SONG OF A LITTLE HEART.

I'll sing thee a song of a dear little heart, That belonged to a dear little maid,

And I'll tell thee in rhyme of the curious part That this dear little heart once played.

For the little maid asked her heart one day, As it beat 'neath her bosom of snow;

In faith, 'little trembler, would'st thou away? But the little heart answered—No!

And there came an old man with furrowed cheek, With his head so bald and grey,

And he jingled his gold, and thus did seek To entice this heart away.

Ha! ha! said the little maid, with a laugh, Old man with thy head of snow;

Doest think that I care for thy yellow chaff? And the little heart answered—No!

And there came one with a titled name, And a string of L's, M's and D's,

And he said that his breast was consumed by a That thought but this heart could appease,

So the little maid asked her heart again, Frithee, little one, wilt thou go?

But the heart was vexed, and would scarcely To answer her—No! no! no!

But there came a youth, gay, careless and fair, And he stood 'neath a broad tree near,

And he sang so softly and sweetly an air, That the maid came close to hear,

And he kissed her and smiled as she pressed her With her hands it fluttered so,—

And she blushed and sighed as she bade him But her little heart said—No! no!

LIFE INSURANCE. The Girard Life Insurance Annuity and Trust Company of Philadelphia.

Office No. 159 Chestnut Street. Capital $300,000. CHARTER PERPETUAL.

CONTINUE to make Insurances on Lives on the most favorable terms, receive and execute Trusts and receive deposits on interest.

The Capital being paid up and invested, together with accumulated premium fund, affords a perfect security to the insured. The premium may be paid in yearly, half yearly, or quarterly payments.

The Company add a BONUS at stated periods to their insurances for life. This plan of insurance is the most approved, of and is more generally in use, than any other in Great Britain, (where the subject is best understood by the people,) and where they have had the longest experience, as appears from the fact, that out of 117 Life Insurance Companies there, of all kinds, 87 are on this plan.

The first BONUS was appropriated in December 1844, amounting to 10 per cent. on the sum insured under the oldest policies; to 8 3/4 per cent., 7 1/2 per cent., &c. &c. on others, in proportion to the time of standing, making an addition of $100; $87.50; $75, &c. &c. to every 1,000, originally insured, which is an average of more than 50 per cent. on the premiums paid, and without increasing the annual payment of the company.

The operation of the BONUS will be seen by the following examples from the Life Insurance Register of the Company, thus:

Table with columns: Policy, Insured, Bonus or Addition, Amt. of pol. and bonus payable at the party's decease.

Pamphlets containing the table of rates, and explanations of the subject; forms of application and further information can be had at the office, gratis, in person or by letter, addressed to the President or Actuary.

THE GREAT CURE OF CHAS. G. JOHNSON, of Bristol.

Who was pronounced incurably fixed in the last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, by two skillful Physicians.

Mr. Johnson was rescued from death's door by the use of Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup—having been prostrated by winter. His case was witnessed by several of the most respectable citizens of this state, whose names are appended to his certificate. Read I read and be convinced that Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup is the only certain cure for Consumption.

Bristol, Bucks County, Pa. Sept. 21, 1849.

Dr. J. H. SCHNECK, Dear Sir,—I am indebted from a sense of justice towards you, as well as duty to the public, to make known one of the most hopeless and extraordinary cures, in my own person, that you have ever had the pleasure to record. Indeed, I regret my inability to portray, in truthful colors, my consuming disease, and the remarkable chance which Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup effected in so short a time.

I was taken some time previous to December 1848, with a heavy cold, producing incessant coughing, accompanied with acute pain in the right side, pains in the back, under the right shoulder, having heavy night sweats, high fever &c., which made me so nervous and restless as to produce utter prostration. All these afflictions increased with such violence, that on the 4th of January last I sent for my family physician. He attended me faithfully, and prescribed every thing that medical skill could suggest, but without effect.

I found myself gradually growing worse, and my hopes of recovery lessening as my disease increased. My cough became distressing; my pains severe; and, extremely debilitated, I lost all ambition in life, and gave up to a melancholy depression. My physician examined me, and informed me I had an abscess on the upper part of my liver and lower part of one of my lungs. Notwithstanding all this, I grew worse, and with that tenacity with which we all cling to life, I concluded to leave nothing undone, and called in a consulting physician, who fully concurred with my own, and pronounced my case an extremely critical one. He thought I was in imminent danger—saying my disease "was one that is seldom if ever cured." All this time I was enduring sufferings that made life burdensome; experiencing great pain in coughing; expectora ting from a pint to a quart of mucous matter every 24 hours, and gradually sinking under the weakening progress of my disease. At this stage of my illness, my friends in Bristol suggested the use of Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup, but knowing the many expedients resorted to for the purpose of draining money from the afflicted, I hesitated. My friends, however, insisting, I was prevailed upon to try its virtues. I commenced taking the Syrup about the 1st of March, and used several bottles before I had any confidence in it. I then began to experience a change for the better, and continued it till I had consumed ten bottles, when I was so far relieved as to be able to visit Dr. Schneck in Philadelphia. He examined me, and pronounced my right lung affected, but in a healing condition. He recommended the further use of the Syrup, which I continued till I consumed 15 bottles, and found myself once more restored to health. I will further add, that the consulting physician, seeing the action of the medicine, fully approved its use.

To give the reader some idea of the severity of my case, and the rapid cure effected by the Syrup, I will state that my usual weight in health was 177 pounds, which was finally reduced by the first of this month (September) I weighed 174 pounds, thus gaining in a few months 53 pounds, and within three pounds of my heaviest weight. It is not in my power to convey, in the hope of my remarkable cure, or the particulars of the agonizing afflictions through which I have passed; but to those who will take the trouble to call on me, at Bristol, opposite Pratt's Hotel, I shall take pleasure in detailing every particular.

In conclusion, I deem it my duty to urge upon every person who may have the premonitory symptoms of this fatal disease, not to delay one hour, but to call upon Dr. Schneck immediately. His skill in the treatment of this complaint, and prompt detection of diseased parts of the lungs by means of his Stethoscope, added to my own mirrored cure, fully satisfies me, that had I earlier sought his aid, I should have escaped much suffering; but restrained by doubts and suspicion, which make us all naturally skeptical in regard to the virtues of a medicine when first introduced, I resisted the importunities of my friends till almost too late; and yielded only as a last resort, resolved to "kill or cure." To those afflicted as I have been, again let me say, hesitate no longer, my own case is presented to you as convincing evidence, that when all else fails your last hope is in Dr. Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup. I have also for the satisfaction of those who may be strangers to me, appended to this certificate the names of gentlemen well known in the walks of public and private life, and whose standing in society admits of no cavil or doubt in regard to their testimony.

CHARLES G. JOHNSON. We the undersigned, residents of Bristol and vicinity, are well acquainted with Mr. Johnson, and know him to have been afflicted as he states above. We also know that he used Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup, and had every reason to believe, that to this medicine he owed his preservation from a premature grave. The known integrity and position in society of Mr. Johnson however is a sufficient guarantee to the public of the truth of this statement.
