V. B. PALMER

Is our authorized agent in Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore, to receive advertisements, and any persons in those cities wishing to advertise in our columns, will please call on him.

FOR THE PRESIDENCY IN 1852,

WINFIELD SCOTT, OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT IN 1852,

JAMES C. JONES, OF TENNESSEE.

In another column our friend Snyder tells the people that he has just received the largest and best stock of Clothing, &c., ever brought to this town; and that he can afford to sell a little cheaper than his neighbors.

In the language of an exchange, now that the election is over, we intend to cut the acquaintance of Polly-tics, to some extent, at least, and devote more attention to Miss-cellaneous.

THE LATE ELECTION.

The election in Huntingdon County has resulted in the triumph of the Whig ticket, except Mr. Brewster one of the candidates for associate Judge, who is defeated by eight votes. We are sorry to record this result because he is and has been an unflinching whig, together with a respectable connection, doing battle in the whig ranks.

In view of all these things the whigs of this county deserve well of the great Whig party. Although our candidate for Governor is defeated, we have the gratification to know that we nearly scared the life out of the Locofoco party; and next fall, with Gen. Scott on the track we will run them into a "wilderness of wo."

vanian took occasion to compliment the Union Whigs, as it saw proper to call them, for their effective aid in defeating their party, thus admitting that the Locofocos were not strong enough to do it.

It is also said that these men operated upon the manufacturers by telling them that if they would throw their force for Bigler, the tariff of '46 would be modified in favor of iron and coal, and the vote in the manufacturing districts is pretty strong evidence of the arrangement.

Whigs of Huntingdon County, your party has made a stupendous run, with a splendid candidate, whom treason only defeated. But "There's a good time coming, boys"—the next election will find us battling with the strong arms of giants, and locofocos will fall by thousands beneath our sturdy strokes.

OUR JUDICIAL ELECTION.

The late judicial contest in this district, on the part of our opponents, was characterized by anything else than honorable. Although they wished it to be conducted without any personal reference to the private character of their candidate, and said they could not be induced or challenged to such an issue, they nevertheless could not refrain from casting infamous aspersions on the character of Judge Taylor.

In Dublin township, on Wednesday the 1st inst., Mr. JOHN APPLEBY, Sen., in the 72nd year of his age.

DIED—In Peoria, on Sunday morning last, after a short illness, ANNIS P. eldest daughter of Capt. Thomas Baldwin, aged 16 years and 3 months.

A CARD.

The Volunteer Company entitled "Huntingdon Guards" having published a series of resolutions misrepresenting my action, as officer in command of this Brigade, in reference to the Encampment which was to have been held at Huntingdon this month, I deem it simple justice to myself to make this public statement, assured that the facts stated are known to every officer in the Brigade.

In the first place, then, no "order" was ever given by me, as "officer in command," for a parade of any kind at the time named, and, of course, I could not therefore "countermand" it.

The companies not having Tents of their own, as the law contemplates, I went to Harrisburg to borrow them from the State Arsenal, in which I did not succeed. I then proposed to quarter the volunteers in the Hotels during the parade, to which the "Huntingdon Guards," so far as I ever could learn, did not consent.

did I apprehend that the parade could not be held. I then visited the companies myself to procure their turn out, and was met by a notice passed unanimously that "under the circumstances they could not attend."

I now, in justification of myself, and without any consultation on the subject, refer in support of what I have said to Major J. G. Lightner, Major Charles Mickley, Capt. A. W. Clarkson, Capt. Ralph Crotley, and Capt. J. O. Sharrer, and to every other member of the committee, and to the members of the several companies, whether I did not throughout urge the Encampment to the best of my ability; and, in conclusion, I ask the officers and men of the "Huntingdon Guards" themselves to point to a single act wherein I discouraged the proposed encampment in any way.

GEO. W. SPEER, Brig. Gen. 4th Brigade, 14th Div.

Philo, Hall, Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Oct. 3, 1851.

Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty God to remove by death, one who in former years was an active and zealous member of the Philo L. Society, and in his after life was an honor to the association, Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of the Rev. J. Y. McGinnis we recognize the hand of that God whose judgments are unsearchable and whose ways are past finding out.

Resolved, That by this dispensation of Providence this society has been deprived of a worthy member, the world of a philanthropist, the Christian religion of a noble advocate; and his friends of all that in the son, the brother, the husband and the father could be desired.

Resolved, That in the life and character of the deceased there is set a bright example to all who would live happily and die in the hope of a blessed immortality beyond the grave.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the friends of the deceased and point them for comfort to him who, "heareth the cry of the afflicted."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and they be published in the "Presbyterian Advocate," the "Chambersburg Repository and Whig," the "Weekly News" and the "Huntingdon Journal."

TEARS FOR THE DEAD.

A REQUIEM FOR ANNIS BALDWIN. BY C.

Tears for the dead! Let us weep! let us weep, O'er the maiden's form, in its last long sleep; Kneel while the heart aches, so chill, Oh so dear, And weep in our grief for the loved one's bier.

Tears for the dead! Let us weep! let us weep, For her whom the memory for aye will keep. Let the heart bleed on, while it hears the knell Of the beautiful girl it hath loved so well.

Tears for the dead! Let us weep! let us weep, For the broken gem in our anguish deep. Let the hot tears fall while the cold damp gloom, Is withering the heart at our darling's tomb.

Tears for the dead! Yet why should we weep, O'er her pale sweet form, in its calm death sleep? Why grieve that the spirit, we worshipped here, Is born in a brighter, a sunnier sphere.

LOVE for the dead! There is light in the gloom That was breaking the heart at the maiden's tomb. A radiant angel, she waketh in Heaven, The loved she has left, to her keeping are giv'n.

LOVE for the dead! She but bade us adieu, To watch o'er and bless us, though veiled from our view.

Her low voices' music will gladden our dreams, While the smile she wore here, on the thrilled spirit beams.

LOVE for the dead! She is not far away; A GUARDIAN ANGEL, still near us she'll stay; And when our hearts lie silent and cold 'neath the pall, To her own EDEN HOME, may she welcome us all. Peoria, Sept. 29th, 1851.
