

The Foreign Market.

Much has been said, and many have been the changes that have been rung in the Locooco papers upon the importance of the Foreign Market, that the tariff of 1846 was to create for our Farmers. But it turns out, as the friends of a substantial, regular market at home always predicted, that England, whose patronage that Tariff was especially designed to secure, finds it more advantageous to seek for her supplies elsewhere. A recent statement furnishes the fact, that of the article of Wheat which some lococoos think is only raised in this country, a much larger proportion imported into England is from the continent of Europe. This we believe is generally the case. England, too, is a great wheat growing country. We extract the following article from the New York Scientific American, a paper interfering in no way with party politics:

ENGLISH SUPPLIES FROM THE BLACK SEA, &c.—Southern Russia, lying on the borders of the Black Sea, raises vast quantities of wheat and grass. The British trade in that direction is increasing rapidly to supply their wants in provisions, and to supply those countries with British Manufactures. In the years from 1825 to 1830, not more than 20 to 30 British vessels passed the Bosphorus straits for the Black Sea ports annually. In 1848 not less than 300 British vessels were engaged in that trade. They supply the people with British goods, and have driven American goods from those ports; and bring return cargoes of grain, butter, tallow and hides.

England too, now receives from the Danube immense quantities of beef for her army and navy on contract, cured as follows: Bullocks there are raised at very cheap rate in Wallachia and Moldavia, and sold alive at $12 or $15 a head. The hides, bones and horns pay the cost. The beef is cut up in small pieces, the bones taken out, and put in small tight tin boxes with a little water, and no salt; a small hole only left in the corner of the box. They are set in a large iron vessel with water, and boiled until all the liquid in the boxes has escaped. The hole is then soldered up, and being thus left free of all air the beef in them is known to keep as fresh as when it was put up. This ought to be remembered and tried.

Iron Interests—The Tariff.

The Pittsburg American has the following account of an interview which took place between the President and a portion of the leading Iron men of that part of the State:

On Monday (this) morning, a number of the furnace owners in Western Pennsylvania, now in this city, were introduced by Gov. Johnston to the President, who received them with the greatest cordiality. The President made minute and particular enquiries into the state and condition of the Iron trade, all of which were fully and carefully replied to by Messrs. Myers, Kerr, King, Black and others. The President, in the course of his conversation, expressed his decided disapprobation of the present tariff as utterly inadequate to the protection of many interests demanding it, and said that he considered the change from the tariff of 1842 to that of 1846 as unfortunate to many valuable interests in the country, and particularly to that of labor. That what we required was specific, not ad valorem duties—that these latter left us at the mercy of the markets in Europe—gave protection to industry here when it was not wanted, and denied it to us when we did. He said he was in favor of a system that would promise permanency; sufficiently high to give reasonable protection to the country but not so high as to amount to exclusion—he would not go, he said; for that.

PERFIDY AND RETRIBUTION.—The San Francisco correspondent of the N. York Advertiser, says the U. S. ship Warren, lost 25 men in the harbor of Monterey, who deserted to the mines; and five sailors and three marines stole a boat with which they all escaped except one who, on alarm being given, received a shot in his leg, which has ruined him for life. The others started for the mines, but before they had gone half the way the marines parted from the sailors. The latter came to a farm house, where the owner treated them hospitably with supper and lodgings, when the inhuman wretches turned to and robbed and murdered the whole family, men, women and children! But the people at the mines hearing of it pursued and found them, and tied them up and shot them on the spot.

HEAVY VERDICT AGAINST A CLERGYMAN.—Rev. Alexander Campbell, President of Bethany (Va.) College, has recovered $10,000 of Rev. James Robinson, of Scotland. Mr. Campbell, on a tour through Scotland, in 1847, was arrested and imprisoned in Edinburgh, through the agency of the Rev. James Robinson, for having, while discoursing on the subject of slavery, uttered sentiments obnoxious to that gentleman. Some of his friends instituted a suit against Mr. R. This suit has recently terminated, and the result is a decree of the Lords of Council and Session in favor of Mr. Campbell for two thousand pounds sterling.

THE PEOPLE MOVING!

Agreeable to public notice given on Saturday last, a meeting of the friends of J. S. MORRIS for the Legislature, was held in the evening, at the Court House.

The meeting was organized by the election of the following gentlemen to preside:

HENRY SMITH, President.

FREDERICK WERT, MICHAEL DECKER and JOHN BURNHAM, Vice Presidents; and JAMES GIBSON, Secretary.

On motion of Thos. Adams, the chair appointed the following a committee to draft a preamble and resolutions for the consideration of the meeting:

Thos. Adams, Edward C. Summers, Alex. Port, Esq., Jno. N. Ball, Wm. Drennen, Geo. Long.

During the absence of the committee, Geo. S. Morris, was, on motion, invited to address the meeting. He took the stand amidst the thundering and deafening applause of the people, and addressed them as follows:

Friends and Fellow Citizens:—I am called upon to enter the political arena. I, even I, an humble private, do with great diffidence, make my appearance in the field. It requires no ordinary exertions on my part to enter the list where my honorable competitors are officers of high rank and noble daring—well skilled in all the paraphernalia of war—dextrous in the use of all the various instruments of death, from the thundering bomb of largest calibre, down to the deadly rille, to say nothing of scapping and muzzling, which, I have no doubt, the Colonels well understand, it being an important branch in military tactics, though not so very essential in our Legislative Halls. If indeed military prowess qualifies men for all civil stations, well might I quail before such formidable odds. But, fellow citizens, relying upon your firmness, I launch my frail bark upon this tempestuous sea, feeling assured that many in both great political parties will pull stoutly at the oars to save my feeble craft from being wrecked upon the rocks of aristocratical misrule. I may not be as successful as David, in contending with Goliath, but I do not feel disposed to quit the field until fairly vanquished. Many honest and true men of both parties have deeply regretted the course pursued by their leaders, in giving direction to the great political car of Juggernaut which is yearly dragged through our happy land. Men of all parties have looked on with a shamed face and bleeding heart to see their fellow men crushed beneath its ponderous wheels. Fellow Citizens, are there no means which can be used to remedy this crying evil? I think there are, in this glorious Republic, where we are not bound down by caste, but where the humblest individual is eligible to office, and where merit alone should be the standard.

Men of all parties call upon you in the name of suffering humanity, to throw of the shackles that have so long bound you. Wake up to your true interests—be no longer the willing subjects of political tricksters—step boldly forward and do your own work, for you are abundantly able to do it. And you whose lot is cast with the "toiling millions," do not forget that you are men, endowed with the faculties of speech and reason, and although those faculties have not been as extensively cultivated as you could have wished, yet show to the world that you can think—yes more, that you can vote!

Much do I regret my inability to address you in that truly eloquent style, so pleasing to the ear and fascinating to the eye, so eminently possessed by my worthy competitors. But fearing you will not, you cannot, you do not expect any thing of the kind from me, an obscure man who toils for his daily bread and frequently eats it without butter. All that I can promise you is, in whatever station of life I am called to act, my highest ambition will be so to conduct myself that my friends may not have cause to blush at my neglect of duty; and show by my acts that the heart is in the right place should the hour come.

The committee on resolutions having returned, through their chairman, Thos. Adams, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We the citizens of the borough of Huntingdon and the adjoining townships, of both political parties, believing it to be our duty, as it is our right, as American citizens, and freemen, to act independent of party schemes, demagogic intrigues, have determined, in the majesty of our strength, without party support from the present Whig and Democratic nominees for the Legislature, for the reason that we believe them not to be the choice of the people of Huntingdon county, because they do not know the wants of the people, not being of their rank and file; and as we want a candidate of good, sound common sense—a man of the people, to whom we can give our support, we nominate J. S. MORRIS, of the Borough of Huntingdon, as our candidate, the candidate of the people, in whom we can place full confidence, and against whom, no man can (in truth) say ought, either as to his character as a citizen, or to his qualifications to discharge the duties of a Legislator; therefore Resolved, That we acknowledge J. S. MORRIS to be the people's candidate for Assembly and pledge to him our hearty and undivided support; and that we will use all honorable means to elect him.

Resolved, That we invite the co-operation of our fellow citizens in each and every township in Huntingdon county, in favor of the election of J. S. MORRIS, the People's candidate, and to organize and act as independents, and maintain their rights as freemen.

Resolved, That a People's Central Committee be appointed, whose duty it shall be to correspond with the citizens of the county friendly to Job's election; and that the Central Committee be authorized to appoint Committees of Vigilance for each township of such of the people who will act as becomes men, who value their rights and dare maintain them against all opposition of the self-constituted leaders of both the Whig and Democratic parties.

Resolved, That the Central Committee be requested to issue an address to the voters of Huntingdon county, at such time as may be most convenient for them to attend to said duty.

Resolved, That the Central Committee be requested to furnish the editors of the Globe and Journal with a copy of these proceedings, and all others favorable to the success of our candidate, which may be adopted by said committee hereafter, and request their publication.

On motion, the chair appointed the following gentlemen the Central Committee, to act as required by the foregoing resolutions:

Thos. Adams, E. C. Summers, Alex. Port, Esq., Robt. Stitt, Wm. Drennen, Jno. N. Ball, Jno. H. Adams, Jr., Henry Glazier, Daniel Africa, Fredert Wertz, Nathaniel Williams, Geo. Long, Owen Boat, Edward Woods and Michael Decker.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

[Signed by the Officers.]

Note by the Central Committee.—Persons in the country at a distance friendly to the election of Job, will address the chairman of said committee at Huntingdon.

What is the real cause of this alleged democratic defaulter? [Denby;] and where has the money gone to—Union.

Why the case appears to be the possession, and the money has gone into the rascal's pocket.

W. A. Com.

Adjourned Sale of Mount Union TOWN LOTS.

OWING to the inclemency of the weather, the sale of Town Lots, advertised for the 23d inst., has been adjourned to

Saturday the 15th day of September,

when the undersigned will sell without reserve, every second or third Lot, alternately, in the business part of Mount Union, Hunt. county, Pa. These Lots are pleasantly situated and favorably located with reference to the Canal, Rail Road and Country trade, at a point on the State Road leading from Chambersburg, and other public thoroughfares, the trade and travel of not only the entire lower end of Huntingdon, but also a portion of Bedford and Franklin counties must necessarily concentrate. The design of the proprietors in selling so large a portion of their Lots at Auction, at such prices as purchasers are disposed to pay, is for the purpose of giving an impetus to the growth of the place. Immediately after the sale referred to, we shall demand an advance of at least 20 per cent on the remaining Lots over the price that similar Lots may have sold for at public sale.—Persons therefore, desirous of purchasing valuable real estate at their own prices will please remember the 15th September, 1849.

TERMS.—10 per cent. in ten days; 15 per cent. in six months, and the remainder in 2 years with interest.

WHAT IS THE MATTER with me, Doctor!

What is the cause of this shallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry, and such the symptoms of a man suffering! It is the liver which is diseased, and the Cholagogue is the remedy always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourself. For sale by above named agents.

BETTER DIE THAN LIVE,

if I am to be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce this promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

HOW few who think aright among the thinking few.

How many never think, but only think they do!

THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED in the above exclamation is no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents.
