

days of calm reflection to become acquainted with the ground upon which I stand—let me take the kind advice of some active friends on the most practical course I have to adopt—let me see if there are any preparatory steps taken in favor of that cause which I have the honor to represent; and then let me have a new opportunity to expound before you my humble requests in a practical way. I confidently hope, Mr. Mayor, the corporation and citizens of the Empire City will grant me the second opportunity. If this be your generous will then let me take this for a boon of happier days; and let me add, with a sign of thanksgiving to Almighty God, that it is your glorious country which Providence has selected to be the pillar of freedom, as it is already the asylum of oppressed humanity.

I am told that I will have the high honor to review your patriotic militia. Oh, God! how my heart throbs at the idea to see this gallant army enlisted on the side of freedom against despotism—the world would be free, and you the saviors of humanity. And why not these gallant men take part in the mighty demonstration of the day, proving that I was right when I said that now-a-days even the bayonets think. Citizens of New York, it is under your protection that I place the sacred cause of freedom and independence of Hungary.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT IN 1852,

JAMES C. JONES, OF TENNESSEE.

New Advertisements.

Register's Notice, by M. F. Campbell—Proclamations, by the Sheriff—Tan-Yard for sale, by Edward Zuermer—Dental Card, by H. W. Smith—Notice to the heirs of Peter Swoope, by the Sheriff—Stray Heifer, by Matthias Miller—Religious Notice—E. S. Jones & Co., publishers of the Model Architect—Goods for the Holidays, Jewelry, &c., by Ed. Snare—Prospectus of the British Quarterly, by the American publishers, and three writs of sale, by the Sheriff, in addition to those published last week.

Graham's Magazine for January, 1852, in all its glory and beautiful as the lilies of the valley is before us. The embellishments are exquisite, consisting of the "Pet Fawn," "Art Literature and Fashion," and "Paris Fashions." Its pages are filled with choice reading matter, both in poetry and prose, from our best writers. It promises greater attractions than ever for the next year. Price $3.00 a year—the pictures are worth more than the money.

We have received the first number of "The Plow," an agricultural periodical published monthly in the city of New York, at the exceedingly low price of fifty cents a year in advance. It is devoted to the interests of agriculture, with several plates representing implements of husbandry and fine varieties of live stock. Published at 152, Fulton street, N. Y. The present number contains upwards of thirty pages.

The proprietors of the Independent Whig have bought out the Union & Tribune, Lancaster, and employed Edward M'Pherson as its editor. His efficient and able connection with the Harrisburg Daily American, is a sufficient guaranty that his new post will be well maintained.

METHODIST STATISTICS.—The minutes of the last annual Conference of the Methodist Church North, just published, state, according to the synopsis of the Christian Advocate, the total number of members in regular standing, to be 721,814—an increase of $2,132 during the last year.

Doings in Congress.

After a considerable discussion, the Senate has finally passed the following resolution—"That the Congress of the United States, in the name and in behalf of the people of the United States, give Louis Kossuth a cordial welcome to the capitol of the country." This has been the principal subject before Congress, together with its consequences—the spread of liberty throughout the world.

Mr. Foote made a speech on his compromise resolutions, but it is thought that they are uncalled for, and will not pass.—Mr. Cass offered a resolution, calling on the President for information in relation to the firing into the American ship Prometheus by the British vessel of war Express near Greytown, on the Musquitto coast, in November last, which passed the Senate. If Britain don't quit her "rusties" in that quarter we will declare war against her. She meddles entirely too much with other people's business.

The House has appointed her committees. Huston of Alabama is the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and means.—Several bills have been introduced granting lands to make railroads in sundry States. Petitions have been presented to establish a line of Steamers between California and China. There has been nothing done so far of great interest to the public.

Christiana Treason Trial.

In the case of the United States vs. Castner Hanaway indicted for treason a verdict has been rendered for the defendant. He had a fair and impartial trial and there was no show of case against him. Judge Grier laid down the law of treason, to the jury as it is, and ought to be, in fine contrast with the partial, monarchical and tyrannical doctrines given in charge to the Grand Jury by Judge Kane. He saw proper at that time to garble the constitution and leave out important words which it uses in the definition of treason, for the purpose of having bills found certainly against the prisoners. Judge Grier has done his duty faithfully in spite of the State of Maryland, who appeared in her sovereign capacity to prosecute.

British Periodicals.

We call the attention of our readers, to the advertisement, in another column, of Leonard Scott & Co., Republishers of the London Quarterly, Edinburgh, North British and Westminster Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine. These different works are republished directly after their receipt in this country from the British Press, for distribution to American readers.

The Edinburgh Review has been established for near a half century and is the exponent of the Whig party in Great Britain, and advocates with great force the inalienable rights of man. The London Quarterly Review was afterwards started to counteract its great influence. It is the organ of the Tory party and its pages are adorned with the productions of the highest British talent.

The Westminster Review is under the patronage of the ultra-liberals, and is devoted to the advocacy of the interests of the mass of people and opposed to the alliances of Church and State.

The North British Review was established in consequence of the great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, as the organ of the Anti-National-Church agitation.—Its basis is the evangelism of the Nineteenth Century. It was founded by the celebrated Dr. Chalmers.

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine is more comprehensive in the range of its subjects, including classical literature, biography, narratives historical and fictitious, poetry, critical analyses of new works. Its politics are Tory, but its pages are brilliant with genius. By arrangement with the British Publishers early sheets of the Magazine are forwarded to the American Publishers, that they can issue their reprint before the original edition arrives. These contain the popular novels of Bulwer in series, as original contributions and which appear in this magazine before being otherwise published. The serials of other distinguished writers appear in it also.

The beginning of the New year is the most suitable time to subscribe. For reduced rates of postage see advertisement. These periodicals stand at the head of the literature of the English language.

The Legislature of Kentucky have elected John B. Thompson (Whig) United States Senator for 6 years from 4th march next in place of Mr. Underwood.

The Locofocos have carried their Governor in Virginia by near 10,000 majority.

At a meeting of a number of the citizens of Barree and adjoining townships, held at the house of Samuel Coen, in Salsburg, on the 9th Dec., 1851, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That a general meeting of the inhabitants of the region of country in which a number of fires, destructive of much valuable property, have lately taken place, (supposed to have been the work of an incendiary or incendiaries) be called to devise means to put an end to this work of destruction; and that said meeting take place at the house of Samuel Coen, in Salsburg, Barree township, on Tuesday, 23d Dec., 1851, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Huntingdon Globe and Journal.

J. WALKER, Pres't.
JOSEPH GIBBONY, Sec'y.

MR. WEBSTER.—A Washington correspondent of the Boston Courier says—"Mr. Webster will not withdraw from the cabinet, as has been affirmed. The present state of our foreign relations demands his presence at Washington, and it is the desire of the prominent men of all parties that he should remain. Mr. Webster himself feels that, however desirable retirement would be to him, this is not the moment to withdraw from the government.—There is to be another "talk," if not something more serious, with the government, concerning the rights of American vessels, and particularly upon the recent firing into the steamer Prometheus at Nicaragua.

THEIVING.—This is the season for poultry stealing, one of the meanest acts next to robbing a church. The contemptible fellows who resort to this crime because they are too lazy to work for an honest livelihood, deserve to be stuck on top of the farmer's barn as a weather-cock, and be fed on nothing but stale bread. The Montgomery Ledger thinks, such men cannot have souls larger than the little end of nothing whittled down to a point.

IT IS SAID that the President has sent a naval force to Nicaragua to protect our vessels. For some time past the English have been pursuing a high-handed policy in Nicaragua, and if they pursue it further, a few round shot, and a shell from a Yankee long tom, will settle the question. The fact is there is entirely too much tameness in our authorities at Washington, to suit the times.

A SERVICE OF PLATE.—We learn that the employees on the Pennsylvania Railroad are making the necessary arrangements to present to Harman Haupt, Esq., a service of silver plate on retiring from the office of General Superintendent of the road. His resignation takes effect on the 1st of January.

IN DISTRESS.—Widow Mary Bowen, wife of the late Rev. James Bowen, of Mount Carmel, Illinois, is in great distress on account of the absence of her son, Francis Bowen. No tidings can be heard from him, although friends have been written to in all directions. His poor mother, now on the borders of the grave, would be greatly relieved to hear from him. Most of his relatives think him deceased. Newspapers generally please copy.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA.—Plenty—Coal, potatoes, fish, oysters, turkeys, chickens, and counterfeit $1 Lancaster bills. Scarce, apples, eggs, and half dollars. So says the Standard.

A letter from Washington to the New York Commercial says—I learn that Mr. R. J. Walker is to return from Europe without obtaining his proposed loan of fifteen millions."

A Western editor says that "a child was run over by a wagon three years old and cross-eyed, with pantalets on, which never spoke afterwards."

KOSSUTH is expected in Philadelphia on the 18th inst., and arrangements are being made by the City and Districts for his reception, which will doubtless be as brilliant and enthusiastic as he received at the hands of the New Yorkers.

THE entire value of capital invested in manufactures in this country is five hundred and thirty millions of dollars.—The raw material used amounts to five hundred and fifty millions. The amount paid for labor is two hundred and forty millions of dollars. The value of manufactured articles is twelve hundred and thirty millions of dollars.

The farmer whose pigs were so lean, that it took two of them to make a shadow, has been beaten by another who had several so thin that they would crawl through the crack in their pen. He finally stopped that "fun" by tying knots in their tails!

A New Wonder!

Yesterday afternoon, says the N. Y. Express, we were invited to the City Hotel, Beekman street, to witness two of the most extraordinary objects ever seen in this city or probably any where else. On entering the room, two diminutive figures met our eye,—a male and a female the first eleven, the other twelve years of age, brother and sister; the one 27½ inches high, and the other 33.—Both are exceedingly affectionate and intelligent looking. In color they are about the shade of a mulatto, with jet black hair, and as beautifully arranged as one can imagine.—They are agile to a wonderful degree, and are celebrated for the great perfection of their muscular powers. In general appearance they differ from anything claimed to be human ever seen before. Some of the bystanders express the opinion that they were a species of monkey, that had the advantage of a refined education; and others again were inclined to the belief that they were the progeny of degraded Africans. But little observation, however, is necessary to convince one that they are neither the one nor the other.—What they really are, we may state in a few words,—a couple of children from the mysterious city of Iximaya, in Central America, a city mentioned by Stevens, and recently explored by two daring travellers, Mr. Henstis of Baltimore, and Mr. Hammond of Canada, both of whom sacrificed their lives in this extraordinary enterprise. These children, it is said, belong to the ancient sacerdotal caste of Kaanas, or Hagan Mimes; and their faces bear a perfect resemblance to the rude sculptures upon all Aztec and ancient Egyptian monuments, the line from the top of the head to the tip of the nose being perfectly straight. The race is Lilliputian in stature, three feet being the average height. An account of these wonderful creatures, in the Mirror, says:

"The female, after hopping upon the table to show herself off, ran to her nurse's arms and fell to caressing her very lovingly. They were neatly dressed in black tights and tunics, with a few ornaments peculiar to their country. They are said to be orphans, and were obtained by Senor Velasquez, one of the party of adventurers, through the agency of a priest; and the object of the proprietor is to exhibit them as Ethnological curiosities throughout the world. How they slipped through Barnum's fingers is a mystery that cannot be explained, except on the presumption that the great Showman is already sated with his gains. If what we have written of these little half human descendants of the ancient priests of Iximaya, has excited the 'bump of the marvelous' in the heads of our readers, we can only assure them that to see these wonders we have attempted to describe, will excite them still more.

"The city of Iximaya has had no knowledge or intercourse with the world for four thousand years, the party of Velasquez being the first ever known to have left it alive. It has a population of about 85,000, is surrounded by a wall 60 feet high, and is built in the form of a parallelogram, four miles long and three wide. The Kana children are supposed to be the descendants of Pagan Priests, who emigrated from Assyria five thousand years ago. A genealogy like this may startle the Professional Theologian; but every revelation of science bears witness to the eternity of matter, and compels us to interpret the 'six days of Creation' with a liberality untaught in our schools, or dreamed of in our philosophy."

THE GREAT BRITISH QUARTERLIES AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

Important Reduction in the Rates of Postage!

Premiums to New Subscribers!!

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,

No. 54, Gold street, New York,

Continue to publish the following British Periodicals, viz.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative),
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig),
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church),
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal),

AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Penultimate Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, has to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase notwithstanding the competition they encountered from American periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Editions and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.
