

Mrs. Levin, the lady of the Hon. Lewis C. Levin, has been found guilty of an assault and battery upon a young gentleman of Maryland, and sentenced to pay a fine of $30. The assault consisted in striking him several blows with a riding whip, for having as she alleges insulted her while traveling on the public highway in her carriage.

THE PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM.—The old and valuable collection of curiosities, paintings &c., the largest in the country, was sold at Sheriff's sale on Monday morning, and purchased by Mr. P. T. Bafnum, for the trifling sum of $3,500. The best portions of it will be added to Mr. Barnum's Museum. Its original cost was more than $100,000.

THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30, 1849.
The flour market has been nearly at a stand during the past week. The demand for shipment continues limited, and only 24,000 bbls common brand sold at 4.87 1/2 per bbl. For city consumption, the sales are limited at previous rates.
Rye Flour, is but little inquired after. Sales at $3.00 per bbl.
Corn Meal, has declined 25 cts. per bbl. Sales of 500 bbls. Penna. at $2.75.
GRAIN.—Sales of 500,000 bu. good and prime red at $1.03 1/4, and white at $1.11, 1/2, 1/2.
Rye.—But little offering. We quote Penna. at 65c.
Corn.—Is dull. Sales of 2000 bu. old yellow at 55c.
Oats sell slowly, Southern at 29a30c; per bushel.
Whiskey is scarce. Sales in bbls. and hhd. at 27 1/2 1/4, with further sales.
SEEDS.—There is very little cloverseed coming in, and the market is firm at old rates. We quote at $1 1/4 1/2 for old and new seed. Timothy is in steady demand, with sales in lots at $2 1/2. Flaxseed is selling at 146 cts. measure.
IRON.—The market continues stagnant and dull, and prices in the few sales making are within the range of $19a20 for Anthracite, $21 for Scotch, and $22a26 for Charcoal Pig, on time. A small sale of northern Blooms was made at $15 cash.

PUBLIC SALE BY ASSIGNEES.

THE undersigned assignees of Blair and Madden, will sell on the premises, on Wednesday 19th day of December, 1849,
Melinda Iron Works, situate on the Aughwick creek, in Cromwell township, Huntingdon county, Pa., and within a few miles of the Pennsylvania Canal and Railroad. The works consist of a Charcoal Furnace and Forge nearly new, and Saw Mill, all in good order, and the usual and necessary houses and buildings attached thereto, together with about 520 acres of land adjoining the works, about 70 acres cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and the remainder of the premises is timber and woodland upon which some iron ore has been found convenient to the Furnace. To any person wishing to engage in the iron business, the above works offer great inducements; they are located in a healthy and thriving neighborhood, where labor and materials are comparatively cheap. Good ore can be had convenient to the Furnace, and timber at very moderate prices; the Aughwick creek gives ample water power at all seasons of the year.

Also—On the same day, one Tract of Land in Springfield township, containing 75 acres well improved, and a good quality of land, lying on Aughwick creek.
Also—Will be sold on Thursday the 20th day of December 1849, one tract of slate land, containing 150 acres, in Dublin township, well improved and in a good state of cultivation.
Also—On the same day will offer for sale a number of lots of ground in the village of Claysville, in Dublin township.
Also—On the same day, about 70 acres of timber land in Cromwell township, part lying in Shade Gap, where there is a good seat for water works, and good water power.
Also—On the same day, a tract of limestone land, in Dublin township, containing about two hundred acres, well improved and in a good state of cultivation.
Also—95 acres of timber land adjoining the above tract.
Attendance given and terms made known on day of sale.

Report of the Grand Jury.

On the subject of a FREE BRIDGE across the Juniata River, at Huntingdon, November 1849.

"The opinion of the Grand Jury is, that it would be too burdensome for the County at present to build a Bridge where the viewers have reported; but the Grand Jury would respectfully recommend the County Commissioners to appropriate from the funds of the county the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars for the purpose of assisting the petitioners to purchase the Toll Bridge at the Turnpike, now built, for the purpose of making the said bridge free."
JOHN R. HUNTER, Foreman.
In pursuance of the above proceedings, on the part of the Grand Jury, a number of the stockholders, owning a majority of the stock of the Juniata Bridge, &c., met, and on due consideration, adopted the following resolution:
Resolved, That WILLIAM ORBISON, Esq., President of the Juniata Bridge Company, be and is hereby authorized, on application being made to him from a proper source, to enter into a contract for the sale of the stock of the aforesaid Bridge, so as to make it free for travel, and in case the parties disagree as to terms, he is further authorized to refer the subject to three disinterested persons, to be chosen by the parties, whose decision shall be accepted by the stockholders.
Resolved, That the foregoing proceedings be published for the information of those concerned.
Signed by order, CONRAD BUCHER,
November 27, 1849. Chairman.

OFFICE For the Purchase and Sale of REAL ESTATE.

THE undersigned, believing that an Agency of this character would be an accommodation and an advantage to both the purchaser and seller of Real Estate, has concluded to open one at his office in Huntingdon.
All business of this kind entrusted to him, and all communications sent to him, will receive his prompt and diligent attention. He will advertise when requested, either in his own name or in the name of the owner, as may be desirable, in one or both of the newspapers of the county, and in any other newspaper that may be designated, and endeavor to procure purchasers and sellers, and communicate between them.
A full and minute description of the property—its improvements, supply of water, convenience to markets, schools, churches, and the terms of sale, must accompany the request of any person who wishes his real estate advertised or offered for sale; and some description, as definite as possible, of the quality, kind and value, of the premises desired to be bought, must be given by those who wish to purchase.
All communications relating to the business of this Agency will be confidential if desired.
The subscriber is in communication with a similar agency in Lancaster, Pa., and will be able through it to bring property offered for sale to the immediate notice of Lancaster county purchasers.
Postage must be paid on all letters sent.
P. S.—Several desirable properties are now offered for sale. For further particulars inquire of the subscriber.
DAVID BLAIR,
Attorney at Law.
Huntingdon, Pa., Nov. 20, 1849.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.
By order of the Orphans' Court of Huntingdon County, the undersigned, appointed Trustees by said Court, will expose to sale on the premises, by public vendue or outcry, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 2 o'clock P. M. on Monday the 17th day of December, 1849, the Real Estate of John Miller, dec'd, consisting of a tract of land, situate in Union township, Huntingdon county, containing 339 ACRES, and the usual allowance. Said land adjoins lands of Matthias Miller, Henry Dell, John Cibicot's heirs, Michael Quarry, &c., having thereon erected a cabin house and log barn, a small stable and granary. There is a good apple orchard on the premises.
TERMS.—One-third of the purchase money to be paid on confirmation of the sale, and one-third in one year thereafter, and the remaining one-third in two years after confirmation—with interest, to be secured by the bond and mortgage of the purchaser.

NEW STAGE LINE.
THE subscriber respectfully informs the traveling public, that to meet their wants, he has established a new line of MAIL STAGES, between Jacktown, Huntingdon county, and Chambersburg, Pa. The Coach leaves Jacktown at 1 o'clock A. M., on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, and Chambersburg at the same hour on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. It reaches its destination at 5 o'clock P. M., on the same days.
THE ROUTE through which the line passes, over a good road, is celebrated for the beauty and picturesque character of the country. Leaving Chambersburg, the coaches stop for a short time at Strasburg, Fannettsburg, Burnt Cabins, Shade Gap (the seat of Milwood Academy, under the direction of Messrs. McGinnis) Oriskany, Shirleyburg, Mt. Union—where it intersects the Pennsylvania canal—to Jacktown. At the last named place it connects with the Packet and Stage Lines between Philadelphia and Pittsburg.
At Chambersburg, it connects with Daily Lines to Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburg, Hagerstown, Mercersburg, and intermediate places.
The wants of the people at the extremes of the road and throughout its whole length have induced the subscriber to embark in this enterprise, and as the Fare has been fixed extremely low, and every arrangement made to insure the safety and convenience of passengers, he trusts to be liberally patronized.

41 & 43 NORTH THIRD STREET, PHILADELPHIA.
A. H. HIRST
Would respectfully inform his friends and the travelling public generally, that he has leased the above large and well known Hotel. The location is one of the very best for business men in Philadelphia, and he flatters himself that by giving it his entire attention, that he will be able to render perfect satisfaction to all who may favor him with their custom.
He returns thanks for the very liberal support already extended to him by his friends in Huntingdon and the neighboring counties, and begs leave to assure them that he will spare no pains or expense to render the City Hotel worthy of their continued support.

COVERLY'S HOTEL.

HARRISBURG, PA.
THE Proprietor of this large and well known Hotel, would respectfully inform the public that it has recently been enlarged, repaired inside and outside, newly papered, and thoroughly renovated throughout. This has been done at a very large expense, and with the view of keeping pace with the improving taste and spirit of the age. He now flatters himself that he can accommodate his friends in a style beyond the ability of any other landlord at the Seat of Government. He has in his employ attentive and obliging servants, Cooks of long experience, and he is determined to spare no expense to furnish his table with the very best that can be procured in the market. It is with great confidence in his ability to render entire satisfaction, that he invites members of the Legislature and others to make his house their stopping place while in Harrisburg.
He would beg leave to return his sincere thanks to his friends on the Juniata, for the very liberal support heretofore extended to his house, and respectfully solicit a continuance of his patronage.

NOTICE

Estate of Daniel Kurfman, &c.
NOTICE is hereby given to the Heirs and legal representatives of Daniel Kurfman, dec'd, late of Union tp. Huntingdon Co., and to all others interested, that by virtue of a writ of Partition and Valuation, issued out of the Orphans' Court of said county and to me directed, an Inquest was held to part and divide or value and appraise, all that certain tract, piece or parcel of land, situate in Cass township, Huntingdon county, adjoining lands of Lewis Stever, Philip Kurfman, Conrad Kurfman and Peter Kurfman, and Shirley's Knob, containing about two hundred and sixty acres or thereabouts, being the farm upon which the said Daniel Kurfman resided at the time of his death—and that at the November term of said court a Rule was granted on said heirs, &c., to appear at the January term of said court, on the second Monday (14th day) and to show cause if any they have, why the Real Estate of said deceased should not be sold.
