Scott, Who off to Victory Led!

AIR—"Scott who has won" Wallace bled."

BY JOE HAINTRIGGER.

Scott, who for his country bled,
Scott, who ne'er from duty fled,
Scott, who off to victory led,
He shall still our chieftain be!

Trust to him in danger's hour;
Should the scheme of traitors pour,
He will baffle all their power—
Speed our glorious destiny.

Scott, who for his country bled, &c.

Who would not reward the brave?
Forth! your country's credit save—
Honor him who honor gave—
On with Scott to victory!

Scott, who for his country bled, &c.
From the fame of Chippewa,
Queenstown Heights, Niagara,
Old Fort George, and Florida,
"See the conquering hero comes!"
Scott, who for his country bled, &c.

By the fields of Mexico,
Covered with our country's foe,
He has scattered, or laid low:
On with Scott to victory!

Scott, who for his country bled,
Scott, who ne'er from duty fled,
Scott, who off to victory led,
He shall still our chieftain be!

WASHINGTON, June 8, 1852.

Campaign Song.

TESE—"Pieayune Butler."

Say, have you heard the swelling sound
That rushes from our northern bound
It's mighty peal fills every blast
The Loco-focos stand aghast.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling and a rolling
And the Chippewa Ball is a rolling on
Hurra, Hurra, Hurra, Hurra,
The Chippewa Ball is a rolling and a rolling
And the Chippewa Ball is a rolling on.

Fort George's standard breaks to smash
Beneath Old Winfield's sturdy slash
And England's flag now drapes the ground
Where it so lately flapped around.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

Niagara's tide cannot outrout
The bursting thunders on her shore
By cannon's flash, the shining blade
Of Lumley's Hero is displayed.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

His lofty plume is bathed in light
That dances in the awful fight
He's in a fuss with conquering eye
And makes the British feathers fly.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

He fought for thousands of his here
Ere we could hurl the deadly spear
We'll pay him for the blood he lost
Repelling the invading host.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

The people say they will reward
The wielder of the blazing sword
Who strove with bravest rank and file
To drive the red-coats from our soil.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

Unnumbered thousands boldly say
They'll give their votes for Chippewa
Old Lundy wastes the Loco group
They smelt the powder in his soup.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

Come on and "lag" not by the way
Ye merry friends of Chippewa
There is no fight in Franky Pierce
You'll make him faint by looking fierce.

The Chippewa Ball is a rolling, &c.

MR. WREED, in a letter from Rome, thus explains the affair of the American who would not take off his hat to reverence the Pope: "There was an unpleasant occurrence in front of St. Peter's yesterday. When the pope was about to pronounce the benediction, a French officer ordered Mr. Jones, of New York, to take off his hat, Mr. J. refused, and the officer knocked it off, for which he struck the officer with his cane. The officer struck back with his sword, cutting Mr. J. slightly in the hand, who returned another blow with his cane. By this time he was taken in charge by troops and carried to prison. Information was taken to Mr. Cass, our Minister, who immediately went to the authorities and after two or three hours delay, procured his release. The chap had probably forgotten the old maxim "When in Rome do as the Romans do."

DR. HOOGLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—That this medicine will cure liver complaint and dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases; it acts as a specific upon the liver, and calomel prostrates the system—the liver strengthens and never prostrates the patient, and give renewed life and health to the delicate invalid, and restore the liver to its functions, and give digestion and appetite to those severe cases wherein the ordinary medicines fail in producing any effect.

DIED.

In Altoona, Blair co., on the 30th ult., JAMES HIRST, son of Jeremiah and Caroline Belman, aged 2 years 9 months and 5 days.

CAUTION!

Whereas my Wife, CATHERINE, has left my bed and board without any just cause or provocation, I hereby caution all and every person, and the public in general, against harboring or trusting her on my account in any way, manner, or consideration, as I am determined to pay no debt or debts of her contracting, nor of any other acting for her.

MARRIAGE, HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY IS IT?

That we behold many families, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and ailments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, buoyancy of spirits, and happy serenity of mind, arising from a condition of health, should be predominant.

Many of the causes of her sufferings at first—perhaps years before, perhaps during the first year of marriage—were in their origin so slight as to pass unnoticed, and of course neglected.

IN AFTER YEARS.

When too late to be benefited by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our ignorance.

What would we not give to possess, in early life, the knowledge we obtain in after years? And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING

To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—better still—undiscovered, forever

WIFE AND MOTHER

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (with in the reach of all) which would spare to herself

YEARS OF MISERY.

And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence which his exertions are entitled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS

By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands. In view of such consequences, no wife or mother is excusable if she neglects to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosperity to her husband, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies, with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled
