FEVER & AGUE.
Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers, & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases.
SPECIALLY & THOROUGHLY CURED BY Dr. Osgood's India Chologogue.

This excellent compound, which never fails in the cure of Fever and Ague, is for sale by the proprietor's agents, T. READ & SON, Huntingdon; L. G. KESSLER, Mill Creek, J. H. STREIN, Waterstreet.

☞ WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH ME, DOCTOR? What is the cause of this sorrow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry and such the symptoms of many a sufferer. It is the liver which is affected, and the Chologogue is the remedy, always successful in curing it.—Try it, and judge for yourselves. For sale by the above named agents.

☞ BETTER DIE THAN LIVE, IF I AM TO be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden to him, from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's Indian Chologogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

"How few who think aright among the thinking few; How many never think, but only think they do."

☞ THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED in the above exclamation, is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. Put few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive.—As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Chologogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents.

MARRIAGE: WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY. THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY!
MANY and many a wife endures years of bodily suffering and of mental anguish, poverty and helplessness, embittering her life, that of her husband, and hazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from causes which, if known, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the husband embarrasments and pecuniary difficulties having their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the companion of his bosom.

How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every husband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and happiness of both may be avoided! Life is too short and health too precious to admit any portion of the one to be spent without the full enjoyment of the other. The timely possession of a little work entitled as follows has been the means of saving the health and the life of thousands, as over copies have been sold since the first edition was issued.

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND

The author has been induced to advertise it by the urgent and pressing request of those who have been indebted to its publication for all they hold dear (that all may have an opportunity of obtaining it, and who have favored him with thousands of letters of encomium, some of which are annexed to the advertisement.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion.
BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.
Twentieth Edition. 18mo. pp. 250. Price, $1.00.

THIS WORK IS INTENDED ESPECIALLY FOR THE MARRIED, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them, particularly the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the one in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change—can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as years of misery have been relieved by the author (which he is permitted by the writers to publish) will attest.

SICKLY AND UNHAPPY WIVES.
Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O.
"DR. A. M. MAURICEAU:—My Dear Sir:—The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion, for which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but as I am myself a sufferer from the same disease, and as I myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions.

"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desormeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived to be possible. No pecuniary means were wanting to repay the obligations I am under to you for having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' For this reason, and for the relief it afforded my wife, I have, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left motherless."

Competence and Health.
"LANCASTER, PA., Oct. 24, 1847.
"MY DEAR SIR: I know you will have the kindness to bear with me in encroaching upon your time, while I acknowledge (in behalf of myself and wife) the obligations we feel ourselves under to you in having made known certain matters contained in your most invaluable 'Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' It has been worth its weight in gold to me. If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can not do too much to thank you for the extent to which I have, through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your book through the merest curiosity. I look upon it as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unsuccessfully to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year, and that only, with the most stinted economy, sufficing with barely the necessities of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my health: I felt less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance.

"This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condition of my wife (with occasional intermissions) for six years, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and management of household affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would I have given had I but six years to live over again! What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bed of sickness—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.'"

DANGEROUS DELIVERIES, OBSTRUCTIONS, IRREGULARITIES, &c.
How many are suffering from obstruction or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine their health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delirious forbids seeking medical advice! How many suffer from protracted sterility (failing of their womb, or from discharges (white, yellow, debility, &c., &c.)! How many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement! How many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and whose lives are jeopardized during such time, will find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief!

To those just Married.—"Had I known!"
"PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29, 1847.
"DR. A. M. MAURICEAU: Had I known of the important matters treated of in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion' some years ago, how much misery I might have escaped! I have suffered years from causes which you point out in your book, without knowing what to do. I obtained a copy, and found my case treated of. I trust every female will avail herself of the information contained in its pages."

Letters are daily received of this character, unnecessary to present.

To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations contained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage; and it is unnecessary, since it is every one's duty to become conversant with knowledge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a mother, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated.
