THE JOURNAL.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

October 7, 1851.

Mr. W. E. Haid, Esq.,

York, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by the Board of Directors of the Huntingdon Savings Bank to inform you that your letter of the 25th inst. is now at hand.

Very truly yours,

[Signature]

W. E. Haid,

President.

[Note: The text is too small to discern additional details in this page.]

Buchanan for President.

The Whigs are very much excited over the prospect of a Buchanan Administration. They believe that Buchanan will be a moderate President, who will not be too conservative in his views, and who will do what is necessary to maintain the Union.

The Democrats are equally excited over the prospect of a Democratic Administration. They believe that a Democratic President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country.

The Republicans are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Republican President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Republican President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Know-Nothings are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Know-Nothing President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Know-Nothing President will be too conservative, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Greenbacks are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Greenback President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Greenback President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Free Soil Party are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Free Soil President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Free Soil President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Anti-Masonic Party are divided in their opinions. Some believe that an Anti-Masonic President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that an Anti-Masonic President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Freeborn Democrats are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Freeborn Democrat President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Freeborn Democrat President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Know-Nothings are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Know-Nothing President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Know-Nothing President will be too conservative, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Greenbacks are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Greenback President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Greenback President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Free Soil Party are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Free Soil President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Free Soil President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Anti-Masonic Party are divided in their opinions. Some believe that an Anti-Masonic President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that an Anti-Masonic President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Freeborn Democrats are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Freeborn Democrat President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Freeborn Democrat President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Know-Nothings are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Know-Nothing President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Know-Nothing President will be too conservative, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Greenbacks are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Greenback President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Greenback President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Free Soil Party are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Free Soil President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Free Soil President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Anti-Masonic Party are divided in their opinions. Some believe that an Anti-Masonic President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that an Anti-Masonic President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.

The Freeborn Democrats are divided in their opinions. Some believe that a Freeborn Democrat President will be able to carry out the wishes of the people, and that he will be able to unite the country. Others believe that a Freeborn Democrat President will be too Radical, and that he will not be able to carry out the wishes of the people.