

Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

The annual meeting of this company took place in Philadelphia on Monday last. The reports of the Board, Chief Engineer, and Treasurer, were read and adopted. From these reports we learn that it has been determined by the Board, that on and after the 1st of January next, the rate of way travel shall be reduced to the uniform rate of three cents per mile—a very wise and prudent determination—and also to discontinue all operations on the road upon the Sabbath after that date.

The fiscal year closed on the 31st of October last, and up to that date the Treasurer's books showed the following state of affairs:—
Received from subscriptions and other sources, $3,692,379 44
Amount disbursed, 3,193,709 18
Leaving a balance of 498,670 29
If to this balance be added the amount of uncollected subscriptions, including the second subscription from the city of Philadelphia, about 1,900,000 00

There is the sum of $2,398,670 29 applicable to the construction and equipment of the road.

The report of the engineer gives a large amount of statistical matter, both in relation to the completion by the different routes over the mountain as well as that of forming a junction with the Portage Railroad. The receipts and expenditures of the road now in use, between Harrisburg and Lewistown, are sufficient to warrant the assurance that the whole road cannot fail to amply remunerate the capitalists for the investment made by them. The total receipts for transportation of freight and passengers, during the months of September and October, were $14,802 76; while the expenditures during the same period were $3,405 37, leaving an excess of $11,397 39, which is equal to 4 1/2 per cent. interest upon the amount expended in the building and equipment of that portion of the road.

A resolution of thanks to the recent and present Presidents, Engineers and Officers "for the able, energetic and satisfactory manner in which they have conducted its affairs," was then adopted, but not without opposition.

Resolutions instructing the directors not to pay more than $2500 per annum to the President unless he possesses the qualifications of an engineer—to consider the expediency of providing for the delivery of produce at the stores of consignees under the present rates of freight, and relative to discontinuing operations on the Sabbath, were referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. J. R. Ingersoll, Jno. M. Kennedy, J. F. Leaming, R. M. Lewis and James Magee, who are to report to an adjourned meeting to be held on the 24th instant.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year:—William C. Patterson, Samuel V. Merrick, David S. Brown, Stephen Colwell, Geo. W. Carpenter, Christian E. Spangler, Thomas T. Lea, Washington Butcher.

Affairs in Mexico.

[From the New Orleans Delta, Nov. 27.] We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday our friend and correspondent Mr. J. B. Weller, who has just returned from a visit to Mexico.

We learn from him that affairs are quiet in Mexico, under the popular administration of Herrera, or rather of his Secretary of War, Arista. The people have grown sick of wars and revolutions and pronouncements have lost their charms. Several small efforts have been made at revolutions, but they signally failed, by the energy and promptitude of Arista, who is daily acquiring a popularity which will, no doubt, secure him the succession to the Presidency. The friends of Santa Anna, who have been endeavoring to create a sentiment in his favor, have encountered insurmountable obstacles in the popularity and vigor of Arista. It is the opinion of Mr. Weller that Santa Anna can never resume in Mexico the position he once occupied.

One of the proofs of the efficiency of the present government is, that the road from Vera Cruz to Mexico is well guarded, and no robberies have been of late committed on the diligences.

Don Juan de la Granja has received a grant from the Mexican Congress of the right to establish telegraphs throughout the Republic.

There is before the Mexican Congress a proposition made by a citizen of the United States, to build a railway from Vera Cruz to Acapulco, on the Pacific, passing through the city of Mexico.

Terrible Explosion.

We learn from the Philadelphia Sun that a steam boiler in Spring Garden exploded on Friday afternoon, the general effect of which was to shock the neighborhood for squares around. Houses shook convulsively, and windows rattled in their frames as though an earthquake had happened. The terror that could be depicted on the faces of the frightened inmates can scarcely be imagined. Every body ran to and fro for some time, not knowing exactly what had taken place. They soon learned the cause of the terrible commotion, and were as gratified as ourselves on learning that no one lost his life. The amount of damage done cannot fall far short of $2000.

Never say "coat tail," but "the conclusion of a gentleman's outer garment."

A Bit of Romance!

A lady named Miller, wife of Major Miller of the U. S. A. now in Florida, and daughter of a distinguished citizen of Michigan, committed suicide, as was supposed, last week, by throwing herself from the bridge which overhangs Niagara Falls, connecting the land with Goat Island. She arrived at the Eagle Hotel on the same morning with her two boys, one four and the other six years old. Her bonnet was found on the bridge and her shawl tied to the railing and three letters were found in her room one addressed to her husband, another to her father, and the third to the proprietor of the hotel, as follows:

To the Proprietor of the Eagle Hotel: My mind is made up. I have no wish to live any longer. I shall go where my body shall never be recovered. No one shall gaze on my mangled remains.—Please take care of my two little boys till they can be sent to Detroit, where their grand-parents reside. They are the sons of Major Miller, of the army, now in Florida, and grandsons of Hon. John Norvell, of Detroit, Michigan.—Please forward my letters and protect my children till some of their relatives can come for them.

Mrs. J. G. MILLER: Of course it was generally believed that this was a case of deliberate suicide; but subsequent developments, throw a different light on the matter, and there is some reason to suspect that it is a case of elopement.

It appears that a person who registered his name "Henry Blakemer, Philadelphia," arrived at Buffalo on Thursday, and stopped at the Exchange Hotel. He said that he expected some friends in a day or two, and on Sunday morning a lady with two little boys arrived and he was observed in the sitting room of the depot in close conversation with her. This was afterwards ascertained to be Mrs. Miller, and she remained at the Exchange until Monday morning, when she took the train for the Falls. On the afternoon of that day Blakemer hired a horse and buggy, & returned to Buffalo on Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock with a lady, and left her at the depot, while he took back the horse and buggy to the stable. He then took his baggage from the hotel, and started with the lady in the fast train at half-past five, purchasing tickets for Cayuga Bridge.

Mrs. MILLER ARRESTED.—The Rochester American of Saturday, says that Mrs. Miller, the Niagara Falls suicide, has been arrested at Syracuse, in company with a young man named Blackmer, with whom she was running away!

A PRETTY BEGINNING.—The Boston Post thinks that the debt which the Administration will come before Congress, will be a "pretty beginning." So it will; it is the beginning of the great debt which the annexation of Texas, the Mexican war, and the other measures for the extension of slavery, have entailed upon the country—a debt which will be coming up for years, in the shape of new demands and doubtful claims of every kind. Millions upon millions will be taken from the treasury in liquidation of claims of this kind, which have not yet been presented. It is a "pretty beginning," indeed.—Providence Journal.
