

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

Terrible Riot at Sacramento.

The steamer Philadelphia arrived at New York on Saturday. The news which she brings from Sacramento is exciting in the extreme. Riot and death rule the hour! The long expected collision between the landholders and Squatters has at last taken place. There is no telling when and where it will end.

The Alta Californian, of the 15th, furnishes us with the following particulars:

An armed body of the Squatters proceeded through J. street, about half past 1 o'clock yesterday, and were interrupted by the authorities, and opposed by portions of citizens. An affray soon commenced, and the city was aroused to arms. Mayor Bigelow was shot in three places and died in fifteen minutes after. J. W. Woodland, city assessor, was shot dead, and several citizens killed and wounded.

Our correspondent informs us that Dr. Robinson the leader of the Squatters, was shot through the head. His horse was first killed under him. Several of the Squatters were killed and wounded. Their ranks were swollen, from the sixty first engaged in the affray, to a body of armed men, numbering between 7 and 800, before the senator left. The keepers of gaming houses and sporting men generally sided with the real estate owners or citizens proper. A tremendous force was fast accumulating.

The war continued to rage as the Senator left. The discharge of fire arms was heard in every part of the city. Martial law was proclaimed, and the excitement is intense through Sacramento city. The Gold Hunter having on board Lieut. Gov. McDougal, came down to Benicia last evening and was to return immediately with arms and troops. Couriers have been started to San Jose, and the Governor will probably at once repair to the scene of riot.

Our military citizen companies will probably be required to march, under arms to Sacramento city.

LATER.—It appears the squatters were proceeding to liberate two of their party confined on board the prison ship, where they had been committed the day previous, when they were confronted by Mayor Bigelow, and members of the corporation.

A little girl was wounded in the street by a chance ball. The Squatters were assembled at the corner of J. and S. streets, in deliberation, and it was feared an attempt would be made to destroy the city.

Sheriff McKinley was shot through the arm.

SHOCKING THRESHING ACCIDENT.—An extra of the Middletown (Md) Whig records the following shocking occurrence:

Mr. Daniel Wagner, while thrashing at the barn of Mr. Samuel Remsburg, about three miles west of this place, on Tuesday morning last, in attempting to jump on the horse-power, whilst the machine was in rapid motion, had his foot caught by one of the levers with such force as to rupture the ankle joint and dislocate it entirely—the bones of the leg were fractured some eight inches up, and the lower half of the leg torn entirely from the upper, the muscles being all torn out from their origins.

Amputation of the leg just below the knee was performed, under the influence of chloro ether, and occupied 25 minutes. All sensibility to pain was destroyed. Mr. Wagner is about 42 years of age. The patient this (Wednesday) morning is lying in rather a precarious state, and it is feared cannot long survive.

MARRIED.

On the 19th inst., by Rev. S. V. Blake, Mr. ADOLPHUS WELCH, of this Borough, to Miss HELEN KUNZLEMAN, of Lewistown.

On the 17th inst., by Rev. R. Hamill, Mr. JOHN CAMPBELL, of this Borough, to Miss SARAH M. MOYER, of Bellefonte.

On Tuesday last, by Rev. Lowman P. Hayes, THEO. J. CREMER, Esq., to Miss MARGARET DORLAND, both of this Borough.

For their kind remembrance of the Printer, the "happy couple" will please accept our thanks and best wishes for their continued health, happiness, and prosperity. May not a single cloud arise to darken the flowery pathway of their matrimonial existence; and may they both live to verify the truth of the old maxim, that "the chain of wedlock is of gold, lasting as well as beautiful."

MONEY MATTERS.

Philadelphia Rates of Discount. CORRECTED WEEKLY.

Table with 2 columns: Bank Name and Rate. Includes Philadelphia Banks, par Lebanon, par Chambersburg, etc.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—We some time ago cautioned the public in regard to counterfeit two dollar notes, State issues, of the Farmer's Bank of Lancaster. We have now shown a new counterfeit of the same denomination, differing somewhat from the first, and with the exception of the engraving or perhaps printing being darker and coarser, a better imitation of the genuine.

In the first batch of the counterfeit the smoke issuing from the chimney of the house, in the vignette of the genuine, is omitted, and the cattle are imperfect and look much like blocks of stone. In the new counterfeit these defects are remedied, the cattle being tolerably good representations, and the smoke from the chimney appearing.

We are at a loss to know whether the counterfeiters have altered the first plate so as to produce these changes, or whether it is a new plate.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

Altered $5 notes, purporting to be on the Bank of Gettysburg, are in circulation. The signatures are good imitations of those on the genuine. Vignette, the figure of a female, eagle, shield and liberty pole; ships on the background. Left hand, an Indian figure with string bow. On the right is the figure of a sailor with a flag.

Counterfeit $5 notes on the Exchange Bank of Pittsburg, are in circulation. Vignette, a female figure representing Justice—dated May 6, 1843—engraving coarse.
