EFFECTS OT MASKING-TWO CHILDREN TER-THE TO DEATH-About three weeks since two children, belonging to a man named Brown, for-merly a water at the Globe Hotel, Exmouth, the one four, jad the other five years old, were sent by the money, who kept a mangle, after a basket of clotter, and were met on the way by some boys one of whom had on a most hideous looking mask. The boy seeing the children frightened, ran after them repeating some gibberish, which frightened the mask to another boy, who managed again to come in contact with the poor children, who returned home instantly, when their parents, seeing them so paule and trembling very much, inquired what the matter was, which they explained as well at they could. The shock, however, was so great that they never recovered, and their health declined daily. The one died three weeks after, and the other died some days later. Naw Couvrements.—Counterfeit notes are daily multiplying, carely day passing that some new and better divised fraud is not exposed. On Friday the police of Philadelphia arrested a man by the name of Daniel Tarr, and found at his house, secreted away in a bottle, eight different descriptions of counterfeits, amounting in all to some three thousand dollars. There were tens of the Northumberland Bank; tens of the Minner' Bank at Pottaville; fives of the Lehanon Bank; fives of the Bank of Delaware; fives of the Bank; of the Valley of Virginia; fives of the Harris-burg Bank; threes of the Delaware City Bank; and twos of the Farmer? Bank of Lancastar— These last named are "Relief?' issue, and the whole batch are said to be well executed. Some of the counterfeits named have been noticed be-fore, and there is scarcely a doubt that they have been widely distributed for circulation. The pub-lic, and especially small dealers, should keep a sharp lookout, as it is almost impossible for the pub-res to furnish descriptions of the many attempt-ed frauds as fast as they appear. s to furnish descriptions of the rauds as fast as they appear.

LEBANON BANK COUNTEREST.—Some fresh fives have made their appearance on this bank, but they are so wretchedly executed that the most careless examiner must detect them. The words "Lebanon Bank" are crooked.

LANCASTER BANK COUNTERFEIT.—A connter-terfeit 5 Relief issue, on the Lancaster Bank, is in circulation. The following description of it we find in Thompson's Bank Note Reporter: "55, good imitation of genuine relief notes—vignette State House with figure 5 on a medallion head each side of it—medallion head and three figure 3's on each end—some of the letters of 'Lancas-ter' touch the medallion on the letts of the vig-nette—nots on the genuine." This is a danger-ous counterfeit—look out for it.
