On motion of Mr. Hileman, the following reso-lations were then nanimously adopted: Resolved, That we feel deeply the sudden de-mise of our late excellent and worthy Chief Ma-ristrate, Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR. His ad-ministration was in character with his whole life, and while the people reposed confidence in his firmness and ability, they were equally certain that the Constitution would not be violated, or his country brought into disrepute by any act of his. Resolved, That in MILLAKD FILLMORE, the Whig party, and the whole contry, can rest, with a firm reliance upon his ability, sound patri-otism, and Republican principles, for a correct and impartial administration of the government. Resolved, That Gov. JOHNSTON'S adminis-tration meets with our cordial and hearty approval and that he is eminently deserving of the confi-dence and support of the people for his purely honest course in regard to placing Pennsylvania where she ought to be in the estimation of the whole Vinion.
