

Prussian Brutality.
AN AMERICAN IN A PRUSSIAN PRISON.—A letter from Basle, Switzerland, dated Aug. 13, to the Philadelphia Pennsylvania, says that a citizen of Harrisburg, Pa., named Beck, is now imprisoned in the Fortress of Rostatt, by the Prussians for some political offence, and that they are ready to relieve him on his giving guarantee that he will immediately leave for the United States, and never return again to Continental Europe. The same writer also adds:

"Only yesterday morning, in this neighborhood, in Freiburg, a young, intelligent, and literary man, named Neff, personally known to me, was shot, having been found guilty by a Prussian court martial of exciting, by writing, the people of Baden and Germany to be dissatisfied with the present form of government; and last, but not least, of being in correspondence with the democrats of France, Switzerland and America! Upon these grounds, the man (only 27 years old, and only support of an aged, widowed mother.) was condemned and shot. He died like a man. When arrived at the place of execution, he swung his hat, and exclaimed in a loud voice, Long live German Liberty—long live the German Republic!" These were his last words, and eight bullets entered his breast at the same instant. The executioners were as pale as death, whilst Neff looked cheerful.

LAMA SHEEP FOR AMERICA.—Mr. L. T. Brown, of the U. S. Legation at Bolivia has written to Managers of the American Institute offering to procure alpaca vicuna or Lama sheep for America Agriculturists. Their cost in Bolivia is from three to five dollars each, but on account of the difficulty of transportation, they would be worth $75 each delivered in New York.

Sleep.
We term sleep a death; and yet it is waking that kills us, and destroys spirits that are the house of life.

It is indeed a part of life that best expresseth death; for every man truly lives so long as he acts his nature, or some way makes good the faculties of himself. The chemist, therefore, who slew the soldier in his sleep, was a merciful executioner. It is a kind of punishment the mildness of no laws hath invented. It is that death we may literally be said to die daily, a death which Adam died before his mortality; a death whereby we live; a middle and moderating point between life and death. In fine, so like death, I dare not trust it without my prayers, and a holy adieu unto the world.

THE NUMBER OF DOGS IN THE UNITED STATES.—If it be within the power of those who are to give directions about the next census, we hope they will take measures to ascertain the number of dogs male and female in every county in the Union, and if it could be done, it would be useful, also to have a return of the number of sheep killed by dogs. At two cents a day, it is probable that the cost of dogs is equal to the value of our exports of grain and provisions this year and it is not impossible that our sheep husbandry would add as much more to the wealth of the country, if it were not for the fear of having the sheep destroyed by dogs.

We are no enemy of dogs, of genuine blood kept and used for their legitimate purposes—all such will ever find in us strong friends and defenders.—But we have a great aversion to idle useless whelps, born only to consume the fruits of the land. Whether they go on four legs or two!—The Plough the Loom and the Anvil.

The deceased was a member of the "United Brothers Lodge," No. 176, of the I. O. of F., the members of which (who were in session at the time the melancholly intelligence was received) immediately

Resolved, That the death of our much esteemed brother, WILLIAM SELZRAGE, has filled us with the most profound sorrow, and while we most deeply lament his loss, his remembrance will ever be most kindly cherished by us his brethren, for that kind and affectionate disposition which has ever characterized his intercourse with us.

Resolved, That our sympathy and condolence be respectfully tendered to his widow, children and friends, who have thus been early bereaved of a kind husband, an affectionate father, and an agreeable companion.

Resolved, That our sincere thanks be tendered to our brother Odd Fellows in Lancaster city, for the very kind and affectionate manner in which they administered to the wants of Bro. Selzrage—a stranger among them—during his illness.

Resolved, That the usual badge of mourning in memory of our highly esteemed brother, be worn for the space of two months.

Resolved, That these resolutions be signed by the officers of our lodge, a copy sent to his widow, and published in the Huntingdon Globe and Journal.

FEVER & AGUE
Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers, & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases
SPEEDILY & THOROUGHLY CURED
By Dr. Osgood's India Chologogue

This excellent compound, which never fails in the cure of Fever and Ague, is for sale by the proprietor's agents, T. READ & SON, Huntingdon; L. G. KESSLER, Mill Creek.

WHAT IS THE MATTER with me, Doctor? What is the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer! It is the liver which is diseased, and the Chologogue is the remedy always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourself. For sale by above named agents.

BETTER DIE THAN LIVE, if I am to be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Chologogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

"How few who think aright among the thinking few.
How many never think, but only think they do."
THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED in the above exclamation is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Chologogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents.
