

ports to Gen. Guyon, the Irish officer, and the British subjects who had been in the service of Hungary.

The Porte has declared the Island of Samos in a state of blockade, owing to the continuance of disturbance.

ROME.

The assassinations of French soldiers continue daily.

It was not expected that the Pope would return soon, or that the French army would leave immediately. Great hostility was still maintained towards the Pope.

An Austrian envoy had arrived in Rome to conclude a treaty of commerce for the navigation of the river Po.

Calpalo, one of the Neapolitan insurrectionists, has been arrested in Rome.

In speaking of the return of the Pope to Rome, a correspondent of the London Times says—“If he returns, it must be under the protection of foreign bayonets, for among the People at large little sympathy is avowed, and all classes dread so much the restoration of clerical intolerance, that no one can persuade himself it may be excluded from the papal train.

Should the Pope neglect to prepare the way for his return, it will be a trouble one.

ENGLAND.

The English Press devotes much space to the consideration of Canadian annexation address, and its tone and temper is highly commended. The London Times says, that by whomsoever the document is proposed or concocted, it reflects great credit on the tact, skill and adroitness of its authors.

In speaking of the possible assent of England to the annexation of Canada to the United States, the Times says:—“Yet the conduct of the people will be directed by motives of prudence and interest alone—if they think they can do without Canada, then and then only, will they give up Canada.”

But in surrendering Canada, they will take care not to surrender one jot of sea or land, the possession of which nearly and effectively concerns the maritime and commercial importance of Great Britain.

They will not cede Nova Scotia—they will not cede Cape Breton—they will not cede those seaboards and harbors, which must ever command the mouth of St. Lawrence, and protect the trade of the Atlantic.”

Death of Judge Huston.

Judge HUSTON, formerly of the Supreme Court of this State, died at his residence, in Bellefonte, on Saturday last, in his 80th year. He was much respected in and out of his profession. He held a seat upon the bench until he was incapacitated by advanced age, in consequence of constitutional limitation.

THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16, 1849.
The receipts for Flour are increasing, but they are yet moderate. The demand for shipment continues limited, and only 4,500 bbls common brand sold at $5.00 per bbl. For city consumption, the sales are limited at previous rates.

Rye Flour, is but little required after. Sales of 1,400 bbls at $3.00 per bbl.

CORN—Males continue dull at $3.00.

GRAIN—Males of 5,600 bbls good and prime red at $1,064.17, and white at $1.13.

RYE—But little offering. We quote Penna. at 62c. and Southern at 60c.

CORN—Is dull. We quote yellow at 65 and white and 62c., but no sales have transpired.

OATS sell slowly, Southern at 28c. and Penna. at 35 per bu.

WHISKEY is scarce. Sales in bbls. and hhd. at 25c., with further sales.

SEEDS—There is very little cloverseed coming in, and the market is firm at old rates. We quote at $4.44 for old and new seed. Timothy is in steady demand, with sales in lots at $2.24. Flaxseed is selling at 145 cts. incase.

IRON—The market continues stagnant and dull, and prices in the few sales making are within the range of $19.20 for Anthracite, $21 for Scotch, and $23.26 for Charcoal Pig, on time. A small sale of northern Blooms was made at $15 cash.

OPINION

For the Purchase and Sale of REAL ESTATE.

THE undersigned, believing that an Agency of this character would be an accommodation and an advantage to both the purchaser and seller of Real Estate, has concluded to open one at his office in Huntingdon.

All business of this kind entrusted to him, and all communications sent to him, will receive his prompt and diligent attention. He will advertise when requested, either in his own name or in the name of the owner, as may be desirable, in one or both of the newspapers of the county, and in any other newspaper that may be designated, and endeavor to procure purchasers and sellers, and communicate between them.

A full and minute description of the property—its improvements, supply of water, convenience to markets, schools, churches, and the terms of sale, must accompany the request of any person who wishes his real estate advertised or offered for sale; and some description, as definite as possible, of the quality, kind and value, of the premises desired to be bought, must be given by those who wish to purchase.

All communications relating to the business of this Agency will be confidential if desired.

The subscriber is in communication with a similar agency in Lancaster, Pa., and will be able through it to bring property offered for sale to the immediate notice of Lancaster county purchasers.

Postage must be paid on all letters sent. P. S.—Several desirable properties are now offered for sale. For further particulars inquire of the subscriber.

JOB PRINTING NEATLY EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE.

THE GREAT CURE OF CHAS. G. JOHNSON, of Bristol.

Who was pronounced incurably fixed in the last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, by two skillful Physicians.

Mr. Johnson was rescued from death's door by the use of Schneek's Pulmonic Syrup—having been prostrated all winter. His case was witnessed by several of the most respectable citizens of this state; whose names are appended to his certificate. Read! Read! and be convinced that Schneek's Pulmonary Syrup is the only certain cure for Consumption.

Bristol, Bucks county, Pa. Sept. 21, 1849.

Dr. J. H. SCHNECK.—Dear Sir, I am induced from a sense of justice towards you, as well as duty to the public, to make known one of the most hopeless and extraordinary cures, in my own person, that you have ever had the pleasure to record. Indeed, I regret my inability to portray, in truthful colors, my consuming disease, and the remarkable change which Schneek's Pulmonary Syrup effected in so short a time.

I was taken some time previous to December 1848, with a heavy cold, producing incessant coughing, accompanied with acute pain in the right side, pains in the back, under the right shoulder, pains in the night, high fever, high fevers &c., which made me so nervous and restless as to produce utter prostration. All these afflictions increased with such violence, that on the 4th of January last I sent for my family physician. He attended me faithfully, and prescribed every thing that medical skill could suggest, but without effect. I found myself gradually growing worse, and my hopes of recovery lessening as my disease increased. My cough became distressing; my pain severe; and, extremely debilitated, I lost all ambition in life, and gave up to a melancholy depression. My physician examined me, and informed me I had an abscess on the upper part of my liver and lower part of one of my lungs. Notwithstanding all this skill, I grew worse, but with that elasticity with which we all cling to life, I concluded to leave nothing undone, and called in a consulting physician, who fully concurred with my own, and pronounced my case an extremely critical one. He thought I was in imminent danger—saying my disease “was one that is seldom if ever cured.” All this time I was enduring sufferings that made life burdensome; experiencing great pain in coughing; expectorating from a pint to a quart of mucous matter every 24 hours, and gradually sinking under the weakening progress of my disease. At this stage of my illness, my friends in Bristol suggested the use of Schneek's Pulmonic Syrup, but knowing of the many expedients resorted to for the purpose of draining money from the afflicted, I hesitated. My friends, however, insisting, I was prepared upon to try its virtues. I commenced taking the Syrup about the first of March, and used several bottles before I had any confidence in it. I then began to experience a change for the better, and continued it till I had consumed ten bottles, when I was so far relieved as to be able to visit Dr. Schneek in Philadelphia. He examined me, and pronounced my right lung affected, but in a healing condition. He recommended the further use of the Syrup, which I continued till I consumed 15 bottles, and found myself once more restored to health. I will further add, that the consulting physician, seeing the action of the medicine, fully approved its use.

To give the reader some idea of the severity of my case, and the rapid cure effected by the Syrup, I will state that my usual weight in health was 177 pounds, which was finally reduced by my sufferings to but 121 pounds. Yet, on the first of this month, (September,) I weighed 174 pounds, thus gaining in a few months 53 pounds, and within three pounds of my heaviest weight. It is not in my power to convey, in the short space of this certificate, the convincing proofs of my remarkable cure, or the particulars of the agonizing afflictions through which I have passed; but to those who will take the trouble to call on me at Bristol, opposite Prat's hotel, I shall pleasure in detailing every particular.

In conclusion, I deem it my duty to urge upon every person who may have the premonitory symptoms of this fatal disease, not to delay one hour, but to call upon Dr. Schneek immediately. His skill in the treatment of this complaint, and prompt detection of diseased parts of the lungs by means of his Stethoscope, added to my own miraculous cure, fully satisfies me, that had I earlier submitted myself to his care, I should have escaped much suffering; but restrained by doubts and suspicion, which make us all naturally skeptical in regard to the virtues of a medicine when first introduced till almost too late; and yielded only as a last resort, resolved to “kill or cure?” To those afflicted as I have been, again let me say, hesitate no longer, my own case is presented to you as convincing evidence, that when all else fails your last hope is in Dr. Schneek's Pulmonic Syrup. I also for the satisfaction of those who may be strangers to me, appended to this certificate the names of gentlemen well known in the walks of public and private life, and whose standing in society admits of no cavil or doubt in regard to their testimony.

CHARLES G. JOHNSON.

We the undersigned, residents of Bristol and vicinity, are well acquainted with Mr. Johnson, and know him to have been afflicted as he states above. We also know that he used Schneek's Pulmonic Syrup, and have every reason to believe that to this medicine he owes his preservation from a premature grave. The known integrity and position in society of Mr. Johnson, has been purchased by the undersigned, and loaned to said Joseph M. Stevens, viz:

1 Cook Stove; 1 set Harness; 1 Side-saddle and Bridle; 1 Buffalo Robe; 1 small Case; 1 Ward-robe; 3 sets of Chairs and 2 Rocking Chairs; 4 Tables; 2 Wash Stands; 1 Stand; 1 Bureau; 150 yards of Carpet; 4 Looking-glasses; 1 Settee; 1 Seretary and Book-case; 1 Mantle Clock; 1 corner Cupboard; 2 Sleighs.

All persons are hereby forbid interfering in any way with said property.
