FEVER & AGUE
Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermitting and Remittent Fevers, & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases
SPEEDILY & THOROUGHLY CURED
By Dr. Osogood's India Chologogue

This excellent compound, which never fails in the cure of Fever and Ague, is for sale by the proprietors, T. READ & SON, Huntingdon; L. G. KESSLER, Mill Creek; J. H. STEINER, Waterford.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH ME, Doctor? What is the cause of this slow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer. It is the liver which is affected, and the Chologogue is the remedy, always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourselves. For sale by the above named agents.

BETTER DIE THAN LIVE, IF I AM TO be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden to him, from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osogood's India Chologogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.

How few never think, but only think they do." THE SENTIMENT IMPLIED IN THE above exclamation, is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As an observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osogood's India Chologogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the second section of the fifth article, so that it shall read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, to be held by the President of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges; and the Associate Judges of the courts of Common Pleas, by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for subsequent to the first election); the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of them on the address of two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election of the courts, to be held by the President of the Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for nine years, one for twelve years, and one for fifteen years; the term of each to be decided by lot by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, that the commissions may be issued in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during his term and thereafter each Judge whose commission shall first expire shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and if two or more commissions shall expire on the same day the person holding them shall decide by lot, which shall be the Chief Justice. Any vacancies, happening by death, resignation or otherwise, in any of the said courts, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of December succeeding the next general election. The Judges of the Supreme Court and the Presidents of the several Courts of Common Pleas shall, at stated times, receive for their services an adequate compensation to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of profit under this Commonwealth, or under the government of the United States, or any other State of this Union. The Judges of the Supreme Court, during their continuance in office, shall reside within this Commonwealth; and the other Judges, during the continuance in office, shall reside within the district or county for which they were respectively elected.

CHAS. G. JOHNSON, of Bristol.
Who was pronounced incurably fixed in the last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, by two skillful Physicians.
Mr. Johnson was rescued from death's door by the use of Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup—having been prostrated all winter. His case was witnessed by several of the most respectable citizens of this State, whose names are appended to his certificate. Read I Read! and be convinced that Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup is the only certain cure for Consumption.
Bristol, Bucks county, Pa. }
Sept. 21, 1849.

Dr. J. H. SOUTHWICK, Dear Sir,—I am induced from a sense of justice towards you, as well as duty to the public, to make known one of the most hopeless and extraordinary cures, in my own person, that you have ever had the pleasure to record. Indeed, I regret my inability to portray, in truthful colors, my consuming disease, and the remarkable chance which Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup effected in so short a time.
I was taken some time previous to December, 1848, with a heavy cold, producing incessant coughing, accompanied with acute pain in the right side, pains in the back, under the right shoulder, having heavy night sweats, high fevers &c., which made me so nervous and restless as to produce utter prostration. All these afflictions increased with such violence, that on the 4th of January last I sent for my family physician. He attended me faithfully, and prescribed every thing that medical skill could suggest, but without effect. I found myself gradually growing worse, and my hopes of recovery lessening as my disease increased. My cough became debilitating; my pains severe; my strength extremely debilitated, I lost all ambition in life, and gave up to a melancholy depression. My physician examined me, and informed me I had an abscess on the upper part of my liver and lower part of one of my lungs. Notwithstanding all this skill, I grew worse, but with that tenacity with which we all cling to life, I concluded to have nothing undone, and called in a consulting physician, who fully concurred with my own, and pronounced my case an extremely critical one. He thought I was in imminent danger—saying my disease "was one that seldom if ever cured." All this time I was enduring sufferings that made life burdensome; experiencing great pain in coughing; expectorating from a pint to a quart of nauseous matter every 24 hours, and gradually sinking under the weakening progress of my disease. At this stage of my illness, my friends in Bristol suggested the use of Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup, but knowing the many expedients resorted to for the purpose of draining money from the afflicted, I hesitated. My friends, however, insisting, I was prevailed upon to try its virtues. I commenced taking the Syrup about the first of March, and used several bottles before I had any confidence in it. I then began to experience a change for the better, and continued it till I had consumed ten bottles, when I was so far relieved as to be able to visit Dr. Schneck in Philadelphia. He examined me, and pronounced my right lung affected, but in a healing condition. He recommended the further use of the Syrup, which I continued till I consumed 15 bottles, and found myself once more restored to health. I will further add, that the consulting physician, seeing the action of the medicine, fully approved its use.

To give the reader some idea of the severity of my case, and the rapid cure effected by the Syrup, I will state that my usual weight in health was 177 pounds, which was finally reduced by my sufferings, to but 120 pounds. Yet, on the first of this month, (Sept. 12th,) I weighed 174 pounds, thus gaining 54 pounds in three months, and within three pounds of my heaviest weight. It is not in my power to convey, in the short space of this certificate, the convincing proofs of my remarkable cure, or the particulars of the agonizing afflictions through which I have passed; but to those who will take the trouble to call on me, at Bristol, opposite Pratt's Hotel, I shall take pleasure in detailing every particular.
In conclusion, I deem it my duty to urge upon every person who may have the premonitory symptoms of this fatal disease, not to delay one hour, but to call upon Dr. Schneck immediately. His skill in the treatment of this complaint, and prompt detection of diseased parts of the lungs by means of his Stethoscope, added to my own sincere confidence in his care, I should have heaped much suffering, but restrained by doubt and suspicion, which make us all naturally skeptical in regard to the virtues of a medicine when first introduced, I resisted the opportunity which my friends till almost too late; and yielded only as a last resort, resolved to "kill or cure." To those afflicted as I have been, again let me say, hesitate no longer, my own case is presented to you as convincing evidence, that when all else fails your last hope is in Dr. Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup. I have also for the satisfaction of those who may be strangers to me, appended to this certificate the names of gentlemen well known in the walks of public and private life, and whose standing in society admits of no cavil or doubt in regard to their testimony.

CHARLES G. JOHNSON.
We the undersigned, residents of Bristol and vicinity, are well acquainted with Mr. Johnson, and know him to have been afflicted as he states above. We also know that he used Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup, and have every reason to believe, that to this medicine he owes his preservation from a premature grave. The known integrity and position in society of Mr. Johnson however is a sufficient guarantee to the public of the truth of this statement.
