

SANDWICH ISLANDS.—Prosperity has attended the efforts of this mission, and the additions to the churches, during the past year, have amounted to about 1,600. There has been, likewise, considerable progress in piety and social improvement. But the epidemic which prevailed in the island near the close of 1848, carried thither from our shores, have proved very fatal. The statements heretofore published in this country on this subject, are fully borne out by the latest intelligence. More than one tenth of the population have been cut down; of these, 2,350 were church members.—The effect of this calamity upon the natives has been disheartening; and the missionaries are fearful that other diseases will be introduced from California and Oregon; and they are also apprehensive that there will be an importation of morals that will be more disastrous still. On the whole the prospects of the Islands must be regarded as somewhat uncertain. The Providence of God has interposed in their behalf in a remarkable manner hitherto; but He may have designs which we cannot now fathom. Should the Hawaiian race, however, be ultimately lost in the great Anglo-Saxon family, the influence of this mission will appear vastly more important than it now does.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN THE BERKS COUNTY ALMS HOUSE.—The Reading Press of the 20th ult. says: "The hospital of the Berks County Poor House has been the scene of a bloody tragedy, which is almost unparalleled, in the history of human actions, involving the destruction of a family, consisting of a wife and daughter by the father, and his death by suicide, after he had inflicted dreadful wounds upon the head and throat of the wife with a razor and hammer, and severing the throat of the daughter, a girl some 18 years old, with the same instrument. This shocking and sanguinary deed was committed in one of the chambers of this hospital, occupied by the unfortunate victims for the last ten months, on Saturday evening last, between 7 and 8 o'clock.—His name is Frederick Stahl, a native of Germany, and his conduct has always been marked with propriety, but he may have been led to the act by the hopeless condition of his wife who was insane, and that of his daughter, long confined to her bed by lameness, and unable to utter a word. The wife made her escape from the chamber, with her neck dreadfully lacerated by the razor, and her head battered with the hammer the handle of which broke in his hands. When the overseer entered, he found Stahl reeling to the floor where he instantly expired—the daughter lay in her gore on the bed, with her throat cut from ear to ear. The Coroner, Dr. Witman, held an inquest on the bodies, and the jury reported in accordance with the facts as here related.

TERRIBLE CATASTROPHE.—The Southern papers bring us the particulars of the recent explosion of the Steamer Mary Kingsland about 40 miles from Egmont Light, scalding twenty-seven persons, eighteen of whom are dead. All her cargo of horses were thrown overboard. At the time of the accident she was on the point of stopping to endeavor to get soundings. Capt. Whann, James Studley, sailing master, and Jacob Smith, pilot, were fortunately uninjured by the explosion; but the mate, Charles Adams the first engineer, W. Holmes, and thirteen men belonging to the Quartermasters Department and the crew were instantly killed. Four more were so dreadfully scalded that they died shortly afterwards. When the boat reached the shore there were nine others more or less scalded, who were conveyed to the hospital. The horses were all dashed overboard, killed or most horribly mangled. The scene was most horribly to behold. The steamer was brought into Tampa Bay under canvas.

THE COUSIN OF ARNOLD.—"The evil that men do lives after them." Shakspeare was right. A striking verification of the fact may be drawn from a circumstance, which we find stated in Zion's Herald, in Norwich, Conn., died the 29th June, 1849, aged 82; Miss Hannah Arnold a cousin of the notorious Benedict Arnold, the traitor. Though aged, sick and emaciated, she is said to have retained traces of great personal beauty. She evinced great resoluteness of purpose and activity of mind; but she was morose jealous and revengeful; and this trait in her character was undoubtedly attributable to the suspicions, which she and her maiden sister entertained of nearly everybody, in consequence of their near connection with the traitor. This is evident from a single circumstance. A person once called upon them and after some general conversation, remarked, "You are some relation to Benedict Arnold, are you not?" "Well, what are you going to do about it?" one of them replied.

Thus ended the colloquy. Here we have an instance of a bad man, not only dooming himself to everlasting shame, but operating, through his reputation, like a lasting blight upon the peace of mind and social happiness of innocent parties related to him.—Boston Transcript.

ACCIDENT.—A boy named Peter Rush was killed, and a Miss Rible severely injured, in Milton county week before last by the horses of the wagon in which they were riding taking fright and running away. They were returning from the circus.

PRESERVING WATER.—It is said that M. Perinet, Professor of the Hospital Militaire d'Instruction, has succeeded in preserving waters in a sweet state by placing a kilogramme and a half of black oxide of manganese in each cask of water containing 250 litres. He has kept this water for 7 years in the same barrels, and exposed them to various temperatures. At the end of that time he found it as limpid, free from smell, and of as good quality as at the beginning of the experiment.

Maryland Election. The Whigs have carried the Legislature of Maryland by an increased majority. The Congressional delegation will stand three Whigs and three Locofocos, which is a Whig loss of one.

GEORGIA.—The Locofocos have carried their Governor in Georgia, and a majority in the Legislature.

No change in the market since our last.

MARRIED. On the 4th inst. by the Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. ISAAC SNYDER, to Miss SARAH HAWES, both of McConnelstown.
