MARRIAGE: WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY. THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY!

MANY and many a wife endures years of bodily suffering and of mental anguish, prostrate and helpless, emitting her life, that of her husband, and hazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from causes which, if known, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the husband embarrasments and pecuniary difficulties having their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the companion of his bosom.

How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every husband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and happiness of both may be avoided! Life is too short and health too precious to admit any portion of the one to be spent without the full enjoyment of the other. The timely possession of a little work entitled as follows has been the means of saving the health and the life of thousands, as over

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND copies have been sold since the first edition was issued. The author has been induced to advertise it by the urgent and pressing request of those who have been indebted to its publication for all they hold dear (that all may have an opportunity of obtaining it), and who have favored him with thousands of letters of encomium, some of which are annexed to the advertisement.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion. BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN. Tenth Edition. 18mo., pp. 250. Price, $1.00.

THIS WORK IS INTENDED ESPECIALLY FOR THE MARRIED, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to the bridegroom.

Here, every female—the wife, the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the one in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands in the innumerable letters received by the author (which he is permitted by the writers to publish) will attest.

SICKLY AND UNHAPPY WIVES. Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O. "DAYTON, May 1, 1847.

"DR. A. M. MAURICEAU: My Dear Sir, The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion, for which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came early in the mail. I would have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions.

"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some time, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent jeopardy. I would have thought her completely despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of as containing sound and practical advice in such cases. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desormeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary consideration can ever repay the obligations I am under to you for having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in this Companion. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left motherless."

Extract from a Letter. "LANCASTER, PA., Oct. 24, 1847. "MY DEAR SIR: I know you will have the kindness to bear with me in encircling you your time, while I acknowledge in the best of ways, the obligations we feel ourselves under to you in having made known certain matters, contained in your most invaluable Married Woman's Private Medical Companion, to me in what I might in right call to me. If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can not do so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your Companion, in brief, as follows: I look upon it as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly with the most distressing and painful complaint, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end of me about where I was at the beginning of each year, and that only, with the most stinted economy, suffering with barely the necessities of life. Finally, this constant effort for beginning to give up, and my health: I felt less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance.

"This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the protracted nature of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six years, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and management of household affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. All that would I have given had I the six years to live over again! What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bed of sickness—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.'"

From a Physician. DANGEROUS DELIVERIES, OBSTRUCTIONS, IRREGULARITIES, &c. How many are suffering from obstruction or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine their health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which they feel they need medical advice! How many suffer from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor-albus (weakness, debility, &c.)! How many are in constant agony for months preceding confinement, and how many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and whose lives are jeopardized during such time, will find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief!

Extract from a Letter. "To those just Married.—'Had I known!'" "DR. A. M. MAURICEAU: Had I known of the important matters treated of in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion' some years ago, how much misery I might have escaped! I have suffered years from causes which you point out in your book, without knowing what to do. I obtained a copy, and found my case treated of. I trust every female will avail herself of the information contained in its pages."

Letters are daily received of this character, unnecessary to present. To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations contained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated. It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are intended strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duty to become possessed of knowledge whereby the sufferings to which a mother, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated.

Copies will be sent by Mail free of Postage to the Purchaser. On the receipt of One Dollar, 'THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION' is sent (mailed free) to any part of the United States. All orders must be post paid to those containing remittance, and addressed to Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Box 1224, New York City. Publishing Office, No. 129 Liberty st., New York. FEVER & AGUE. Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers, & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases. SPEEDILY & THOROUGHLY CURED by Dr. Osgood's India Choloagogue.

This excellent compound, which never fails in the cure of Fever and Ague, is for sale by the proprietor's agents, T. READ & SONS, Huntingdon; L. G. KESSLER, Mill Creek, J. H. STRAIN, Waterstreet. WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH ME, Doctor? What is the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer. It is the liver which is affected, and the Choloagogue is the remedy, always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourselves. For sale by the above named agents.

BETTER DIE THAN LIVE, IF I AM TO be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden to him, from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Choloagogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

How few never think, but only think they do. THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED IN THE above exclamation, is on no subject more fully exemplified than that of health. But few give it a single thought and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Choloagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents. July 9, 1850.
