Silent influence. Silent influence. It is the bubbling spring which flows gewily, the little rividet which runs along, day and night, by the farm house, that is useful, rather than the swollen flood or warring cataract. Ningara excites our wonder and we stand amazed at the power and greatness of God there as he "poured it from the hollow of his hand." Bid tone Ningara is e-mongh for the continent, or the world, while the same world requires thousands and tens of thou-sands of silver fountains and genue flowing rivu-leis, that water every farm and meadow, and evands of silver fountains and gontle flowing riva-lets, that water every farm and meadow, and ev-ery garden, and that shall flow on every day, and every night, with their gentle, quiet beauty. So with the acts of our lives. It is not by great deeds, like those of the martyrs, that good is to be done; it is by the daily and quiet virtues of life-the Christian temper, the meak forbearance, the spirit of forgiveness, in the husband, the wife, the friend, the heighbor, that good is to be done.
