Letter from the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, on the Subject of the Gorsuch Murder.

We ask the attention of the public to the subjoined letter from Thomas E. Franklin, of Lancaster, Attorney General of the Commonwealth, on the subject of the riot and murder in Lancaster county, and the letters of the Clergyman Gorsuch. No one who reads the communication, will hesitate to say that Mr. Gorsuch has acted in the most unchristian and uncharitable manner, and that Gov. Johnston did his duty in the case.—Gov. Johnston did not immediately offer a reward for the apprehension of the murderers, because rewards are never offered until the ordinary means of making arrests are exhausted. The money of the people is not to be uselessly thrown away by the Executive. It is to be judiciously used, and not lavished upon officers, whose duty requires them to act without the incentive of a reward.
 The letter of Mr. Franklin is contained in the Lancaster Tribune of the 30th of September:

LETTER OF ATTORNEY GENERAL FRANKLIN.

To the Editor of the Union and Tribune.
 Sir:—In a letter dated the 18th inst., addressed to Governor Johnston by the Rev. J. S. Gorsuch, of Washington, which the writer thought fit to publish without waiting for any reply or explanation, he assailed the Governor in the most vindictive terms, and imputed to him and to me inactivity and gross dereliction of duty in regard to the murder of his father near Christiana. In a subsequent card, dated the 25th inst., he retracts and apologizes for his charges against me, but takes occasion to re-affirm his offensive imputations upon the Governor.

I cannot consent to be placed in a different position in reference to this matter from Governor Johnston, upon consultation with whom all the steps have been taken consequent upon the lamentable affair, and in pursuance of whose suggestion I took part in the investigation. If, as the writer now acknowledges, I have proved my loyalty to the Constitution and laws, and my zeal for the vindication of public justice, the Governor is also entitled to the credit which belongs to him, of having placed it in my charge as a matter of public duty.
 The course pursued by the Rev. Mr. Gorsuch has been most extraordinary, and a reference to the dates of the transactions may afford some clue to the motives which have actuated and the influences which have prompted it.
 The murder of Mr. Edward Gorsuch took place on the morning of Thursday the 11th inst. A number of arrests having been made of persons suspected of participation in it, a hearing of the case was fixed before Alderman Reigert for Tuesday, the 16th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M. At the time appointed I appeared in behalf of the Commonwealth, prepared to assist in taking part in the investigation. The Rev. Mr. Gorsuch was then present; I was made acquainted with him; he was apprised of my connexion with the case, and I had considerable conversation with him on the subject. In consequence of the absence of witnesses, the hearing was postponed to Tuesday, the 23d. After the postponement Mr. G. went down to Christiana where he wrote a letter which has been extensively published, dated Sept. 17th, containing a pretty correct and fair statement of the facts, and giving credit to the public authorities for doing every thing necessary to bring the transaction to light and the offenders to justice. He then proceeded to his residence at the city of Washington, and there, on the next day, the 18th, imputed the letter which contains the injurious imputations I have alluded to. Whether the writer could in the meantime have acquired any additional information which could have induced the entire change of tone, temper and feeling, from that which characterized his letter of the previous day, or whether it is not more probable that he was subjected to the evil instigation of some determined and unscrupulous political enemy of the Government, I leave to the public to determine.—His publication induced no change in my course on the second hearing. From a sense of personal dignity, however I avoided as much as possible, any intercourse with the Reverend gentleman, who seemed so entirely devoid of christian feeling and to have so far lost sight of his obligations to his fellow men as that publication showed; and his retraction of the 25th inst. could not have been prompted by any thing which occurred on the second hearing. This statement will enable the public to judge of the conduct of Mr. Gorsuch and of those who have used him as an instrument in endeavoring to prejudice Governor Johnston.

THOMAS E. FRANKLIN.
 Sept. 29th, 1851.

Seth Clover and his brother Levi.

One great objection to the election of Seth Clover, is his utter incompetency.—Another is that his associations are with dishonest men. Levi who controls Seth is a great rogue. He was collector at Pittsburg a year or two ago, and is now a defaulter to the State. If Seth be elected Canal Commissioner, he will of course provide for Levi, so that the latter may have another chance to rob the public Treasury. We present below at length, the facts in the case, which we find in the Uniontown Democrat, credited to the Waynesburg Messenger—a Locofoco paper. It says:

"It appears, then, that there were some half a dozen flat or market boats that visited Pittsburg twice a week during canal navigation, running from twelve to twenty-one miles, and paying toll in proportion to the distance, and the tonnage or amount of load and number of passengers carried. These boats pass no other office, and consequently there is no check upon the Collector, so they can, at very short notice, foot it up and see the exact amount paid. Four of these captains, on being applied to, furnished certificates of the amount of toll paid by them in the year 1849, to which they hold themselves in readiness to be qualified as follows:

Capt. S. Thompson, (certificate)	$144.50
" J. Henderson, "	197.34
" Adam Reed, "	150.00
" James Boyd, "	230.00
" Wilson, (estimated)	70.00
" Cready, "	70.00
	$661.84

"Now of this $861.84 collected of these market boats, what amount will our honest readers suppose was entered on the books of the office, and paid into the coffers of the State? Why just two hundred and fifty-four dollars and fifty-five cents.

Paid to the amount collected was	$861.84
Paid to the credit of the State	254.55
Unaccounted for, the sum of	$607.29

"This would be sufficient, we suppose, but we will go a little farther with our 'testimony.' There were a couple of firms in the stone business, Messrs. J. & H. Forrester and James Earseman, who had quarries about a dozen miles above Pittsburg, and boated their stone to town by the way of the canal. They hold receipts and certify to the following payments in 1849:

James Earseman, (2 receipts)	$28.40
J. & H. Forrester,	65.50
Making the sum of	$123.90

"How much of this do the farmers of Greene county suppose was paid over to the State? Why NOT ONE CENT!!
 "Positively not one farthing of this money is accounted for on the books of the office as would have been proven if the matter had been investigated.
 "There are other facts just as glaring, that could have been produced, such as the salt boats, the iron boats, &c., which would show an astounding sum total; but we think this partial exhibit of one year out of the three will answer our purpose to day, and will satisfy all that the petitioners meant what they said when they asked the Legislature to order an investigation. Just look at the two items we have produced:
 The Market Boats show a deficiency of $607.29
 The Stone Boats " " 123.90
 Making the sum of $731.19

Here then is the proof that the brother of Seth Clover has swindled the State out of at least $731.19!! We do not hold Seth responsible for the misconduct of his brother Levi. We would not be so ungenerous. But Levi exercises a controlling influence over Seth, and would doubtless control his movements in the Canal Board. It is on account of the danger of having in the Canal Board a pliant tool of so dangerous a man as Levi G. Clover, that we present these facts. Let the people ponder over them, and then determine whether the public interests will not be best promoted by electing to this important office, Honest John Strohm, against whose competency and entire purity of character no man can utter a syllable.

"We learn from our exchanges that the prospects of the Whigs in the Western part of this State are cheering in the highest degree.—Johnston will cross the Allegheny with a majority that will completely annihilate the opposition. The news from the North and North-west is equally flattering, and Johnston's vote will be increased in many counties, while others will be completely revolutionized.—Our news is cheering and no mistake.—Keep the fire burning! Keep the ball moving!"

A Neutral Paper's Testimony About Gov. Johnston's Letter.

The Sunday Dispatch, published in Philadelphia, had in its number dated Sept. 21st, an article on the correspondence between Mr. Cadwallader and Gov. Johnston. After referring to the time and manner in which the letter was sent to the Governor, the Dispatch says:

The Governor received it with gladness. It gave him a splendid opportunity to ward off the attempted check by a very successful countercheck. He immediately prepared an answer, which was a complete "crusher." The memories of the appellants were refreshed by a recapitulation of facts. They were informed of the arrests which were made by the State authorities, and that so far from there being any insurrection, not a single person engaged in the affair was to be found standing out in opposition to the laws. The people of Lancaster county were vindicated from the imputations cast against them. Gov. Johnston requested the co-operation of the appellants in maintaining the law—and sincerely thanked them for the opportunity which they had afforded him of expressing his views. Taken all in all, the letter of the Governor is a remarkable production, a triumphant vindication of himself and the State authorities, and a perfect demolisher of the transparent device of Messrs. Cadwallader & Company.

The Dispatch continues:
 The masses of the Democratic party cannot feel very thankful to the "leaders," who so officiously undertook to misrepresent them in the "appeal." The effect of that ill-considered "State paper" have been to strengthen Gov. Johnston, in Philadelphia, AT LEAST TWO THOUSAND VOTES. The Governor has been so successful in his demolition of the "appellants" that many who were opposed to him have changed their views, in admiration of his "spunk," and are now determined to vote the whole ticket and forget their former objections. Thus has the cause of Democracy been greatly prejudiced by six or eight persons, who without any authority whatever from the party they assume to represent, have placed the Democrats in a false position. By an ill-advised and foolish movement, they have seriously prejudiced not only the gubernatorial, but the city and county ticket.

Such is the testimony of a neutral paper. Couldn't Forney, Cadwallader & Co., manufacture some more capital for Gov. Johnston? Give them rope and they will hang themselves. "Whom the Gods wish to destroy, they first make mad."

Beautiful Idea.

I cannot believe that the earth is man's abiding place. It cannot be that our life is cast up by the ocean of eternity to float for a moment on its waves and sink to nothingness! Else why is it that the glorious aspirations which leap like angles from the temple of our hearts, are forever wandering about unsatisfied? Why is it that the rainbow and the cloud come over us with a beauty that is not of earth, then pass off and leave us to muse upon their faded loveliness? Why is it that the stars who hold their festivals around the midnight throne are sent above the grasp of limited faculties, forever mocking us with their unapproaching glory? And finally, why is it the bright forms of human beauty are presented to our view and then taken from us, leaving the thousand streams of our affections to flow back in Alpine torrents upon the heart? We are born for a higher world than that of the earth; there is a realm where rainbows never fade—where the stars will be out before us, like islets that slumber on the ocean; and where the beings that pass before us like shadows, will stay in our presence forever.

GOV. JOHNSTON AT POTTSVILLE.—The Pottsville Emporium, a democratic paper, confirms the report of an outrage, at Mount Carbon, on Governor Johnston and party, in the following paragraph:

Villanous Outrage.—On Monday night last between 12 and 1 o'clock, on the arrival of Governor Johnston and a party of friends at the Mount Carbon Depot, from the meeting at Tamaqua, some miscreants taking advantage of the darkness attacked them with stones, clubs, and other missiles. A number of the gentlemen were struck and somewhat injured, though none of them, as we are much gratified to learn, seriously. It is difficult to imagine a punishment that would be adequate to so cowardly and villanous an outrage.

"Hon. David Wilmot is the regular Locofoco candidate for President Judge in the Bradford, Sullivan and Susquehanna district. We shall wait to hear all the denunciation which will be bestowed upon the Locofoco in that district, by the Pennsylvanian, for taking up so decided a "Free Soiler" as Mr. Wilmot for so important an office as President Judge.
