To the Independent Voters of Huntingdon County.

HAVING been strongly urged by numerous friends from all parts of the county, to offer myself as an independent candidate for the office of Sheriff...

WHIG MEETING.

"OLD BILL JOHNSTON" IS COMING!

The Whigs of Huntingdon Borough and vicinity are requested to assemble at the Court House, THIS (TUESDAY) EVENING, at the ringing of the bell...

We are indebted to Hon. S. CALVIN for a valuable public document.

Cottage Post Office, in this county, discontinued a few months since, has been re-established, and WM. WALKER appointed Postmaster.

Whig Organization.

It is high time that the work of thorough ORGANIZATION in the Whig ranks should be commenced. The time is short, and what is to be done must be done quickly.

Military Encampment.

A military encampment is to come off at Mount Union, in this county, on the 15th of October. Extensive arrangements are being made...

LOCOFOCOISM.—Starving American mechanics and feeding British paupers! If you like it, vote for PARKER, the Free Trade candidate.

THE COMING ELECTION.

Duty of the Friends of Free Labor.

There never was a time, perhaps, in the political history of Pennsylvania, when it was more important for the friends of AMERICAN INTERESTS to discharge their duty faithfully.

Another important duty to be performed by the next Legislature, is Apportioning the State into Congressional districts. With a Locofoco majority, the people cannot expect justice.

To prevent so disastrous a result, we must have a WHIG LEGISLATURE! This we can secure if the proper efforts are made.

A Rich Entertainment.

There is every indication of a serious outbreak between the rival factions of Locofocoism in this county. From present appearances, we should not be surprised if it resulted in a regular "knock down and drag out" fight.

Murder in Hollidaysburg.

A colored man named Alexander Edmondson, of McVeytown, was killed at Hollidaysburg on Tuesday last, by Alexander Hutchinson, a boatman.

We have cheering news from Blair, Mifflin, Centre and Juniata. McCulloch will sweep the district like a whirlwind.

A NEW MOVEMENT.

Another Richmond in the Field!

"They wire in and wire out, And leave the people still in doubt, Whether the snake that made the track Was going north or coming back."

Whittaker having been abandoned by the Locofoco, the contest will be between ZEIGLER and SPEER. Personally, we have not a word to say against Mr. Speer.

The Tariff Candidate.

The nomination of Dr. JOHN McCULLOCH for Congress, is everywhere throughout the District responded to with enthusiastic unanimity by the friends of FREE LABOR, of all parties.

An Eloquent Appeal.

We invite the attention of our Whig friends to the Address of the Lancaster Whig Committee, on the first page of to-day's Journal.

The Whole Whig Ticket.

We cannot too frequently urge upon our Whig friends the importance of sustaining their PARTY ORGANIZATION, and strictly adhering to REGULAR NOMINATIONS, at all times, and under all circumstances.

The Latest Movement.

The Locofoco managers held another caucus on Saturday evening, which resulted in the declaration of Mr. WHAT in favor of Mr. SPEER, who is now regarded as the regular Locofoco nominee for Sheriff.

Pepper it into Them.

FRIEND CLARK, of the Huntingdon Journal, is kept busy between the Locofocos and some renegade Whigs, in his district, who are base enough to oppose the regularly nominated ticket because the Convention didn't see proper to elect them.

Railroad Bridge Broke Down.

A small railroad bridge near Bell's Furnace, between Huntingdon and Hollidaysburg, broke down on Tuesday evening last, after the evening train had passed over it.

The Native American State Convention met last week and nominated for Canal Commissioner, Dr. Jacob Dewees, of Montgomery; for Surveyor General, Kimbel Cleaver, of Schuylkill; for Auditor General, E. S. Neale, of Allegheny.

Charles E. Kinkead, Esq.

This gentleman called upon us, personally, a few days since, and declared, most emphatically, that there was no arrangement between him and the Locofocos to the effect that, if elected, he was to vote for the Locofoco candidate for U. S. Senator.

The Next Legislature.

It is possible the next Legislature will be called upon to district the State for members of Congress for ten years—it will certainly be called upon to elect a U. S. Senator.

Whig Rally at Cassville.

There will be a grand Whig Rally at Cassville to-morrow. The news that "OLD BILL JOHNSTON" is to be there, has spread like wild-fire through the country, and we anticipate an immense gathering of the People on that occasion.

Arrival of Amin Bey.

The Turkish Commissioner and his suite landed in New York on the 13th inst. He was dressed in a blue frock coat, white pants, a red seal cap, epaulettes, and wore a rich order of diamonds.

A Full Whig Vote.

We hope our Whig friends in this county will adopt measures to secure a FULL VOTE in every election district. Let not a single Whig voter be overlooked—see that all are on the ground on the day of the election, and that every Whig vote is polled.

Intense Excitement.

Friday last was a thronging day in Huntingdon. The Circus attracted an immense crowd of country people; and the extensive pavilion was crowded to its utmost capacity, both in the afternoon and evening.

Two Men Killed.

The watchman of the railroad bridge at Petersburg, was killed on Tuesday last, by the locomotive, and another man is said to have been killed on the same day, at Duncannon.

Hon. A. H. H. Stuart.

We are sincerely gratified in being able to announce the appointment of the Hon. A. H. H. Stuart of Virginia as Secretary of the Home Department, and his acceptance of the same.

Our subscribers on the Traugh Creek route are informed that their papers are mailed regularly. If they do not receive them, it is owing entirely to the carelessness of some of the Postmasters on the route, who had better attend to their business, or we will apply to Uncle Sam for redress.

PROTECTION AGAIN DEFEATED.

Locofocoism and Slavery against the Free Labor of the North!

Notwithstanding the concessions made to the South in the passage of the Texas Boundary, and Fugitive Slave Bills, and establishing Senatorial Governments for New Mexico and Utah, without the anti-slavery proviso, the representatives of Locofocoism and Slavery have again united in Congress to crush the Free Labor of the North!

On the 14th instant, an effort was made in the House of Representatives, to procure a modification of the Tariff, with a view to protecting the interests in this country, now so seriously affected by the operations of the Tariff of 1846.

Mr. Phelps moved that the whole subject be laid upon the table, which was lost—yeas 93, nays 94. The vote was then taken upon the substitute of Mr. Vinton, which was lost—yeas 93, nays 96.

The Locofocos, with four exceptions, voted against this amendment, and every Whig but two, Messrs. Clingman and Caldwell, from N. Carolina, voted for it. And even four Democrats from Pennsylvania, viz.—Messrs. Dimmick, Mann, McLanahan and Ross—voted against it!

After the defeat of Mr. Vinton's proposition, the question was taken on the resolution of Mr. Toombs, declaring it inexpedient to take any action upon the subject, and decided in the negative—yeas 91, nays 93.

Mr. Brooks moved to reconsider, with a view of introducing a resolution, which he sent to the Clerk's table to be read. The resolution provided for the appointment of a committee of seven to sit during the recess of Congress, and gather information in relation to the operations of the Tariff with power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Thompson of Miss., moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, which was carried—yeas 93, nays 92.

Three Thousand Hungarians.

Alexander LUKACS, (pronounced Lucas, nearly) a member of the revolutionary Congress of Hungary, and a Commissary of the Hungarian Army, arrived in New York a few days since, from Hungary via England, and has left for the Great West where he designs to reside.

Jenny Lind's Generosity.

The generosity of Jenny Lind captivates all hearts. In addition to the ten thousand dollars which she recently gave to benevolent societies in New York, the Tribune states that she has already expended upward of $2500 in private charity since she reached the United States, and that she had appropriated the entire net results of her visit to America, however large they may be, to the establishment and endowment of a system of free schools in Norway, and Sweden.

Hon. A. H. H. Stuart.

We are sincerely gratified in being able to announce the appointment of the Hon. A. H. H. Stuart of Virginia as Secretary of the Home Department, and his acceptance of the same.

The Foreign Grain Market.

The Washington Republic comments to the careful perusal of those farmers of the Union who are anxiously looking for the realization of Mr. Secretary Walker's promises of a European market that was to "go on increasing" from the time when the "potato rot" enabled us to export to the amount of some twenty or thirty millions of dollars worth of grain, the following paragraph which we take from the London Examiner of the 10th ultimo:

The Emperor of Russia has ordered the formation of five or six lines of road connecting the south of Russia with Odessa, in order that the immense quantity of corn produced in this fertile and almost virgin soil may be more readily transported for export. "It is expected," says a Russian correspondent, "that in a few years the markets of Europe will be so overflooded with Russian corn that all competition will be impossible."

Russia, it is well known, can produce enough to supply all that will be needed in Great Britain at lower rates than can be raised in the United States, and if the project spoken of above is once accomplished, that Empire can deliver Wheat in England at from 50 cents to $1 per bushel—and it should prices rule here at the latter figure, export it to the United States. In such case, we ask any intelligent farmer, who desires a fair remuneration for his labor, whether a protective tariff would not better suit his views than the free trade doctrines now advocated by the locofoco party?

Col. R. A. McMurtre.

The Locofocos have abandoned the idea of presenting a regularly nominated candidate against Col. McMurtre. They will, no doubt, says the Blair County Whig, endeavor to rally their scattered forces upon Col. McDowell, who has announced himself as an "independent" candidate; but as good a Locofoco can be found in the district. It is scarcely necessary to tell the people of this district who Col. McMurtre is. He is known throughout its limits, as a man of great energy of character, commanding talents, and an obliging neighbor and citizen.

To our Whig friends, we can give every assurance, as to his soundness on the political questions of the day, and his ability to sustain them on the floor of the Senate. He is the warm, devoted, and faithful friend of our excellent Governor; and the admirer and supporter of the administration of President Fillmore. What more do we want in a candidate? Should he not get our suffrages?—Most certainly. Then Whigs, and honest Democrats, rally to the support of Col. McMurtre. We have every assurance that he will poll more than his full party vote in this county. If other portions of the district do their duty, which we confidently believe they will, his majority cannot fall short of twelve hundred. Do your duty, Whigs, and we will distance his independent, Locofoco competitor.

Three Thousand Hungarians.

Alexander LUKACS, (pronounced Lucas, nearly) a member of the revolutionary Congress of Hungary, and a Commissary of the Hungarian Army, arrived in New York a few days since, from Hungary via England, and has left for the Great West where he designs to reside. He is empowered to purchase a large tract of land for 3000 of his countrymen from Central Hungary. We learn from the Journal of Commerce that Mr. LUKACS is one of the eleven persons outlawed by General Windischgratz, in December, 1848, when he entered Hungary at the head of the Austrian army.

Jenny Lind's Generosity.

The generosity of Jenny Lind captivates all hearts. In addition to the ten thousand dollars which she recently gave to benevolent societies in New York, the Tribune states that she has already expended upward of $2500 in private charity since she reached the United States, and that she had appropriated the entire net results of her visit to America, however large they may be, to the establishment and endowment of a system of free schools in Norway, and Sweden.
