city, every one who purchases One Dollar's worth of Books, will receive a copy of the STRANGER IN PHILADELPHIA, an elegant 18mo volume, the price of which is 25 cents.

The limits of this advertisement are too confined to enumerate the prices of any of the Books, or to give even a faint idea of the immense advantages to be derived from purchasing at the Great Central Cheap Book-store, but let all who are in search of Books send for a Catalogue, and buy the Books they are in want of, and when visiting the city, give Appleton one call, and you will be sure to call again.

STATIONARY in all its branches, furnished at the Lowest Prices. The Initials of those purchasing Letter and Note Paper, neatly stamped in the corner without charge. Orders for any article may be sent by mail, addressed to the Proprietor, and the directions in all cases will be fully carried out, with great punctuality and despatch. LIFE INSURANCE. The Girard Life Insurance Annuity and Trust Company of Philadelphia. Office No. 159 Chestnut Street. Capital $300,000. CHARTER PERPETUAL.

CONTINUE to make Insurances on Lives on the most favorable terms, receive and execute Trusts and being deposited on interest. The Capital being paid up and invested, together with accumulated premium fund, affords a perfect security to the insured. The premium may be paid in yearly, half yearly, or quarterly payments.

The Company add a BONUS at stated periods to the insurances for life. This plan of insurance is the most approved, of and is more generally in use, than any other in Great Britain, (where the subject is best understood by the people, and where they have had the longest experience,) as appears from the fact, that out of 117 Life Insurance Companies there, of all kinds, 87 are on this plan.

The first BONUS was appropriated in December 1844, amounting to 10 per cent. of the sum insured under the oldest policies; to 8-3-4 per cent. 7-12 per cent., &c. &c. on others, in proportion to the time of standing, making an addition of $100; $87,500; $75, &c. &c. to every 1,000, originally insured, which is an average of more than 50 per cent. on the premiums paid, and without increasing the annual payment of the company.

The operation of the BONUS will be seen by the following examples from the Life Insurance Register of the Company, thus:

Table with 4 columns: Policy, Insured, Bonus or Addition, Amt. of pol. and bonus payable at the party's decease.

Pamphlets containing the table of rates, and explanations of the subject; forms of application and further information can be had at the office, gratis, in person or by letter, addressed to the President or Actuary. B. W. RICHARDS, President. J. F. JAMES, Actuary. May 8, 1849-1y.

GREEN'S OXYGENATED BITTERS, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c.

This medicine is an excellent tonic. It imparts health and vigor to the digestive organs and thus strengthens the whole system. Hence it is justly the thing for Spring, when so many need something strengthening. Let every one read the following cases, and if you have one or more symptoms like those mentioned, don't fail to try this invaluable medicine.

Severe Case of Dyspepsia. From R. P. STOW, Esq., Asst. Clerk U. S. House Representatives. WASHINGTON, D. C. June 15, 1846.

Dr. Geo. B. GREEN:—Dear Sir—I feel it not only a pleasure, but a duty, to make known to you and to the public, (if you desire it,) the surprising effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in relieving me from that discouraging disorder, Dyspepsia. I have been afflicted for about seventeen years with the usual attendant symptoms, viz: constipation of the bowels, headache, pain in the chest, flatulence, acidity of the stomach, and severe nausea; and for months at a time not the least particle of moisture would appear on the surface of the chest or limbs, and most of the time I was extremely bilious. I have used various remedies, have been strict in my diet, have been dosed with calomel and emetics day after day by physicians, but all to no good purpose. Hearing of the wonderful effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in the cure of Dyspepsia, I procured some at a resort, have used four bottles of the medicine, and find the bad symptoms all removed, and myself once more in the enjoyment of health. None but the Dyspeptic sufferer, who has felt a l the horrors of the disease, can at all appreciate the value of the medicine. I most sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, and with me be able to rejoice in the return of health.

Lady Cured of Neuralgia. From Rev. THOMAS KIDDER, of Vermont. WINDSOR, Vt., Aug. 8, 1846.

DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the "Oxygenated Bitters" with which you furnished my wife, has wrought a cure in her case. About two years since my wife was violently attacked with neuralgia in the face, through the chest, in the wrists and ankles. So violent was the disease, added to a general derangement of the female system, that her strength was completely prostrated, her flesh wasted, and she rendered miserable indeed. I feel grateful for the restoration of her health, and in duty bound to give publicity to the above facts, that others similarly afflicted may know where to seek for cure. Truly your friend, THOMAS KIDDER.

For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humoral Asthma. I was compelled to sit up one-third of the night, and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great difficulty of breathing. In all my attendance upon my wife I never went to bed in Northampton in twenty years but twice, and then was compelled to get up. Now I lie in bed without difficulty, and sleep soundly. I took the "Oxygenated Bitters," according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abated, and perseverance in the use of the remedy has removed all its troublesome consequences. The value of such a remedy is incalculable, and I hope its virtues may be widely diffused and its beneficent agency extensively employed. GREEN & FLETCHER, General Agents, No. 26, South Sixth St. Philadelphia. Sold wholesale and retail by THOMAS READ & SON, Huntingdon, Pa. Price—$1.00 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00. May 8, 1849.
