The Globe, by a gross personal assault on a private citizen, having "caught a tartar," is now making an attempt to drag us into the controversy.

The Globe thinks we should cox up a certain gentlemen to aid us in our editorial. We cannot appreciate the advice, for humble as our abilities may be...

LOCOFOECISM CRAWFISHING ON THE TARIFF.

Since it has been ascertained that while they elected their State ticket by over 13,000 majority, they can only show a little more than 6,900 majority in the Congressional vote, the Locofocos begin to find it expedient to curry favor with the "aristocratic Iron-masters."

Now, the first question is, can Pennsylvania Locofocism do the thing that it promises to the Iron-masters? Will the Congress of the United States single out and separate the Iron and Coal of Pennsylvania from all the other industrial interests of the country?

Agreeably to the provisions of the act to construct a Railroad to avoid the Inclined Plane, near Philadelphia, the Board of Canal Commissioners, on Saturday last week, proceeded to sell the Philadelphia and Columbia railroad, lying between Broad street and the plane, including the Schuylkill viaduct, the collector's office and the engine depot at the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Schuylkill Sixth st.

Jenny Lind's Best Song. The New York Courier speaking of Jenny Lind's concert, thus alludes to what must undoubtedly be her best song: "The notable performance of this evening was the Mountaineer's Song, which is one of the ballads which are so popular a portion of her repertoire."

The Globe editor declines giving any proof for his assertion that we caucused with Mr. Speer previous to the late election, on the ground that he fears it would injure us!

We are afraid, from the tenor of the controversy going on between the Hollidaysburg Whig and Standard, that it will end in personalities.

Railroad Sale.

The proceeds of the sale are to be appropriated to the repair of the road between the new part and Columbia, and the Commissioners have appointed E. F. Gay, Esq., to make the necessary examinations and surveys, with a view to straighten the curves and other necessary improvements.

JACKSON, NOV. 20.—Capitol Hall was thronged this evening with people, to hear the speech of Senator Foote. RESOLVED.

A Throwing Scene. The tiger scene described below occurred at Toronto a few days since: An affair occurred at our exhibition on Tuesday last, of the most intensely exciting and terrific description, and which, but for the intrepidity, daring and presence of Van Amburg, would certainly have resulted in the horrible death of our old friend, Signor Hydralgo.
