

Mount Union Encampment.

MR. EDITOR:—After what has appeared in the Ledger, of the 21st inst., in regard to a military encampment, recently held at Mt. Union, in this county, I deem it my duty, as a member of one of the companies composing the encampment, to make a statement of facts relative to the matter, lest by our hitherto silence, and what has emanated from the pens of one or two individuals with prejudiced minds, an unfavorable impression may be produced in the minds of the community.

The encampment it is true, comparatively speaking, was small, only four companies being in attendance, but this circumstance had no tendency to frustrate the object of our assemblage. The military rules and regulations of soldiers quartered on such occasions, were strictly observed and enforced. And systematic drill was held every day at regular hours, in connection with which there was daily company drill. So that, as regards acquisition of knowledge in military science, I think no soldier returned home dissatisfied. The greatest good feeling pervaded the entire bounds, and no disorderly conduct was exhibited at any time. When on duty, every member was orderly and attentive, and all the officers faithfully discharged their duty. A goodly number of the soldiers boarded themselves in their tents; the rest lodged at Mr. Holliday's Hotel, a few steps from the ground. But all were required to lodge in their tents, without reference either to rank or standing. This gave us a faint idea of a soldier's life, but it appeared to be perfectly congenial with the feelings of all. But notwithstanding the rigidity and exactness of the rules by which we were governed, I never saw a set of men who enjoyed themselves more, on any occasion, than did the soldiers of our recent encampment.

Our next encampment will occur at this place, sometime during the coming Spring, when a greater number of companies will be present; and if the writer of the Ledger can make it convenient to attend, we certainly will not overlook him in the presentation of our arms, in honor of the very high reputation he has acquired in our section of the country, by his recent effort in our behalf. All the author said is a tissue of lies. There were no companies present informed as he described them. True, we are not dandies, nor city gentlemen, but we are honest and work for our living.

Huntingdon, Oct. 25, 1850. S. S. G.

MARRIED.

On the 24th inst., in this place, by the Rev. L. P. Hayes, Rev. GEORGE ELLIOTT, Pastor of the Presbyterian church, in Alexandria, to Miss MARGARET A. HUBBARD.

At Harrisburg, on the 20th inst., by Rev. J. H. Coit, Mr. ELSHA J. PECK, of Yocoma county, to Miss REBECCA GARRETTSON, of York county.

DIED.

At Duncan's Island, of Consumption, on the 20th inst., Mrs. ELIZABETH DUNCAN, wife of Dr. Thomas Duncan, in the 27th year of her age.

[How true it is, that "afflictions never come singly." But a few months since, death entered the family of Dr. Duncan, and his widowed mother was taken from him; soon after, he followed his four children to their last lonely resting place, and now we are called upon to record this last and heaviest affliction. In the midst of his sore afflictions, however, the grief-stricken husband has the sweet consolation of knowing, that though the cold winds sweep unfeelingly over the lonely resting places of the loved and lost, their happy spirits have soared aloft to a better world, where "the weary are at rest;" and where they will tune their golden harps, and forever sing praises to Him who is "the fairest among ten thousand."]

MONEY MATTERS.

New Counterfeit.

Lancaster Bank No. 5's, Relief, new issue.—The engraving is pretty fair and the general appearance of the note, with the exception of the paper which looks as if it were made of a different material, may be easily detected by observing that some of the letters of "Lancaster" touch the flowers around the medallion at the left of the vignette, whilst in the genuine there is a considerable space between all the letters and the medallion. The letters in the names of the Engravers are not all of the same size in the counterfeits.

THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26, 1850. The flour market is quiet. A sale of 1000 bbls. of good brand, at $4.57, and 200 bbls. western at same price. Sales to the trade for $4.87, $5, for common and select brands, and $2.25 a $5.50 for extra. In Rye Flour and Corn Meal no transactions have been reported.

FIRE IN COLUMBIA.—A fire broke out in Columbia, Pa., on Saturday afternoon, in a stable at the rear of the Columbia Bank. Seven or eight stables were burned. The Lancaster firemen went to their assistance. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

TUNNELING THE ALPS.—A Turin letter to the editor of the London times, says, "I am told that the great project of piercing the Mount Cenis for a tunnel, has been abandoned, and that a new line connecting Baise with the subsisting railroad from Genoa to Turin is under consideration."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MILLINERY AND FANCY STORE.

MISS MARY A. MILLER, respectfully announces to the Ladies of Huntingdon, that she has just returned from the city with a splendid assortment of MILLINERY GOODS and FANCY ARTICLES, of the very latest, richest and most fashionable styles. She invites the Ladies to call and examine her beautiful and fashionable BONNETS and TRIMMINGS, and splendid assortment of FANCY GOODS, as well as the extent and variety of her stock, she feels confident of being able to please, both as to quality and price.

DR. M. STUART.

HAVING located in Huntingdon, offers his professional services to the citizens of the town and vicinity. Office in the new brick row, opposite Dr. Henderson's.

"Music Hath Charms."

SMITH has just received, at the Huntingdon Book Store, a choice assortment of MUSIC BOXES, VIOLINS, ACCORDEANS and GUITARS, with Preceptors. These instruments are of a superior quality, and produce a "concord of sweet sounds," that fall upon the ear like the sweet south wind upon a bank of violets, stealing and giving odor.

"STAND FROM UNDER!"

FOR fear you will be crushed by the avalanche of Fall and winter goods which J. & W. SAXTON have just received and opened for public inspection and purchase, at their store in Huntingdon, so celebrated for their cheapness and variety. The crowds assembling at their store daily, are only equalled by the numbers nightly rushing for seats at a Jenny Lind Concert! We have better and cheaper goods than can be found at any other establishment in the country. If you don't believe this assertion, "just drop in, you won't intrude," and verify it by examining qualities and prices.
