

THE LARGEST & BEST ASSORTMENT OF NEW GOODS, JUST RECEIVED BY

George Gwin,

At his Cheap Store in the Diamond.

GEO. GWIN respectfully informs the citizens of the borough and county of Huntingdon, that he has just received an unusually large stock of consisting of every variety of Ladies' & Gentlemen's Dress Goods, OF THE NEWEST STYLES, and all other articles in the Dry-Goods line.

FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

GROceries, QUEENSWARE, HATS and CAPS, GLASSWARE, BOOT and SHOES, HARDWARE, &c.

and in fact every variety of Goods to suit this market. Sink or swim, live or die, the survival of the fittest, I am determined not to be undersold by any establishment in this section of the country, and this is no humbug, nor is it intended to deceive. Give me a call and I will convince you that my statements are strictly true. Call and examine my stock and judge for yourselves, and without a moment's hesitation you will be convinced that I purpose meeting my pledge. My stock is constantly new and of the latest styles. I take pleasure in showing them at all times free of charge. Feeling thankful for past favors, I hope, by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same.

GEO. GWIN.

VALUABLE

TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE.

As the subscriber intends to leave town, he will sell that valuable property situated on Railroad street in the most business part of the borough near the Railroad Depot. The improvements are extensive and in the best condition—part being entirely new, and the dwelling having lately undergone thorough and convenient repairs. The dwelling house is a three story brick convenient for a large family. The adjoining building is a two story brick in front and one story and a basement back, and occupied as a bowling saloon with three alleys, a billiard saloon in the second story in front, and the first story as a refreshment room.

The above property will be sold at public sale on Wednesday the first week of November Court, if not sold at private sale before that day. The property will rent at the rate of 12 per cent. Possession of the business part will be given on confirmation of sale, and of the dwelling on the 1st of April next.

For further information and terms inquire of the subscriber.

VALUABLE PROPERTY, in Town and Country, FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers at Private Sale a BRICK HOUSE AND LOT OF GROUND, situated on the north side of hill street, and immediately opposite the Presbyterian Church, in the borough of Huntingdon—adjoining property of the Hon. George Taylor on the west, and numbered 103 in plan of said town. The house is well finished throughout—the yard contains some of the choicest fruit in the country, with a fine well of water, and the garden is of the best quality. The location is one of the most pleasant in the town—presenting an unobstructed view of the Rail Road—the canal—the river—and the surrounding scenery.

Also, a house and lot of ground situated on the south side of Hill street, and extending back to Allegheny street, in the aforesaid borough—adjoining property of Mrs. Dorland on the East and John Hildebrand Esq., on the West. The house is weatherboarded, and well finished with every convenience for a dwelling—There is also a store room and warehouse on the property, with other improvements.

Also a Farm—situated in Henderson township, about one mile from the borough of Huntingdon, adjoining lands of John McCahan Esq., and lands belonging to the heirs of Alexander Gwin Esq., dec'd., consisting of ONE HUNDRED ACRES more or less, about seventy of which are cleared and under a high state of cultivation. There is a good dwelling house, a frame bank barn, a cool spring of water, and all the necessary out buildings. The Orchard, which is about four years old, contains the most choice collection of fruit trees—and bids fair to be one of the finest in all this section of country.

Terms will be made easy to suit purchasers.—For further information inquire of the subscriber at his residence in Huntingdon.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

By virtue of authority conferred by a special act of Assembly, I will expose to public sale on Thursday, 6th November, 1851, upon the premises, in West township, Huntingdon county, the farm of the late Andrew Newell, dec'd., situate about six miles from the Pennsylvania Canal and Railroad, a short distance from the public road leading from Huntingdon to Bellefonte, and in the immediate neighborhood of Moore's and Neff's Mills. It contains and allowance, about 40 acres of which is woodland and well timbered, and is one of the best wheat farms in the valley of Shavers Creek. The improvements are a large BANK BARN 100 feet long by 40 feet deep, a large two story DWELLING HOUSE both nearly new, and a large Orchard of excellent fruit trees. There are about 30 acres of meadow; there is water in almost every field, and the whole farm is in a good state of cultivation, and under good fence.

Its vicinity to market, to school, to place of worship, to public roads, and to mills, its improvements, and the quality of the land, render it one of the most desirable farms now before the public for sale.

Terms (which will be easy) made known on day of sale.

MARGARET NEWELL, Executrix. Sept. 4, 1851.

N. B. Any information desired will be given by the Executrix on the premises, or by William Morris, or John Scott Esq's., of Huntingdon.
