PORTSTOWN

Ahoad ! HENRY CORNPROBST

HENRY CORNPROBST Has just received at his "EASLN STORE" a tremendous stock of goods from Philadelphin, which he is enabled to sell at greatly reduced prices, in consequence of having purchased the same much lower than usual. His stock embraces everything required to sup-ply the wants of the comunity and consists in part of a most splendid variety of DRY GOODS. ROOTS AND SHOPS

QUEENSWARE, HARDWARE AND GROCERIES,

AND GROCERIES, AND GROCERIES, ANI of which will be sold 20 per cent, lower than similar articles can be had for in Huntingdon. Persons who have any regard for economy should give him a call, when he will take great place to save moncy. It is stock of FISH, SALT, &cc. FISH, SALT, &c. is very large, and as he has all his goods brought on in his own boats, it is reasonable to suppose that he can sell lower than anybody else. I am sincerely grateful to the community for the very liberal share of patronage I have hereto-fore received, and trist that my great reduction in prices will be the means of having it continued and grady increased. HENRY CORNPROBST. May 29, 1851.--tf.
