SANCTIFICATION.

Ye who know your sins forgiven,
And are happy in the Lord,
Have you read that gracious promise,
Which is left upon record?

I will sprinkle you with water,
I will cleanse you from all sin, Sanctify and make you holy,
I will dwell and reign within.

Thou' you have much peace and comfort, Greater things you yet may find;
Freedom from unholy tempers, Freedom from the carnal mind.

To procure your perfect freedom, Jesus suffer'd, died, and died;
On the cross, the healing fountain, Gushed from his wounded side.

If you've not obtained this treasure, Search and you shall surely find;
All the christian's marks and graces, Planted, growing in the mind;

Perfect faith and perfect patience,
Perfect love, and then perfection;
Perfect hope and perfect meekness, Perfect love for God and man.

But be sure to gain the witness,
Which abides both day and night;
This your God has plainly promised;
This is like a stream of light.

While you keep the blessed witness,
All is clear and calm within;
God himself assures you by it,
That your heart is cleansed from sin.

Witnesses might be produced,
Of this wonderful work of love;
Paul and James, and John and Peter,
Long before they went above.

Hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands,
Have, and do, and will appear;
Let me ask the solemn question,
Has the Lord a witness here?

Be as holy, and as happy,
And as useful here below;
As it is your Father's pleasure—Jesus, only Jesus know.

Spread, O spread the holy fire!
Tell, O tell what God has done,
Till the nations have conformed
To the image of his Son.

Wake up, brothers! wake up, sisters!
Seek, O seek this holy state;
None but holy ones can enter Thro' the pure celestial gate.

Can you bear the thought of losing
All the joys that are above?
No my brothers, no my sisters,
God will perfect you in love.

Death shall not destroy my comfort, Christ shall guide me thro' the gloom,
Down he'll send a heavenly convoy
To convey my spirit home.

Jordan's stream shall ne'er o'erflow me,
While my Saviour's by my side;
Canaan, Canaan lies before me, Rise and cross the swelling flood.

See the happy spirits waiting,
On the banks beyond the stream,
Sweet responses still repeating,
Jesus, Jesus, in their theme.

Hark, they whisper! hark, they call me!
Sister spirit come away!
Lo I come, each one will contain me, Hail ye realms of endless day!

RESOLUTION

Relative to an amendment of the Constitution.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in Convention assembled: That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the second section of the fifth article, so that it shall read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following to wit: The Judges of the Supreme Court, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth; and the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges; and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for subsequent to the first election); the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well;
and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of them on the address of two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of this Commonwealth, and after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for nine years, one for twelve years, and one for fifteen years, the term of each to be decided by lot by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, that the commissions may be issued in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during his term and thereafter each Judge whose commission shall first expire shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and if two or more commissions shall expire on the same day the Judges holding them shall decide by lot which shall be the Chief Justice. After the expiration of the term of the Chief Justice, or other Judge, his successor shall be elected by the people, as usual, at very low prices. Their stock comprises everything that the wants of the people require, and is made up, in part, of the most extensive variety of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Dress Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats and Caps, Hardware, Queensware, Groceries, &c.

How my never think, but only think they do.'
This sentiment implied in the above exclamation is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it

single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of this nature require. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's Indian Cholagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the a-above named agents. July 9, 1850.

How few ever think, but only think they do.'
This sentiment implied in the above ex-
clamation is on no subject more fully exemplified
than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it
with the observation and good sense which matters of this nature require. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's Indian
and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its
prompt and immediate use. For sale by the a-
above named agents. July 9, 1850.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

Pennsylvania ss.

I do certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "Resolution
relative to an amendment of the Constitution,"
as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof I have here-unto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the seal of the Secretary's Office, at Harrisburg, this fifteenth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

A. L. RUSSELL,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.
