

A FOOT RACE.—Two honorable members of the Legislature, at Frankfort, (Ky.) a few days ago, went out to make observations, and got into the tunnel as the cars were coming. They took to their heels and did pretty well, for they had both some experience in running last August. They never run against a locomotive before, however, and were about to be overhauled, when they threw themselves against the sides of the tunnel; they literally spread themselves. Never were two honorable members so perfectly flat. They looked into each other's faces, and one burst into a laugh. "It is no laughing matter," said he; but that observation made it one decidedly.—[Louisville Democrat.]

MUD IN CALIFORNIA.—A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, writing from California, in order to give some slight idea of the depth of the mud there relates the following anecdote. He says the hero of the tale will "bet his head on its truth."

"About a week since, he was on his way to Sutter's Mill, when suddenly his animal mired in a deep slough. While dragging the mule along, neck and heels, he stepped upon what he supposed was a stone, but was quickly undeceived by a grave voice issuing solemnly from the pathos of mud, "Tread softly, stranger!" said the invisible, "you are hurting the fellow under me!"

The author of the above is certainly entitled to our hat.

RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says, gentlemen from California, now in Washington, say that Col. FREEMONT, is the richest man in the world. His gold mine will probably be saleable, in a few years, at six millions an acre. Mr. WRIGHT says also that he knows of spots belonging to the Government, which are worth six millions of dollars an acre, and will produce from ten to twenty per cent, a year on that sum.

A FIGHT!—A regular rough and tumble fight is going on at present in the ranks of the 'harmonious democracy' in regard to their next candidate for Canal Commissioner. The Cameron wing of the party have rolled up their sleeves and are determined to swallow Painter and his friends without choking. We hope they will have a pleasant time of it. We mean like the 'kilkenny Cats.

GEORGIA.—The Locofoco majority of the Legislature of Georgia did not finally succeed in passing their bill to re-district the state for the choice of members of Congress. At least we find no such measure on the list of acts passed.—One really good thing, however, was done, an act was passed giving to the widow and child or children of any person dying insolvent $100 worth of the property of said insolvent free and clear of all claims for debt due by him.

The Northwest Territory, lying west of Minnesota and Iowa, extending to the Rocky Mountains, is estimated to contain 500,000 square miles. It includes the proposed Nebraska Territory, lying on the south; the whole is thinly inhabited by roving tribes of Indians.

The Overland Emigration to California will be very large this season. Persons are continually passing through the towns on the Ohio on their way to the land of gold. Many pass through Pittsburgh every day, the papers of that city say.

A young man was arrested in New Hampshire, on the charge of "keeping his mouth open on Sunday." A true bill was found, as it is against the law to keep a dram shop open on that day.

Never lean on the world, for if you do, the world will jump aside and you will get a tumble.
