Eldridge's Patent Corn Sheller. The attention of the Public is invited to this improvement in Corn Shellers, which is acknowledged to be far superior to any other, being on an entirely new principle shelling the Corn lengthwise of the ear, the cob passing straight through without revolving, thereby requiring no gearing to increase its speed, which adds so materially to the cost of other machines.

NOTICE. The accounts of the late James Clark for advertising and job work, have been put into the hands of the undersigned for collection.

NOTICE. All persons having unsettled accounts with the late firm of Dorsey & Maguire are respectfully requested to call and have the same satisfactorily arranged, as they are determined to have the accounts settled without respect to persons.

NOTICE. AMAN & MARKS inform the public that they still continue to make coffins at the old stand formerly occupied by Thomas Burchinell in the rear of the Sons of Temperance Hall, fronting on Washington Street, and attend funerals either in town or country.

PHILADELPHIA ART UNION.

The Art Union of Philadelphia was established by its founders, and incorporated by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of extending throughout the American community that attachment to the fine arts which is distinctive of our refinement and civilization.

Every person subscribing five dollars becomes a member of the Art Union until the succeeding annual meeting in December. Subscribers for this year are entitled to their choice of any two of the four following splendid engravings, any one of which is fully worth the subscription price:

1. JOHN KNOX'S INTERVIEW WITH MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS. 2. RUTH AND BOAZ. 3. MEROZ'S DREAM. 4. CHRISTIANA AND HER CHILDREN.

Each subscriber also receives a copy of the Art Union Reporter, monthly, after his subscription: this should induce early subscriptions. After payment of all expenses, the balance of the funds arising from subscriptions is represented by prizes, ranging from $10 to $1000, which are distributed by lot among the members, on the last week-day in December, and are available only for the purchase of original works of American Artists.

Thus, for five dollars each member is sure of receiving two engravings which could not be purchased elsewhere with the same money, and has also the chance of obtaining a fine original painting to be selected by himself.
