The "HUNTINGDON JOURNAL" is published at the following rates, viz: $1.75 a year, if paid in advance; $2.00 if paid during the year, and $2.50 if not paid until after the expiration of the year. The above terms to be adhered to in all cases.

WHIG STATE TICKET FOR 1850.

Once more our glorious banner out Upon the breeze we throw; Beneath its folds, with song and shout, Let's charge upon the foe.

CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOSHUA DUNGAN, of Bucks Co. AUDITOR GENERAL, HENRY W. SNYDER, of Union. SURVEYOR GENERAL, JOS. HENDERSON, of Washington.

Whig County Committee. The members of the Whig County Committee are requested to meet at the residence of the Chairman, in Huntingdon, on Saturday evening next, (July 8,) at 8 o'clock. Business of importance will be presented. The following gentlemen compose the committee, viz: James Clark, Wm. H. Peightal, J. K. McCahan, Wm. B. Zeigler, James Moore, John Armitage, Wm. Rothrock.

JAS. CLARK, Chairman. Wm. B. ZEIGLER, Sec'y.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—Townsend's Extract of Sarsaparilla, for sale by T. READ & SON, is advertised in another column. This medicine is said to have great merit, and is, we think, worthy of trial by the afflicted. The young man cured of Scrofula, by this medicine, spoken of in the certificate of T. Read & Son, formerly worked in this office, and we know the facts set forth in relation to his case, to be substantially correct.

Those wishing anything in the Hardware line are invited to examine the advertisements of F. G. FRANCIS, Lewistown, Pa.

JAMES KING announces himself as a candidate for nomination for Co. Commissioner.

H. W. SMITH has removed his Stationery Store and Express Office.

J. & W. SAXTON have received more new goods, and are selling cheap.

A tract of land in Brady township is offered for sale.

See card of B. M. GILDEA, Petersburg in this county.

Hon. S. CALVIN will please accept our thanks for recent favors.

We are indebted to Hon. T. STEVENS for a copy of his recent speech on the California Bill. This speech is one of Mr. S's best efforts, and handles the Slavery Propagandists without gloves. Those who assailed Mr. Stevens for his first speech on this subject, are paid off with interest, especially poor Ross, of the Bucks district, of whom nothing is left. By the way, Mr. Stevens is one of the ablest defenders of Freedom in Congress and truly reflects the sentiments of Pennsylvania in his speeches. We shall try and find room for this speech very soon.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—The lines entitled "To Caroline," are not such as should be presented to the public eye; and the song entitled "True Love," is not original with the person who affixes his proper name to it; hence both are rejected. "Know your place," from the pen of a young gentleman of this county now at Mercersburg College, and an exceedingly well written communication entitled "Huntingdon," from the pen of an esteemed friend, in the upper end of this county, shall both appear in our next.

Seth R. McCune, Esq. This gentleman has been nominated by the Whigs of Blair county, as their candidate for the Legislature. The selection is a good one. Mr. McCune is an honest, intelligent farmer, and as good a Whig as breathes. He has ever stood firm by the usages of the party, always giving to the nominee an active and efficient support. Being emphatically one of the people, he understands and will faithfully attend to their interests in the Legislature. By the last apportionment bill, Huntingdon and Blair are connected in the election of members. The Whigs of Huntingdon will therefore have the pleasure of voting for Mr. McCune, in connection with a gentleman of their own selection. For our own part, we rejoice in the opportunity afforded us of advocating the election of such a whole-souled Whig and unaffectedly clever man as Seth R. McCune.

Good News. A rumor from Washington says that twenty five Locofocos are to be removed from the Post Office Department this week. This is good news, if true. Let the good work of dismissing Locofocos and appointing Whigs be extended to the other departments of the government, and the Administration will be enthusiastically applauded and sustained by the people.

The last Globe makes its appearance in a suit of new and beautiful type. We are pleased to see this evidence of our neighbor's pecuniary prosperity.

Look Here. Those indebted to us can save money by calling immediately and paying up. If we are put to the trouble of visiting those in arrears, they may be expected to be charged according to our terms. Interest will also be charged on accounts of long standing.

New Mexico Free!

News has been received at Washington, that on the 23d of April, Col. Monroe issued a proclamation for the election by the several counties on the 6th of May, of delegates to a convention to form a State Constitution. The convention met at Santa Fe on the 15th of May, and after a session of nine days formed a constitution which is to go into operation on the 1st of July. It defines the boundaries of the State, and PROHIBITS SLAVERY! In fifteen days after the adjournment of the convention, an election was to be held for members of the State Legislature. Two Senators and Representatives in Congress would also soon be elected, and efforts would be made to secure their acceptance at Washington.

This new movement on the part of New Mexico, has caused a great commotion at Washington, and is made the pretext of another attack on President Taylor, by Mr. Foote, and other ultra slavery advocates. Resolutions have been offered in both Houses, calling on Old Zack for information relative to the movement. We predict the honest old soldier will be ready to respond soon as the resolutions are adopted.

Congress.

The fate of the Compromise Bill in the Senate is still undecided. The re-election of New Mexico will tend to strengthen the President's policy, and weaken correspondingly Mr. Clay's bill. In consequence of several amendments having been grafted on the bill obnoxious to some of the ultra Slavery Senators, it is said that it will lose the support of Messrs. Yulee, Berrien, Soule, and several other Southern votes, while but two Northern Whigs (Webster and Cooper) are counted for it. Mr. Cooper has thus far voted right on the collateral questions and we hope to see him stand by the North on the final issue—leaving Mr. Webster "solitary and alone" in his glory. The New York Tribune counts 30 Senators against the Bill, which, if correct, would defeat it. Mr. Soule has offered an amendment extending the Missouri Compromise line to the Pacific, which is now under discussion.

On Tuesday last the House adopted, by a vote of 155 to 26, a mammoth Land Bounty Bill, which gives to every officer or private who may have served 3 months in the War of 1812, or any other war, 40 acres of land; 6 months service secures 80 acres, and 15 months 160 acres.

Fourth of July.

Thursday next is the Anniversary of American Independence. We have heard of no arrangements for a celebration in this place. This is to be regretted. We hope, however, that business will be suspended, and that we will at least make it a day of recreation.

This vicinity was visited during the past week with copious showers of rain. We have rarely witnessed finer growing weather. The Spring crops now bid fair to be very good.

The Ovenshine Platform.

The Carlisle Herald says that the Locofoco papers are parading very conspicuously in their columns what they call the "Galphin Platform." As an offset to this we would direct the attention of the public to the "Ovenshine Platform," which has lately been set up by Jesse Miller, editor of the Harrisburg Keystone, and which is officially announced by the said Jesse, and circulated in handbills as follows:

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION! Drake's Report of the WILLIAMSPORT CONVENTION!

Proceedings, Speeches, ALL the testimony in relation to the attempt to BRIBE two of the Delegates, &c. Rich and Racy! Ten thousand copies ordered to be printed in pamphlet form! To be published next week at $1 for twelve copies, or $5 per hundred! Orders solicited immediately. Address W. E. DRAKE, office of the Keystone, Harrisburg, Pa. Harrisburg, June 6, 1850.

As the report of the proceedings will be sold nearly as cheap as the Delegates were, we hope the edition will be purchased by the people, so that they may have a full understanding of the "seven principles" which lie at the basis of the Locofoco Ovenshine Platform!

The Fact Admitted.

The Chambersburg Valley Spirit, in an article on the Williamsport convention, acknowledges the fact "that there is a set of men hanging to the skirts of the Democracy of this State, who are among the most unmitigated POLITICAL SCOUNDRELS in the world."

The Whigs have said so for years, and for saying so have been most lustily abused; but as the charge is now acknowledged by the Locos themselves, perhaps the people will think there is some truth in it.

UNPLEASANT PREDICAMENT.—The editor of the Lynn News says he saw a man the other day in a very uncomfortable situation. He was highly incensed at an article in the News, but not being a subscriber to it, he was debarred the revenge of saying "stop my paper."

Senator Dickinson.

A dinner was given on Monday evening to Senator Dickinson, by the Loco party of the city of New York. The toasts were in favor of the Union and Compromise Bill. But the fun of the thing was that the rank and file of the party assembled in front of the steps of Tammany, where the dinner was held, denounced those in the hall as "aristocrats," because five dollars was the price of admission, and demanded that Dickinson should come down and address the people. His refusal offended "the sovereign democracy," and they departed in great indignation to liquor at the Pewter Mug.

Fulton County.

The question of creating a new county out of Bedford and Somerset, to be called Fulton, was submitted to a vote of the people, on the 11th inst. The vote was 772 in favor of the new county, and 369 against it.

The New York Courier says the importation of the last nine months have been upwards of sixteen millions of dollars greater than in the same time last year, and the exports thirteen million less. This shows the practical workings of the Locofoco Tariff of 1842.

Polk, Dallas and Shunk, and the Tariff of 1842.

"When they [the people] STRAYED off on the tariff question [and] it required the unflinching firmness of Vice President Dallas, a national patriot and a national democrat, to set Pennsylvania right with his fearless and NOBLE CASTING VOTE, (immense applause.)"

The above is a quotation from the speech of Reah Frazier, Esq., a Democratic war horse, delivered at the Williamsport Convention. It is a meaning commentary upon the motto of the banners carried by the Locofocos in 1841. Its utterance was greeted with "immense applause."

The people of Pennsylvania cannot but remember, with what a burst of indignation the casting vote of George M. Dallas was received when with his parried hand he strangled that first born of real Democracy, a protective tariff. When false to all his own pledges—the pledges of his party—a traitor to his own State, he bartered Pennsylvania's prosperity for the empty honors of Southern praise,—Dallas, like the viper in the fable, stung the hand that had warmed him into life, one universal moan, mingled with stifled curses, arose from one end of our State to the other. The tariff men who had voted for him, but hoping against hope, thought the administration would not dare to strike down the right arm of our wealth and power. Poor dopes, they voted, and were sold! Many shook off the party shackles, and avowed their determination to stand by the ancient faith of Democracy; and by a union of strength with the Whigs who had proved unflinching in their attachment to the tariff, they hurled this traitor and his treason to the earth. It was right nobly done. Pennsylvania were true to themselves. They "scotched the snake" but did not "kill it."

Since that day the misnamed Democratic party have bullied, coaxed and endeavored to wheedle Pennsylvania away from this long cherished Democratic policy. Each year have they reiterated their anti-tariff creed, and each year have they sought to bring back to party fealty, the tariff men who left them because of the treason to their long acknowledged principles.—Some tariff men are unwise enough to still organize with them, in their party conventions for State and county officers, supposing that they can keep their party standing, and when national elections are held, that they can save themselves by quietly voting with the friends of the tariff. What more than madness. They are, on every such occasion giving immense applause to doctrines which are riveting the chains of free trade more firmly. The ties of party bind the weak, and quiet voting alone cannot unloose them. If men who are tariff men will mingle with such scenes, and swell the immense applause, which must finally still their cries, when paralyzed industry, borne to the earth, crushes them with it, they will fall by their own suicidal hand. Pennsylvania's cherished tariff principles hang by too slender a thread—double dealing friends are more dangerous than open foes. Friends of Pennsylvania! tariff men of all parties, will you tacitly sustain the sentiments of the above extract by voting for any portion of the ticket that such men have formed for you! We will never believe it until the unwelcome truth is forced on us by fact. As Father Richie says nous venons.—Pa. Intelligencer.

COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—The Hagerstown Herald of Freedom says that there are counterfeit "two dollar notes," of the Georgetown corporation, [new issues] in circulation.

THE NASHVILLE CONVENTION has adjourned to meet "six weeks after the adjournment of Congress!" When is that "good time coming!" The N. Y. Tribune thinks "we may not live to see the day."

The whole amount of subscription required for the completion of the Pennsylvania Rail Road has been secured, with a considerable surplus, which will be applied, as far as it will go, in stocking the road, and there is little doubt that the improvement will now be completed and equipped at the earliest possible day, without incurring one dollar of debt.

Andrew Young, of Harrisburg, has been appointed Superintendent of the Public Buildings there, in the place of Isaac Hovis, recently deceased.

No U. S. Senator has been chosen either in Maine or Connecticut, the Legislature of the latter having postponed the matter until its next session.

DEATH FROM OVER-HEATING.—An Irish laborer become overheated last week while engaged in a hay-field, near Lancaster, and drank excessively of cold water, and died in a very short time after.

LABORERS WANTED.—Messrs. Gouder & Burk advertise for two hundred and fifty laborers on the York and Cumberland Railroad.

The Norfolk Argus says, the wheat crop in North Carolina, and the Tide water counties, Virginia, is utterly blighted.

THE CHOLERA is raging in various parts of Mexico. It has also made its appearance at Nashville. One case was reported in Philadelphia last week.

FIGHT BETWEEN MORMONS AND INDIANS.—The St. Louis Republican states on the authority of a letter from an authentic source at Salt Lake City, that during the last winter, a battle took place between the Mormons and the Utah Indians, in which the latter lost 40 of their number. This decided victory had an excellent effect upon the Indians, who have since remained very quietly disposed.

Two men, George Dalton and Hiram W. Fetter, while engaged in digging a well at Allegheny city opposite Pittsburg, on Tuesday, were instantly killed by inhaling carbonic acid gas.

NEW PLANET.—The Tempo, of Naples, published a letter from M. Leopold Del Re, Director of the Observatory at Naples, announcing that the celebrated Astronomer, Don Annibale De Gasparin, late discoverer of the "Igea Borbonica," has discovered a new telescope planet, being the 9th between Mars and Jupiter. It is a star of the 9th magnitude, and is at present in opposition with the sun.

The Locos and the Compromise.

The N. Y. Courier asks very pertinently, "Why does the Loco Foco party support the Compromise bill of Mr. Clay?" And this question, after showing that it cannot be from any love to the illustrious man whom they have so long and so vilely abused, the Courier itself answers with so much force and clearness, that we are constrained to quote the subjoined extract from its reply:

"A reference to the history of this Compromise scheme, may throw some light upon the motives of its Loco Foco friends. When Congress met, the Democracy, proclaimed its purpose to wage war upon the Administration 'to the bitter end, no matter what face the future might wear.' Threats of dissolution began to be thrown out, unless the demands of the ultra Slavery Democracy were conceded. The Administration proposed a plan for adjusting the Slavery difficulties. It was one well calculated to meet the views, and enlist the support, of all sections of the country. The loco foco leaders, forewarned in its adoption their ruin. They knew that, as a party and with their own unaided strength, they could make no effectual resistance to it. Senator Foote, acting as the stage manager of the concern forthwith set about his project of a counter policy—the essential feature of which was to be, hostility to the President's plan, and a consequent division of the administration party. Then came this proposition for a Committee of Thirteen, chosen by the most dramatic prophecies of the ruin and horrors that would envelope the country without it, and carried through the Senate by the management of its friends and the indifference of its foes. Mr. CLAY was then induced to forego the opinion he had already expressed and the purpose he had proclaimed, and undertake the championship of this new scheme. And then Mr. Foote's play had been performed. He could withdraw, and officiate only as scene-shifter or call-boy, as occasion might require.

And why did Mr. Foote select Mr. CLAY as the foster-father of his pet scheme? Because of his confidence in his great patriotism—his admiration for him as a statesman and a man? Credit Judaea Apellata. He chose to secure his adhesion, and his champion-ship, because he knew that thus, and thus only could he accomplish the division of the Whig party which was the sole object of the whole maneuver. He believed that he could thereby array a large section of the party against the administration.—Mr. Clay, he knew had a voice potential with Whigs everywhere, and he believed many of them would follow their great leader even into a scheme, the chief end and aim of which was, to rend the Whig party into fragments, and hurl it from power forever.

We believe this to be the true reason why the Loco Foco party, of which Foote is the principal manager, are so earnest and ardent in support of the Compromise and of HENRY CLAY.—They intend thus to distract and destroy the Whig party. They sought to bring Mr. CLAY into a position of hostility to the Whig Administration—feeling confident that a large section of the Whig party would adhere to his banner. We have no faith in their clamor about danger to the country, and the necessity of harmony.—It is just as hollow and hypocritical as their praise of HENRY CLAY.

The Cuban Invaders.

A despatch from New Orleans of the 21st inst says, the Grand Jury to day found a true bill against Gen. Lopez, Mr. Sikur, of Delaware Gen. Quitman, Judge C. Pinkney, Ex-Governor Henderson, Mr. O'Sullivan, and eleven others, of the Cuban invaders, for violating the neutrality of the laws of the United States.

Upon the above the N. American remarks, we regret to find the name of Gen. Quitman among those who are implicated in this miserable business. As the Governor of a Sovereign State, he was eminently bound not to permit himself to aid or abet, however indirectly, any violation of the laws of his country; and if the charge against him is sustained by any proof, whether confirmed by the finding of a traverse jury or not, he will be politically ruined. Judge C. Pinkney and Ex-Governor Henderson, as they are called in the despatch, are, we are inclined to think, but one person, and that one J. Pinkney Henderson, who made himself notorious by an attempt to censure the conduct of General Taylor at Monterey; and if this suspicion be well founded, we are not at all surprised to find him plotting with foreigners to invade the territory of a friendly neighbor.

Accounts from Washington state that the U. S. Senate has confirmed the nominations of Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Peyton and Mr. Marsh for the several Foreign Missions to which they have been appointed, and also, the Secretaries of their several legations.
