

Perils of Falshood.
The New York Day-Book quotes the following beautiful language of an eminent writer:

"When once a concealment or deceit has been practised in matters where all should be fair and open as the day, confidence can never be restored, any more than you can restore the white bloom to the grape or plum which you have once pressed in your hand. How true is this and what a neglected truth by the great portion of mankind. Falshood is not only one of the most humiliating vices, but sooner or later it is most certain to lead to the most serious crimes. With partners in trade, with partners in life—with friends, with lovers, how important is confidence! How essential that all guile and hypocrisy should be guarded against in the intercourse between such parties! How much misery would be avoided in the history of many lives had truth and sincerity been guiding and controlling motives, instead of prevarication and deceit. 'Any vice,' said a parent in our hearing a few days since, 'any vice, at least among the frailties of a milder character but falshood. Far better that my child should commit an error or do a wrong and confess it than escape the penalty however severe by falshood and hypocrisy. Let me know the worst and a remedy may possibly be applied. But keep me in the dark—let me be misled and deceived, and it is impossible to tell at what unprepared hour a crushing blow—an overwhelming exposure—may come.'"

This parent was right. The first exhibition of such a detestable vice in a child should be met with the severest scourging. Lying of all kinds, whether of malice, of concealment, or of vain-glorious boasting, is not only vicious but contemptible, and, if permitted to go unpunished in a child infects the whole character with a moral plague which will cling to the man to his grave.

'Bob,' said a tormenting friend to a bachelor acquaintance, 'why don't you get married?'

'Well I don't know. I came very near it once; just missed it.'

'You did? Let's hear it?'

'Why, I asked a girl if I should see her home, one evening, and she said 'No.' If she had said 'Yes,' I think I should have married her.'

A sailor being asked if he were allowed to gratify three wishes, what would they be:

'My first wish would be for all the rum in the world.' 'And the next?'

'All the tobacco in the world.' 'Now, the third?'

Jack was at a loss, turned his quid with his tongue, and at last answered, 'Why, darn my eyes, a little more rum.'

'Can you tell me, Jim, where they get so much corn from to manufacture into whiskey?'

'Why, no,' says Jim, 'but I can tell very well where the corn comes from after the whiskey is made!'

STREET PREACHERS.—Joseph Barker, Hugh Kirkland and John Sharp, (street preachers,) have been indicted for nuisance, and their trial is now in progress in the Court of Quarter Sessions at Pittsburgh. The offence laid is the obstruction of the street or highway, and using obscene quotations from Den's theology, Ligouri, and the Garden of the soul.

A FEW THINGS TO AVOID.—A bottle of wine at a public dinner. A short cut when you are in a hurry. Walking between two umbrellas on a rainy day. Just another glass before you go. Going to church without a shilling. Being the mediator of a quarrel between a man and his wife. And, lastly, taking a new hat to an evening party.

'My friend,' said a keeper of a hotel to an over-voracious boarder, 'you eat so much that I shall certainly have to charge an extra half dollar.' 'An extra half dollar!' replied his boarder, with a countenance the very picture of despair. 'For goodness sake don't do that; I'm most dead now eating three dollars worth and if you put an extra half dollar's worth on, I shall certainly 'bust'—I shall.'

A celebrated eccentric preacher was once warned that he must be very guarded in his language in a town where he was to preach, for the people were noted for their high intellectual and moral character. On observing a great number of molattoes in the gallery, he said as he arose—'Brethren and sisters, I have been told that I must be very careful in my language—that I am to address a highly intellectual and moral congregation; but I would just like to ask a question of this moral congregation: Where did all them yaller gals in the gallery come from?'

A staggering blacksmith attending as a witness at the county court in a money dispute, between two of his men, was asked by the judge why he did not advise them to arrange the matter. His answer was,—"I to-ld the fo-ols to se-et-tle; for I said the clerk would take their co-ats, the lawyers their sh-irts, and if they got in your honors clutches, you'd skin 'em."

FEVER & AGUE
Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases
SPECIALLY & THOROUGHLY CURED
By Dr. OSGOOD'S India Cholagogue

This excellent compound, which never fails in the cure of Fever and Ague, is for sale by the proprietor's agents, T. READ & SON, Huntingdon; L. G. KESSLER, Mill Creek.

WHAT IS THE MATTER with me, Doctor? What is the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer! It is the liver which is diseased, and the Cholagogue is the remedy always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourself. For sale by above named agents.

BETTER DIE THAN LIVE, if I am to be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

"How few who think aright among the thinking few, How many never think, but only think they do."

THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED in the above exclamation is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents.

LIFE INSURANCE.
The Girard Life Insurance Annuity and Trust Company of Philadelphia.
Office No. 159 Chestnut Street.
Capital $300,000.
CHARTER PERPETUAL.

CONTINUE to make Insurances on Lives on the most favorable terms, receive and execute Trusts and receive deposits on interest.
The Capital being paid up and invested, together with accumulated premium fund, affords a perfect security to the insured. The premium may be paid in yearly, half yearly, or quarterly payments.
The Company add a BONUS at stated periods to the insurances for life. This plan of insurance is the most approved of, and is more generally in use, than any other in Great Britain, (where the subject is best understood by the people, and where they have had the longest experience,) as appears from the fact, that out of 117 Life Insurance Companies there, of all kinds, 87 are on this plan.
The first BONUS was appropriated in December 1844, amounting to 10 per cent. on the sum insured under the oldest policies; to 3-4 per cent., 7-12 per cent., &c. &c. on others, in proportion to the time of standing, making an addition of $100; $87.50; $75, &c. &c. to every 1,000, originally insured, which is an average of more than 50 per cent. on the premiums paid, and without increasing the annual payment of the company.
The operation of the BONUS will be seen by the following examples from the Life Insurance Register of the Company, thus:

Policy.	Insured.	Bonus or Addition.	Amt. of pol. and bonus payable at the party's decease.
No. 58	$1,000	$200.00	$1,200.00
" 88	2,500	250.00	2,750.00
" 205	4,000	400.00	4,400.00
" 276	2,000	175.00	2,175.00
" 333	5,000	437.50	5,437.50

GREEN'S OXYGENATED BITTERS,
FOR THE CURE OF
DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY,
&c., &c., &c.

This medicine is an excellent tonic. It imparts health and vigor to the digestive organs and thus strengthens the whole system. Hence it is just the thing for Spring, when so many need something strengthening. Let every one read the following cases, and if you have one or more symptoms like those mentioned, don't fail to try this invaluable medicine.

Severe Case of Dyspepsia.
From R. P. STOW, Esq., Asst. Clerk U. S. House Representatives.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15, 1846.
Dr. Geo. B. GREEN:—Dear Sir—I feel it not only a pleasure, but a duty, to make known to you and to the public, (if you desire it,) the surprising effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in relieving me from that most discouraging disorder, Dyspepsia. I have been afflicted for about seventeen years with the usual attendant symptoms, viz: constipation of the bowels, headache, pain in the chest, flatulence, acidity of the stomach, and severe nausea; and for months at a time not the least particle of moisture would appear on the surface of the chest or limbs, and most of the time I was extremely bilious. I have used various remedies, have been strict in my diet, have been dosed with calomel and emetics day after day by physicians, but all to no good purpose. Hearing of the wonderful effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in the cure of Dyspepsia, I procured some as a last resort, have used four bottles of the medicine, and find the bad symptoms all removed, and myself once more in the enjoyment of health. None but the Dyspeptic sufferer, who has felt all the horrors of the disease, can at all appreciate the value of the medicine. I most sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, and with me be able to rejoice in the return of health.

Lady Cured of Neuralgia.
From Rev. THOMAS KIDDER, of Vermont.

WINSTON, Vt., Aug. 8, 1846.
DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the "Oxygenated Bitters," with which you furnished my wife, has wrought a cure in her case. About two years since, my wife was violently attacked with neuralgia in the face, through the chest, in the wrists and ankles. So violent was the disease, added to a general derangement of the female system, that her strength was completely prostrated, her flesh wasted, and she rendered miserable indeed. I feel grateful for the restoration of her health, and in duty bound to give publicity to the above facts, that others similarly afflicted may know where to seek for cure. Truly your friend,
THOMAS KIDDER.

From Hon. MYRON LAWRENCE, of Mass.
"For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humoral Asthma. I was compelled to sit up one-third of the night, and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great difficulty of breathing. In all my anxiety upon our courts I never went to bed in Northern Vermont in twenty years but twice, and then was compelled to get up. Now I lie in bed without difficulty, at sleep soundly. I took the "Oxygenated Bitters," according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abated, and perseverance in the use of a remedy has removed all its troublesome consequences. The value of such a remedy is incalculable, and I hope its virtues may be widely diffused, and its beneficent agency extensively employed."
