

FOREIGN NEWS.

One Week later from Europe.

The Philadelphia papers of Friday last contain the following abstract of the Foreign News brought by the steamer Cambria:
 The Cholera was greatly increasing in England. The deaths for the week ending 5th inst. in London, were 7796, of which 1663 were of cholera. In Liverpool, the deaths of cholera were said to be greater, in proportion, than in any part of England.
 In Dublin it was on the increase.
 Several distinguished persons have died of cholera in Paris and in other parts of France. Vienna and Berlin are at the present time suffering more than Paris.
 At Berlin the deaths are more than 40 per day.
 The markets are dull without much change. The weather for harvesting was fine in all Great Britain.
 The Liverpool Journal of the 8th says:—
 The harvest has been safely housed, and is pronounced abundant, as the potatoe is redundant and is so far exempted from rot.
 Trade is active, is not speculative, and employment in the manufacturing districts awaits all who desire it.
 The Queen and royal family were still in Scotland and would return, to London on the 13th.

AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY.

THE LAST HOPE GONE.—Comorn and Peterwarden still hold out—the former is commanded by Klappa the latter by Kul.
THE RUSSIAN GENERAL BERG.—had a long interview with the latter on the 23d ultimo, the result of which was that a Hungarian Major was sent to Gen. Haynau to arrange terms for the capitulation. The impregnable position of Comorn induces Klappa to demand good conditions.
MAGYAR CHIEFS EXECUTED BY THE AUSTRIANS.—A letter from Vienna of the 31st ult. states that several of the Magyar chiefs had been executed. Among them are the ex-Ministers of Austria, Pobobiah and Gen. Dawianeh, who had been hanged, and Gen. Auferman, who had been shot. Gen. Iowa, who gave the fortress of Esseg to the Magyars, had been taken to Vienna in chains.
HEARTLESS CRUELTY.—The mother and children of Kossuth, and the wives of several Magyar Generals, had arrived at Presburg.
NEW MILITARY GOVERNOR.—There was some talk of Gen. Guylac being appointed civil and military Governor.
MOVEMENTS OF RUSSIAN TROOPS.—The great part of the Russian army had received orders to march towards Galicia, but the corps d'armee of General Rudiger was to remain at Mickelow and Grosswarden.
 Buda and Pesth are to have a garrison of 3000 men.
ENTRY OF HUNGARIANS INTO TURKEY.—The Hungarian corps of Berezol entered Orsova, but the Turkish authorities would not receive them until they had laid down their arms.
FATE OF THE HUNGARIAN DIET.—Georgy's surrender was known at Comorn on the 18th, and summons were sent to the Garrison, either to follow his example or to send in their terms of capitulation.
 Klappa, and those members of the Hungarian Diet who had declared that the house of Hapsburg had forfeited all claim to the throne of Hungary, and whom the Russians handed over to the Austrian authorities, had been conveyed to Pesth.
THE REWARD.—Letters from Vienna state that the Emperor of Austria has pardoned Georgy, and the latter departed for Styria, where he means for the present to reside.
 Vienna was taken possession of by the imperialists on the 27th.
 A provisional arrangement had been concluded.

FRANCE.

The Paris Mouteur publishes a decree reinstating 11 Lieut. Generals and 14 Major Generals, which, after the revolution of February, were placed in the retired list of the army by the Provisional Government.
 The French government continues to refuse passports to German refugees, who on their way to America, are forced to traverse France.
 Gen. Oudinot was expected at Paris on the 20th. Lucien Murat's appointment to Madrid is considered as a conciliation of the two parties in the Cabinet.
 The annual sittings with the Council General commenced on the 31st ult.
 In every department of France, with the exception of the Seine, where the meeting is postponed till October almost all the candidates chosen as the Councils belong to the Conservative party.
ROME.
 M. Travelli, the Pope's Minister of the Interior, has arrived and installed himself as head of the Police; but entirely under the control of the French authorities. His first decree was regarding the paper money, and says that the State guarantees notes for their declared value, and imposed a fine and imprisonment on all who refused to take them when tendered.
 A military commission has been established for reorganizing the Roman troops. All promotions since November is annulled until the commission shall have reported upon the conduct of each man which, if found satisfactory will enable him to regain his rank.
 The triumvirate of cardinals has instituted a commission for the purpose of presenting the authors and accomplices of the outrages committed during the revolutionary period against religion, its ministers, the majesty of the sovereign and public security.
 Gen. Restolan has assumed the command of the French army of occupation.
 A grace de deum was ordered in all the Churches of Russia, in honor of success in Hungary.
 The Emperor of Russia was at Warsaw on the 20th.
 The Austrian troops had evacuated Modera, the last place which they occupied in the Piedmontese territory.
 The Sardinian troops received possession of the town on the same day.
 The Danish Government under date 16th, had given official notice that the blockade of the east coast of the Duchy of Holstein is raised.
 A report has been spread of a collilive note from the three great powers of the north in accordance with the French government, to the effect that the Canton of Neufchatel must be restored to Prussia.

 Bills drawn by the Spanish Government on a town in Italy, for half a million of rials for the payment of the troops forming the Spanish expedition have been returned protested.
 Lord Elgin has been created a Baron.

Emperor of Hayti.

We have intelligence from Hayti to the 3d instant. It appears that on the 2d, President Solonque, was declared Emperor, the legislative council of the Island having conferred that dignity upon him, with the title of Faustin, first Emperor of Hayti, one and indissoluble. When the day assigned for the ceremony, Solonque and his wife and child repaired to the Catholic Church at Port au Prince, where Solonque, aping the style of Napoleon, placed upon his own head the imperial crown, and he and his wife were proclaimed Emperor and Empress. Great rejoicings accompanied by a continual firing of guns, feasting, illuminations, &c., had been kept up for a week. A list of the nobility it was said would be named in a few days.
The Feuille du Commerce of the 2d, contains the proclamation, &c., on the event of declaring Solonque Emperor. His own address to the people states that he will make it his business to preserve the honor, promote the happiness and maintain the rights of the Empire—and to cause the principles of liberty and equality to prevail.

The Florida Outbreak.

A despatch from the office of the Ocala Argus, dated the 5th, says:
 Your latest intelligence, via New Orleans, that Billy Bowlegs has come in, is incorrect. It is much feared that the Indians have scattered. If such is the case, I really cannot see what must become of those of us who are holding on. Business now is completely prostrated, and worse than all, our people are beginning to suffer.
 A letter dated Tampa, August 27th, remarks:
 "The Indian Chi and his wife Polly, this day made their appearance in Fort Brooke, and had an interview with Gen. Twiggs. I understand that he left the store on Pease Creek three days before the store was burned. He says he has been fishing and hunting on the coast—that he has not seen an Indian since he left the store, nor did he know of the war till he came to Fort Brooke. This Mr. Chi has long claimed friendship for the whites, and frequently expressed fears of the Indians on this account.—He had deposited some money with some one at the Fort, and of course he does not wish to forfeit it by a hostile movement on his part. Some think Chi is a rascal, and others say he is a true friend."

DESPERATE BRAVERY.—Trappers fight with a Sioux War party.

—Three trappers Vale, Cass, Young, says the Jackson County (Iowa) Democrat, while looking for Beaver in the vicinity of Morcou river, discovered a large trail, rightly supposing that they were in the vicinity of a strong band of Indians. They selected a suitable spot, and built of logs and poles a small hut, to which they gave the name of a fort. Before it was finished the Indians made their appearance. They were determined to have their scalps. Vale and his companions prepared for a desperate resistance. At the first fire of the Indians, Young was shot through the head. Vale and Cass returned the fire, and three Indians fell, at which they raised the war hoop. The unequal contest lasted several hours, Cass loading the guns while Vale, with unerring aim thinned their ranks. Cass imprudently exposed his face and received a ball in the eye. Vale was now left alone to contend against the Indians. He made the best of it, loaded and fired in such rapid succession that the Indians were on the point of retiring, when he fell mortally wounded. The Indians lamented his death, and buried him without scalping him with the name of Eagle Brave. Twenty-eight Indians were killed in the action. Vale's relatives reside in Milwaukee.

A WHIG MOTHER.

—The Washington Republic publishes the following extract from a letter which the editors have received from a lady at the north, giving some instructions as to the direction of her copy of the Republic:
 "You may think strange that a lady should subscribe for a political paper at all. I have four sons, some of them young men all of whom I wish to make good Whigs. The reason I do not wish it taken to the store is, there they are full of business, and it is not half read; besides all the boys do not go to the store."
 "is on the centre table, they all have the benefit of it. Husband is a good Whig already, but his brothers are Democrats, and wish all the rising generation to be Democrats; but we say not so; and we will make all the Whigs we can. We respect President Taylor and his Administration."

While Pennsylvania contains iron enough to lay forty railroads around the earth, the iron rails for the new track to avoid the inclined Plain near Philadelphia, are imported from England.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer Empire City arrived at New York on the 13th inst., bringing dates from San Francisco to the 3d of August. The news brought by her, although interesting, is not of a very important character.
 The accounts relative to the gold mines in California continue to be as numerous and exorbitant as ever, and it is said that no estimate can be made of the gold, as new "diggings" are continually being discovered, many of which prove even richer than those now worked.
 An organized body of lawless fellows in San Francisco, who call themselves "Hounds," on the 16th of July made an unprovoked attack upon a party of Chilians, destroying their tents, stealing and damaging their property, and in many instances firing upon and otherwise mistreating them. The citizens immediately formed themselves into a police, and arrested a number of the villains. They were tried on the next day, and most of them found guilty of a part or all of the several crimes of conspiracy, riot, robbery and assault with intent to kill. They were respectively sentenced according to the enormity of their offences, and measures immediately taken for carrying these sentences into execution.
 At the "diggings" the miners from Oregon have almost entire control.—They usually take the responsibility of enforcing law and order, and are fully supported by the great body of the miners. Persons convicted by a jury of they are invariably and instantly hung; and drunkenness and other minor offences meet with an equally summary punishment. Generally speaking, quiet and good feeling prevails, though their existed some ill will against foreigners, especially South Americans, many of whom were leaving.
 The tide of emigration to the gold region is still stupendous. During the month of July, no less than 3614 persons arrived at San Francisco, 3000 of whom were said to be Americans.

A SERIOUS ATTACK BY BEES.—The Warren (N. J.)

Journal mentions the singular circumstance that the horses of John Teel, of Blairstown, while ploughing a few days since, were severely stung by a swarm of bees, and Mr. T. was so badly stung in his efforts to save them that he was left completely blind. The horses fell in the harness from the severity of the pain, and had they not been released from the harness by the wife of Mr. T., who covered herself so as to be safe against the attack of the bees, they would in all probability have perished.

A RICH BED.—At Mormon Island, on the Feather River, California, they are building a dam and digging a canal, by which the bed of the river will be laid bare for half or three-quarters of a mile; it is now nearly finished, and when this is done many persons think that millions of gold will be taken out. To show the richness of the bed of the river, a correspondent says that a hoe being put down brought up on it sand which gave 8 oz. of gold dust.

DEATHS FROM THE BITE OF A RAT.—The

Wheeling Gazette records two deaths in that city from the bite of a rat. A child of Henry Cotts was bitten on the lip while asleep, about two weeks ago, and died on Monday. Another child, bitten at the same time, is recovering. Philip Potena, a youth of 17 years, discovered, about eight days since, a small sore on his chin immediately under the lower lip. The sore continued to extend until his face was swollen to a frightful extent, attended with all the symptoms of a case of violent animal poisoning.—He died on Tuesday, and was, no doubt also bitten by a poisonous rat.

FLORIDA.—Gen. Twiggs, with a body of troops, arrived at Pilatka, Florida, on the 30th ult. The Indians had shown no new signs of hostility in that quarter.

GAMBLING IN CALIFORNIA.—Extract

from a letter dated San Francisco, July 30:—"This is one of the strangest places in Christendom. I know many men who were models of piety, mortality, and all that sort of thing, when they first arrived here, and who are now the most desperate gamblers and drunkards."

A friend of ours says he is either head and heels in love, or else he has got the colic; and he can't tell which, as he is not certain which he tasted last—kisses or water-melons.

A colored military company arrived in New York, on Wednesday week, preceded by a white band.

THE VERY BEST.—A wag was jogging

home rather late and a little happily, when, passing by a dark alley, a two-foot-felled fellow stepped out, and seizing him by the collar, demanded his money.—"Money!" said the wag, "money!" "I have none—but if you will stop a moment, I will give you my note at thirty days."

DIED.

At Alexandria, on Friday evening, the 20th inst., at 6 o'clock, JAMES RAMSEY, in the 20th year of his age.
 [The deceased was a member of the Sons of Temperance and Odd Fellow of this place, and was followed to the grave by the members of each society. The proceedings adopted by those societies, we are reluctantly compelled to omit for want of room. Our space was entirely occupied before receiving them.]

THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21, 1849.
FLOUR.—There is very little movement in the flour market, and prices are barely sustained; sales of common Western brands at $5.00, and $5.12, is asked for fresh ground. Extra and fancy brands are held at $5.25, $5.52, &c. Rye Flour is dull at $3.96.
