JOHN REDD, Auditor. March 4, 1852.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY, SS.

The Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Pennsylvania, to the widow and heirs of Simon Smalley late of Shirley township, Huntingdon county, dec'd.—Greeting:

On the petition of Peter Etnery, and Elizabeth Etnery, formerly Elizabeth Smalley, a legatee under the will of Lewis Smalley, late of Shirley township, dec'd., of an Orphan's Court of Huntingdon at November term 1851, a citation was granted on the widow and legal representatives of said dec'd., to come into said Court, and show cause why the real estate devised to the said Simon Smalley, dec'd., by the last will and testament of Lewis Smalley, dec'd., should not be sold for the payment of one third of the legacy, bequeathed to the Petitioner (Elizabeth Etnery) by the last will and testament of Lewis Smalley, dec'd., or why the payment of said legacy should not be enforced, and whereas the said citation was returned to the present Term, by the Sheriff of said county, stating that the parties named in said writ, was not in his bailwick. Whereupon, on motion of William P. Orbison, Esq., the Court awarded an alias citation, on the said parties, and directed the same to be published in one paper published in Huntingdon county. All persons interested are hereby notified to come into said Court on Monday the 12th day of April next, and show cause if any you have, and abide the order and decree of said Court.

WM. B. ZEIGLER, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Huntingdon, Feb. 26, 1852.

To the heirs and legal representatives of PHILIP SHULTZ, late of the borough of Huntingdon, deceased.

In pursuance of a writ of Partition or valuation issued out of the Orphan's Court of Huntingdon county, I will hold an inquest to make partition of the real estate of which Philip Shultz dec'd. was seized, situated in Henderson township, Huntingdon county, on the premises, on Saturday the 27th day of March 1852, when and where all persons interested may attend.

WM. B. ZEIGLER, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Huntingdon, Feb. 26, '52.—4t

Valuable Real Estate AT PUBLIC SALE.

In pursuance of an order of the Orphan's Court of Huntingdon county will be exposed to Public Sale, on the premises, on Saturday the 20th day of March, 1852, the undivided interest (being the one third) of Anabel Vandevander, a minor child of Abraham Vandevander, late of Brady township, dec'd. in the following real estate, viz:

A certain plantation situate on both sides of the Pennsylvania Canal, and of the Pennsylvania Railroad Road, about seven miles East of the borough of Huntingdon, and two miles East of the Village of Mill Creek, in Brady township, bounded by the lands of Gen. James Irvin on the East, the Juniata river on the South, land of James Etnery on the west, and land of Andrew Wise, on the north, containing about Two Hundred Acres, more or less, having thereon a two story log house and kitchen, a large frame barn, with stone stabling underneath, a wagon shed and corn cribs, a stone spring house, a smoke and drying house, a cider mill and press, and other improvements. About seventy acres of this land is cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and a considerable portion of the residue is well timbered.

TERMS OF SALE.—One third of the purchase money to be paid on the confirmation of the sale. One third thereof in one year thereafter, with interest, and the remaining one third at and immediately after the death of the widow of said dec'd., the interest of which third payment to be paid to the said widow, annually and regularly during her life, the whole to be secured by the bonds and mortgage of the purchaser. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, attendance will be given by JACOB MILLER, Guardian &c. N. B. At the same time and place, the interest of the undivided one third and other heirs of said dec'd., will be exposed to sale, upon the terms above stated, and upon confirmation of the said minors interest we will join with the said Guardian in a Deed, conveying the whole of said land.

FARM & SAW-MILL AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned will sell that tract of land situate in Jackson township, Huntingdon county, adjoining lands of Martin Orady, James Duff, A. G. Curtin, John McCallan, and land lately owned by William Magill, containing and allowance, now occupied by John L. Walker with one good frame house, plastered in the inside, with a fountain of pure, soft and very cold water running at the door, one log house suitable for a tenant house, a squared log barn with a shingle roof, a good saw-mill and other buildings thereon erected. Fifty or sixty acres of said land are cleared and under fence and in a good state of cultivation and nearly all the balance can be cleared and cultivated. A considerable portion of the uncleared part is bottom land of as good quality as can be found in the county. The tract also contains a good limestone quarry. The saw-mill is turned by the cast branch of Stone Creek, a never failing stream which is used seven miles above to drive Greenwood Furnace, and is about one and three fourth miles from the main branch of Stone Creek, which is a navigable stream emptying into the Juniata at Huntingdon. The property is situated near the base of Stone Mountain, which affords an unequalled mngre for cattle.

TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY ACRES

There is timber enough on the property to pay for it two or three times over. An undoubted title will be given.
