A good part of the tract is improved bottom land of first rate quality, and is well worth the attention of persons wishing to purchase a good farm. THE MERICAN OIL.
THE celebrated American Oil has been in use long enough to test its powers. It is recommended as one of the best, if not the very best medicine for the cure of Rheumatism, Irrisipelas, Tetter, Toothache, Cramps, Spasms, cholice, burns and scalds, bowel complaints, quincy, croup and sore throat, inflammation, &c. Read the following certificate.
HUNTINGDON, March 11, 1850.
For the benefit of sufferers like me and others, I do freely declare the following facts.—I have suffered more or less for twenty years with the most desperate Rheumatism, and also for 18 years at times with most desperate pain in the stomach, which at times seemed to expand as if it would burst; also for many years I was terribly troubled with cramps in my legs—indeed I can't describe all my sufferings for the last ten years. I could do no business for the last ten years, nor had I a single good night's sleep for the last five years. I never could find any relief worth mentioning, until last November, when I met with the Extract of American Oil, and to my no little surprise I got relieved of all in a short time and to this day. I respectfully invite all who choose to call and see me upon the matter; such I can tell much more. I can say it has done wonders on others around me in various complaints. If ever an article was put out honestly, this is one. I know it sells readily here. No family in the land will be without it when they once know its use.
JOHN BURMEACH.

HUNTINGDON, March 11, 1850.
I do hereby certify to the following facts.—That I have suffered for five years past with pain in my back, spine and kidneys, and never received any relief but by bleeding, for a few days only. November 1st, I got a bottle of the Extract of American Oil, I used it inwardly, and to my surprise it removed the complaint in a short time. From what I have seen and heard of its wondrous effects upon others in desperate cases, I can freely recommend it, and believe it to be worth all the humbugs in the land, and do believe it will do all for what it is so highly recommended.
C. COURTS.

LEWISTOWN, March 1850.
I never before gave a certificate, but I give with a clear conscience for the benefit of sufferers like myself. I suffered with the Erysipelas or St. Anthony's Fire, mixed with Tetter, so pronounced by my doctor, for 12 years. The suffering I endured is beyond description. At times all my hair came off my head. During this time I had no relief for more than a few days at a time. Last October I got a bottle of the Extract of American Oil, used it inwardly and outwardly, and to my great astonishment and my neighbors I got clear of it in a short time, and to this time I have noticed its wondrous effects on other desperate complaints. I do assure my friends and the public that it is indeed a wonderful thing for many complaints. My maiden name was Nancy Magarky, now Widow NANCY VINES.
The American Oil is for sale by A. S. HARRISON, Huntingdon, General Agent for Huntingdon county. This who wish a supply of the medicine will call on him.
Also for sale by Samuel Hrey, Alexandria, Huntingdon county; Catharine Hart, Lewistown, Mifflin county; John B. Given, M'Connellstown; Daniel Decker, M'Veyton; Mays S. Harrison, Shireleysburg. [Aug. 20—1y.]

FEVER & AGUE
Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases
SPEEDILY & THOROUGHLY CURED
By Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue

THIS excellent compound, which never fails in the cure of Fever and Ague, is for sale by the proprietor's agents, THOS. READ & SON, Huntingdon; L. G. KESSLER, Mill Creek; J. H. STRINER, Water Street.
WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH ME DOCTOR? What is the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the inquiry and such the symptoms of many a sufferer. It is the liver which is affected, and the Cholagogue is the remedy, always successful in curing it.—Try it, and judge for yourselves. For sale by the above named agents.
BETTER DIE THAN LIVE IF I AM TO be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, excluding the poorer sufferer whose life has become a burden, from the shocking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health, from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. In no instance does it fail to effect a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by above named agents.
How many who think right about the thinking few?
The sentiment implied in the above declaration is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. For sale by the above named agents. [July 9, 1850.]

THE GREAT CURE
OF Charles G. Johnson, of Bristol, who was pronounced incurably fixed in the last stage of pulmonary consumption, by two skilful physicians.
Mr. Johnson was rescued from death's door by the use of Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup—having been prostrated all winter. His case was witnessed by several of the most respectable citizens of this state, whose names are appended to his certificate. Read! Read! and be convinced that Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup is the only certain cure for Consumption.
Bristol, Bucks county, Pa. }
Sept. 21, 1849.

Dr. J. H. SCRIBNER.—Dear Sir,—I am induced from a sense of justice towards you, as well as duty to the public, to make known one of the most hopeless and extraordinary cures, in my own person, that you have ever had the pleasure to record. Indeed, I regret my inability to portray, in truthful colors, my consuming disease, and the remarkable change which Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup effected in so short a time.
I was taken some time previous to December 1848, with a heavy cold, producing incessant coughing, accompanied with acute pain in the right side, pains in the back, under the right shoulder, having heavy night sweats, high fevers &c., which made me so nervous and restless as to produce utter prostration. All these affections increased with such violence, that on the 4th of January last I sent for my family physician. He attended me faithfully, and prescribed everything that medical skill could suggest, but without effect. I found myself gradually growing worse, and my hopes of recovery lessening as my disease increased. My cough became distressing; my pains severe; and, extremely debilitating, I lost all ambition in life, and gave up to melancholy depression. My physician examined me, and informed me I had an abscess on the upper part of my liver and lower part of one of my lungs. Notwithstanding all this, I grew worse, but with that tenacity with which we all cling to life, I concluded to have nothing undone, and called in a consulting physician, who fully concurred with my own, and pronounced my case an extremely critical one. He thought I was in imminent danger—saying my disease "was one in which seldom if ever cured." All this time I was enduring sufferings that made life burdensome; experiencing great pain in coughing; expectorating from a pint to a quart of mucous matter every 24 hours, and gradually sinking under the weakening progress of my disease. At this stage of my illness, my friends in Bristol suggested the use of Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup, but knowing the many expedients resorted to for the purpose of draining me of the afflicted, I hesitated. My friends, however, insisting, I was prevailed upon to try its virtues. I commenced taking the Syrup about the first of March, and used several bottles before I had any confidence in it. It then began to experience a change for the better, and continued it till I had consumed ten bottles, when I was so far relieved as to be able to visit Dr. Schneck in Philadelphia. He examined me, and pronounced my right lung affected, but in a healing condition. He recommended the further use of the Syrup, which I continued till I consumed 15 bottles, and found myself once more restored to health. I will for the rest add, that the consulting physician, seeing the action of the medicine, fully approved its use.
To give the reader some idea of the severity of my case, and the rapid cure effected by the Syrup, I will state that my usual weight in health was 177 pounds, which was finally reduced by my sufferings to but 121 pounds. Yet, on the first of this month, (September,) I weighed 174 pounds, and gaining in a few months 53 pounds, and within three months of my heaviest weight. It is not in my power to convey, in the short space of this certificate, the convincing proofs of my remarkable cure, or the particulars of the agonizing afflictions through which I have passed; but to those who will take the trouble to call on me, at Bristol, opposite Pratt's Hotel, I shall take pleasure in detailing every particular.
In conclusion, I deem it my duty to urge upon every person who may have the preliminary symptoms of this fatal disease, not to delay one hour, but to call upon Dr. Schneck immediately. His skill in the treatment of this complaint, and prompt detection of diseased parts of the lungs by means of his Stethoscope, added to my own miracul'ous cure, fully satisfied me, that had I earlier submitted myself to his care, I should have escaped much suffering; but restrained by doubts and suspicion, which make us all naturally skeptical in regard to the virtues of a medicine when first introduced, I resisted its aid, until my friends till almost too late, and yielded only as a last resort, resolved to "kill or cure." To those afflicted as I have been, and again to me say, hesitate no longer, my own case is presented to you as convincing evidence, that when all else fails your last hope is in Dr. Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup. I have also for the satisfaction of those who may be strangers to me, appended to this certificate the names of gentlemen well known in the walks of public and private life, and whose standing in society admits of no cavil or doubt in regard to their testimony.
CHARLES G. JOHNSON.

We the undersigned, residents of Bristol and vicinity, are well acquainted with Mr. Johnson, and know him to have been afflicted as he states above. We also know that he used Schneck's Pulmonic Syrup, and have every reason to believe, that to this medicine he owes his preservation from a premature grave. MARRIAGE!
WHY SO OFTEN UNHAPPY?
THE CAUSES AND THE REMEDY!
MANY and many a wife endures years of bodily suffering and of mental anguish, prostrate and helpless, embittering her life, that of her husband, and hazarding the future welfare of her children, arising from causes which, if known, would have spared the suffering, the anguish to the wife, and to the husband embarrasments and pecuniary difficulties having their origin in the mind being weighed down and harassed in consequence of the sickness of the companion of his bosom.
How important that the causes should be known to every wife, to every husband, that the dreadful and harrowing consequences to the health and happiness of both may be avoided! Life is too short and health too precious to admit any portion of the one to be spent without the full enjoyment of the other. The timely possession of a little work entitled as follows has been the means of saving the health and the life of thousands, as over

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion.
BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN. Twentieth Edition. 18mo., pp. 250. Price, $1.00.
THIS WORK IS INTENDED ESPECIALLY FOR THE MARRIED, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly; the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the one in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change—can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most correct mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.
The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author (which he is permitted by the writers to publish) will attest.

SICKLY AND UNHAPPY WIVES.
Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Dayton, O. Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Editor of "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion": "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion" which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came safely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for the benefit and good advice you have so sincerely and heartily bestowed.
"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some time ago, and was in great confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and that I must probably have lost her. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy it procured to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desormeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary considerations could tempt me to neglect an undertaking so important for having been the means of imparting to the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' But for this, one another year would have passed over my head, in all probability, and I should have been in her grave, and my children left motherless."

Competence and Health.
"LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 24, 1847.
"MY DEAR SIR: I know you will have the kindness to bear with me in encroaching upon your time while I acknowledge (in behalf of myself and wife) the obligations we feel ourselves under to you in having made known to us the means of our recovery, in your most invaluable 'Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' It has been worth its weight in gold to me. If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can not but be excessively grateful for the extent to which I have through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your book through the mere curiosity I look upon it as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the mother of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me about where I was at the beginning of each year; and that only with the necessary economy, suffering with barely the necessities of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my health; I felt less capable to endure its continuance, while I made up my mind to give up my work. This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condition of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six years, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of doing any thing but the management of household affairs. Her condition arose from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would I have given had I the six years to live over again! What would I have given had I but been informed the long days and still longer nights prostrate on the bed of sickness—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.'"

DANGEROUS DELIVERIES, &c.
OBSTURCTIONS, IRREGULARITIES, &c.

How many suffer from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluvial alba (weakness, debility, or a white discharge), or from other agents for many months preceding confinement! How many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and whose lives are jeopardized during such time, will find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief!

To those just Married.—"Had I known!"
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29, 1847.
"DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, Editor of the important matter treated of in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion' some years ago, how much misery I might have escaped! I have suffered years from causes which I have since learned, without knowing what to do. I obtained a copy, and found my case treated of. I trust every female will avail herself of the information contained in its pages."
Letters are daily received of this character, unnecessary to present.
To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or perhaps hesitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being well informed of the relations contained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated.
It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly medical, and addressed to those contemplating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duty to become possessed of knowledge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, mother, or a sister, may be subjected, can be avoided.
