

The Slavery Compromise.—The Tariff.

We agree with the Carlisle Herald that the country is getting weary, even to disgust, of the endless discussion of the Slavery Compromise in the Senate, and not a little dissatisfied with the spirit in which Mr. Clay is slandering away as its champion.

Again, in the Senate, on the 29th inst., as the telegraphic report of the proceedings states—Mr. Clay presented a petition of citizens of Berks county, Pa. asking a modification of the Tariff, so as to afford adequate protection to the coal and iron interests.

A very significant hint to the North! Here is the practical triumph of the reasonable designs with which the ultra Southern members opened the present session of Congress.

The North is desirous of having an amicable adjustment of the Slavery question—even a compromise of it. Such a compromise is presented in Gen. Taylor's plan, which does not ask the abandonment of a principle sacred to thousands.

Modification of the Tariff. A letter recently received from a distinguished Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, gives us the following encouraging information in regard to the determination of the Whigs to effect a modification of the Tariff.

Mr. Hampton, of the minority of the Committee of Ways and Means, with the assistance of Mr. Meredith, and the Whig members generally, is preparing a Tariff bill, and so soon as it can be perfected it will be presented to the House.

Old Zack and the Cuban Expedition. The Baltimore Sun says that "the orders for fitting out the vessels of war to intercept the Cuban expedition, emanated from General Taylor alone."

The Baltimore Sun says that "the orders for fitting out the vessels of war to intercept the Cuban expedition, emanated from General Taylor alone. It is understood, that when advised to locate the Cuba expedition, he said: 'The law of 1818 is plain and positive; and I will execute it at every hazard.' His members of the Cabinet were first informed of this determination by the necessary order for fitting out the vessels."

Such is the honest and indomitable Old Hero of Buena Vista—the vanquisher of Santa Anna and his hosts. The commander, who contra to counsel and even orders refused to retreat before the Mexican columns, and whose wisdom and sagacity saved the national honor and achieved a glorious victory. He is notwithstanding his perils in war, a man of peace, and will never be found to compromise the peace of the nation by allowing the fitting out of armed expeditions against countries with which we are at peace.

Supreme Court.

The following are some of the cases from this court, decided by the Supreme Court at the late term:

M'Mahon vs. M'Mahon.—Opinion of the Court delivered by Bell, J.—When a partial partition of lands held by several joint heirs, was made in the absence of one, and the portions of estate set apart by mites and bounds, and the portion of the absent one was thrown into common with one other, and actual possession taken by the other, unauthorized, the one who was absent may at his option demand a new portion of the whole tract, regardless of the long continued possession, (since the year 1830,) or he may adopt all the features of the partition, and recognize the act of the one who took his purport as his own, and come upon their joint shares, with all the improvements, and may maintain ejectment for the same, as was the case here.—Nor will the statute of frauds intervene in such cases. The acts of the self-constituted agent, by such ratification, becomes, in contemplation of law, the act of the principal. Judgment affirmed. I. Fisher for plaintiff in error. A. W. Benedict, contra.

Fisher, qui tam vs. Patterson.—Opinion of the Court by Rogers, J.—The selling of foreign goods and merchandise out of a canal boat along the canal, comes within the description of a hawker, pedlar or petty chapman travelling from place to place, selling or exposing to sale foreign goods, wares and merchandise, under our Act of Assembly, and exposes the offender to the penalty of that act. Judgment reversed, and a venire de novo awarded. Orbison for plaintiff in error. A. P. Wilson, contra.

McAninch vs. Laughlin.—Opinion of Court by Gibson, C. J.—When the facts are within the knowledge of both parties, and the mistake was in the judgment they formed of the legal effect of them, equity affords no relief. Judgment reversed. D. Blair for plaintiff in error. W. P. Orbison, contra.

In the case of the heirs of Summerville vs. Jackson, from Blair county, Judgment of Court below was affirmed. We have not seen an abstract of the opinion in this case.

Cuba Excitement in N. Orleans. The Philadelphia Inquirer of Thursday says: Our Washington correspondent informs us that letters have been received from highly respectable sources in New Orleans stating that the excitement in that city with regard to Cuba was greater than ever, and that thousands would at once take up arms, if there were any means of conveyance. He adds that there is another expedition on foot, and that the ill success of Lopez and his handful of followers, had not in the slightest degree dampened the feelings in favor of the enterprise. It is urged that if the whole Spanish Army could not prevent Lopez from landing, that it would be easy to land at any time a larger force. The indications are, that trouble will grow out of this business.

Outrages in Philadelphia. The City and adjoining Districts of Philadelphia seem to have almost entirely lost the protection of the law.

A Mr. Mooney, one of the police officers of Philadelphia, was shot recently at one of the disgraceful firemen's riots in that city, and died a few days after from the effect of his wound.—The Governor being in the city at the time of the excitement occasioned by the deed, issued his proclamation offering a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension of the murderer, which has had the effect of bringing him to light. A coroner's inquest in the case, after a thorough investigation reported that the said Cornelius Mooney came to his death on Sunday morning, May 26th, from a gun or pistol shot in the hands of Patrick McWilliams and Peter Lobb. The evidence is very strong against the accused. McWilliams has been arrested, and is now in custody.

From California. The steamship Cherokee, from Chagres, arrived at N-w York on Wednesday, with one million three hundred and fifty thousand three hundred and sixty-one dollars in gold dust, and California mails to the first of May, inclusive.

At San Francisco, trade has assumed a more lively turn, and as the large amount of gold, which has been wintered in the mines comes down, it gives an impetus to all kinds of business.

The owners of cattle along the country, are beginning to supply milk and butter, which reduces the price of the imported article.

Another great excitement has taken place at Panama. The officers of the Panama steamer Echo having been robbed by a colored boy, he was arrested. The natives rushed to the rescue, and put the party to flight. The next day, upon the occasion of the re-arrest of the boy, a fight took place, in which Mr. Sempler, of New York, was killed. It is reported that five or six of the natives were shot.

All the Americans became highly excited, and turned out, and it was only by the utmost exertions of the Governor and American Consul that a general riot was prevented.

The body of Mr. John E. Everett, of Cayuga, N. Y., was found horribly mutilated.

The Legislature of California adjourned, after passing 143 acts and 17 joint resolutions.

The Cuba Business. Our government has sent steamers to Cuba, to demand the American prisoners captured near Yucatan. Our Government insists that a distinction shall be made between men committing and those captured under a mere intention to commit crime, and that the prisoners captured in or near a Mexican Island not having committed any crime against Spain, are not subject to punishment in Cuba.

Our government has stood by Spain in protecting her territory, and it would be well for Spain to give up these prisoners, or she may have a bigger war on her hands than that with Gen. Lopez.

ABSENCE OF MIND.—Remarkable cases of that mental imbecility called "absence of mind" have often been noticed.

A rich one occurred a while since in this town. A nice old gentleman went to the physician for prescriptions for a young lady at his house, and also for his wife who was sick. The Doctor ordered a blister for the young lady, and some drops for the wife. The old gentleman with profound gravity gave the drops to the young lady, and the blister to his wife—but as the latter did not seem to work for a long time apprehensions arose which were dispelled only upon an examination by the physician, who had been sent for, which disclosed the fact, that the blister had been laid with the wrong side down!—Pena Tel.

Rev. John Newland, M. D., died, one of the most eloquent men of the age, died at Mobile, on the 25th of May.

TIGHT LACING.—An inquest was held, a day or two since, at the Lunatic Asylum in Boston on the body of a lady; and the verdict returned was, "died of general debility, supervening on tight lacing and insanity." Her figure was what is called genteel, and her vanity on this pointed her to tight lacing, which was, in part, the cause of her death. Her insanity was of a harmless character, and she was easily managed, if permitted to mind and wear headresses of an extraordinary height. While wearing one of these towering ornaments she considered herself the queen of the world.

EXTRAORDINARY TRANCE.—The daughter of James Dromer, of Farrington, England, spoke on Tuesday the 14th, for the first time for upwards of 13 years; her first inquiry was for her aunt Killen, and when her aunt came, the girl immediately repeated the Lord's prayer.—Extreme weakness prevented her from articulating many words in succession; cramps and convulsions are supposed to have unlocked the jaw for the time. She experienced a great deal of pain for many days; the jaw is again set as firm as before. The girl seemed to apprehend that death would soon terminate her existence.

A NEW RELIGIOUS ORDER.—The Pittsburg Gazette of Friday says: On Tuesday evening last, a young lady was ordained in the English Lutheran Church in Seventh street to the office of deaconess. Deaconesses are a religious order of women in this denomination, who devote their lives to various occupations of charity, and take vows of celibacy for this purpose. The order has been established for some years in Germany, and has lately been introduced into this country. This lady, however, is the first who has yet been ordained.

The Supreme Court of this State has decided, that a promise by a bankrupt to pay a debt discharged by bankruptcy, is binding, though not made to the creditor or his authorized agent.

COL. FREMONT.—The Geographical Society of London have voted a gold medal to Col. Fremont for having made, during the past year, the most valuable discoveries in geography of any known person.

MONTOUR COUNTY.—The Harrisburg Telegraph says they had a great time of it at Danville since the return of Senator Best. Public honors awaited him on every side, and a public dinner was tendered, but declined.

MILITARY IN PARVO.—The N. O. Crescent, a neutral paper very justly remarks: "We have never known better abused Administration than Gen. Taylor's. If he does any thing, it's wrong; if he does not, that is also wrong."
