AWFUL DISCLOSURE!

THE Hungarians not satisfied! Another Grand attack on the Agent's OYSTER HOUSE! Thousands are slain nightly! The Excitement still increasing, notwithstanding the Agent's great efforts to slay their thirst for Blood! Hundreds are attracted to the scene of action to see this brilliant establishment, and all have come away satisfied that it is the finest Oyster Saloon in the world; and in addition, Agent's Oysters are of the most superior quality. He has just received this day an entire stock of Confectionery, to which the attention of the Public is invited.—Thankful for past favors he still hopes for a continuance.

If you want to know where this fine establishment is, just step down into Railroad Street, one door above William Stewart's Store, you there will see the sign of the Red Curtain.—That is the place.

BLANK DEEDS AND BONDS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

Valuable Real Estate at

Orphans' Court Sale.
IN pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Huntingdon county, will be offered for sale at public vendue or outcry on the premises on THURSDAY THE 8th day of NOVEMBER, 1849, all that certain Messuage, Plantation, and tract of land, (part of the Real Estate of Robert Moore of the borough of Huntingdon, deceased,) situate in Walker township in said county, near the village of Smithfield and the Turnpike road, and about one mile west of the borough of Huntingdon, adjoining lands of John McCahan, John Hildebrand, John Kerr and others, containing 247 acres, be the same more or less, about 150 acres of which are cleared, about 50 acres thereof being meadow ground, with a new frame dwelling house, a large new frame barn, and a young apple orchard thereon.

ALSO, On Friday the 9th day of NOVEMBER, 1849, will be offered on the premises, all that other certain Messuage, plantation, and tract of land, (also part of the real estate of the said Robert Moore, dec'd.) situate on Spruce Creek, near Colerain Forges, in Franklin township in said county, adjoining lands of Short, Stewart & Co., of David Henderson, the Huntingdon Furnace lands, and lands of others, containing 380 acres and 135 perches and allowance, be the same more or less; a large part of which is cleared, with a large two story brick dwelling house, a large frame barn, and other buildings and improvements thereon.

TERMS OF SALE.—One third of the purchase money to be paid on the confirmation of the sale; another third in one year thereafter with interest; and the remaining third on or immediately after the death of Margaret Moore, widow of the said Robert Moore, deceased, the interest of which last mentioned third to be paid regularly and annually to the said widow during her life—said payments, &c. to be secured by the bonds and mortgages of the purchasers. By the Court.

M. F. CAMPBELL, Clerk.
Sale to commence at 1 o'clock P. M. of each of said days. Attendance will be given by

GEO. H. STEINER,
Acting Ex'r of Robert Moore, dec'd.

The farm on Spruce creek is first rate limestone land, in a good state of cultivation, and for productiveness is not surpassed by any farm in the county. It is moreover, well situated, being in a desirable neighborhood, and where there is always a good cash market for everything produced on a farm. It is situated near the Water Street and Spruce Creek Turnpike and about one mile from the Pa. Railroad. As this property could be divided so as to make two farms, bidders may possibly make arrangements to purchase in view of a subsequent division.

The property near Huntingdon is valuable from its location, and the improvements upon it. The purchaser will find it necessary to spend but little upon either the fences or the buildings.

Oct. 16, 1849.] G. H. S.

Public Sale.

THE Subscriber will offer at public sale at the Court House, on WEDNESDAY the 15th day of NOVEMBER NEXT, at 1 o'clock P. M., the House and Lot upon which she resides, situate at the west end of Hill street in the borough of Huntingdon.

The Lot fronts 75 feet on Hill street. The improvements consist of a large two story brick house with a basement story, stabling and all necessary out buildings; and are such as to render the property a convenient and comfortable place of residence.

TERMS will be made known at the sale, or may be learned in the mean time, by application to George Taylor.

COVERLY'S HOTEL, HARRISBURG, PA.

THE Proprietor of this large and well known Hotel, would respectfully inform the public that it has recently been enlarged, repainted inside and outside, newly papered, and thoroughly renovated throughout. This has been done at a very large expense, and with the view of keeping pace with the improving taste and spirit of the age. He now flatters himself that he can accommodate his friends in a style beyond the ability of any other landlord at the Seat of Government. He has in his employ attentive and obliging servants, Cooks of long experience, and his table with the very best that can be procured in the market. It is with great confidence in his ability to render entire satisfaction, that he invites members of the Legislature and others to make his house their stopping place while in Harrisburg.

He would beg leave to return his sincere thanks to his friends on the Juniata, for the very liberal support heretofore extended to his house, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their patronage.
