

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH. Kentucky Whig State Convention—the Presidency.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 25.—The Kentucky Whig State Convention, met at Frankfort yesterday, but the attendance was not large. The Convention passed a series of resolutions endorsing the compromise measures of the last Congress, and recommending to the Whig National Convention, the nomination of Millard Fillmore for the Presidency. The Convention selected electors, and also appointed delegates to the Whig National Convention, at the same time recommending that it should be held in Louisville.

The Louisville Courier of this morning, comes out strongly for Gen. Scott for the Presidency, and James C. Jones, of Tenn., for Vice President, contending that ticket will win, while Mr. Fillmore will be defeated, and is not content even of carrying Kentucky.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 25.—The delegates to the Whig State Convention contend that it was not intended that Mr. Fillmore should be recommended to the Whig National Convention for the Presidency by that body. The matter was fully discussed in the Convention, and a compromise was finally effected, by agreeing to a resolution simply endorsing Mr. Fillmore's course as President. The resolution was adopted as follows:

Resolved, That Millard Fillmore, treading as he has done in the foot-steps of Washington, both in his strict observance of good faith towards foreign nations, at the same time that he has promptly asserted and maintained our own rights, and taking care that the laws should be all faithfully executed at home, has entitled himself to the gratitude and confidence of the people of the United States, as a wise Statesman of such approved prudence, experience, firmness and wisdom as would unite the entire Whig vote of Kentucky."

Opening of the Pennsylvania Canal.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 24.—The Canal Board at their meeting this morning, passed a resolution for opening the Canals on the 12th of March. The following is an extract from the journal:

Resolved, That the Supervisors on the Main Line of Canal be directed to open their respective divisions for navigation on the 12th of March.

Destructive Fire in Vermont—Seven Locomotives Destroyed.

NORTHFIELD, Vt., Feb. 26.—A destructive fire occurred here last evening, destroying the machine shop, engine house and seven locomotives, belonging to the Vermont Central Railroad Company. The engine house, recently erected, was saved. The building was insured at Montpelier. The locomotives destroyed have been in use from one to four years. The business of the road will not be interrupted by the calamity. The loss to the company is estimated at $50,000.

MILNWOOD ACADEMY.

The summer session of this Institution will commence on the last Wednesday of April, and will continue five months. There will be no intermission in July as heretofore. It is important that students come before Wednesday, as it is our rule to begin the exercises of the school punctually on that day.

The terms are very low; the whole expense, including board, washing, tuition, &c., not exceeding $45 per session. Catalogues containing particulars can be had by addressing: J. H. W. McGINNIS, Principal. Shade Gap, March 4, 1852.—6w.

EXHIBITION.

The semi-annual exhibition of the students of Milnwood Academy will take place on Tuesday the 30th of March. The exercises will commence at 1 o'clock P. M. The anniversary address to the Literary Societies will be delivered on the same day at 10 o'clock A. M.

The parents and friends of the students particularly, and all interested in the Institution, or in the cause of education generally, are respectfully invited to attend. J. H. W. McGINNIS.

PETITION.

To the Honorable the Judges of the court of Quarter Sessions of Huntington county at April Session 1852: The petition of Joseph Forrest of the borough of Petersburg in the said county, respectfully sheweth that he continues to occupy in the said borough, that large and commodious house, now and heretofore occupied by him as a house of public entertainment, and is desirous of continuing to keep a public house there. He therefore prays the court to grant him a license to keep a public house at the place aforesaid for the ensuing year. JOSEPH FORREST.

March 4, 1852. The subscribers citizens of the borough of Petersburg in the county of Huntington certify, that the Inn or tavern, proposed to be kept by the said Joseph Forrest at the place aforesaid is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers, and that the said Joseph Forrest is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

Shirleysburg Female Seminary.

The Summer Term of this institution will commence on the first Tuesday of May. The Seminary buildings are good, and delightfully situated in the peaceful and pleasant village of Shirleysburg; and possess ample grounds for pleasure and exercise.

This Institution has been in successful operation since last fall, and is designed to be permanent. The Principal and Trustees are determined that every thing shall be done, which is required to make it compare favorably with similar institutions of a high order.

The year is divided into two sessions of 29 weeks each, eleven weeks constituting a quarter. TERMS.—Boarding and Lodging $1.50 per week. Tuition $4.00 and $5.00 per quarter. Instruction in Latin, French, Work, Painting and Drawing; together with Latin and French, a separate charge.

No deduction in charge except in case of sickness. It is very important that those who intend entering the Seminary the coming term, should be present the first day of the session.

J. CALDWELL, Principal. Shirleysburg, March 4, 1852.—1st may.

WM. B. ZEIGLER, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Huntington, Feb. 26, 1852.

PETITION.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Huntington, the petition of Isaac Ashtohu respectfully sheweth:

That your petitioner occupies a commodious house situated in the village of Cassville, in the township of Cass and county aforesaid, which is well calculated for a public house of entertainment and from its neighborhood and situation is suitable as well as necessary for the accommodation of the public, and the entertainment of strangers and travellers. That he is well provided with stabling for horses and all conveniences necessary for the entertainment of strangers and travellers. He therefore respectfully prays the Court to grant him a license to keep an Inn or public house of entertainment there; and your petitioner will pray, &c. ISAAC ASHTOH. Feb. 26, 1852.

We the undersigned citizens of the township of Cass aforesaid, being personally acquainted with Isaac Ashtohu, the above named petitioner, and also having a knowledge of the house for which the license is prayed, do hereby certify that such house is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers or travellers; that he is a person of good repute for honesty and temperance, and that he is well provided with house room and conveniences for the lodging and accommodation of strangers and travellers. We therefore recommend him for a license agreeably to his petition. Isaac Heifner, A. W. Clarkson, P. D. Stevens, N. Miller, John S. Gehreit, H. L. Brown, Robert Speer, Andrew Park, Lemuel Green, George Merley, Isaac Brumbaugh, Lewis Stever, Benj. Fink, Jacob Gehreit.

FARM & SAW-MILL AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned will sell that tract of land situate in Jackson township, Huntington county, adjoining lands of Martin Orady, James Duff, A. G. Curtin, John McCahan, and land lately owned by William Magill, containing TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY ACRES and allowance, now occupied by John L. Walker with one good frame house, plastered in the inside, with a fountain of pure, soft and very cold water running at the door, one log house suitable for a tenant house, a squared log barn with a single roof, a good saw-mill and other buildings thereon erected. Fifty or sixty acres of said land are cleared and under fence and in a good state of cultivation and nearly all the balance can be cleared and cultivated. A considerable portion of the uncleared part is bottom land of as good quality as can be found in the county. The tract also contains a good limestone quarry. The saw-mill is turned by the east branch of Stone Creek, a never failing stream which is used seven miles above to drive Greenwood Furnace, and is about three or four miles from the main branch of Stone Creek, which is a navigable stream emptying into the Juniata at Huntington. The property is situated near the base of Stone Mountain, which affords an unequalled range for cattle. There is timber enough on the property to pay for it two or three times over. An undoubted title will be given. Terms to suit the purchaser. J. SEWELL STEWART. Huntington, Dec. 4, 1851.
