A Great Whig Mass Meeting will come off at Harrisburg on Friday, the 20th inst. A host of Scott men are preparing to go from Old Huntingdon.

Divine service may be expected on Thursday evening next at 7 1/2 o'clock, in St. Johns Episcopal Church.

BURGLARY. On Friday night of last week the Clothing Saloon of our worthy townsman, Jacob Snyder, was entered by some villains who carried off upwards of three hundred dollars worth of coats, pants, vests, and smaller articles. The robbery was discovered early on Saturday morning; and though active efforts were immediately made to ferret out the rascals, no clue has yet been obtained either of them or the stolen goods. There were no peculiar marks on any of the articles except some figured silk vests and black silk handkerchiefs, the former of which were marked inside, the cost mark in large letters, and retail price in large figures below, well done; the handkerchiefs were marked with a lead pencil, $2,624, in small figures which would not be noticed without close inspection. The affair has created considerable feeling in our quiet community, and a liberal reward has been offered for the recovery of the goods and apprehension of the robbers.

P. S. After the above was in type, we learn that a portion of the stolen articles, six coats and one pair of overalls, were found secreted in a hay-mow below town. They were carefully packed in a box stolen from a store in town.

The editor of the Globe says "he is authorized to pronounce" our charge that he hired out his editorial columns at five dollars a square for the purpose of attacking one of his neighbors, as well as our other charges—"base fabrications and their author a liar." He don't deny the charge, for he knows as well as we do that it is true; but he skulks a denial by saying he is AUTHORIZED to pronounce us a liar.—Who authorized you? You certainly don't do it on your own knowledge.

We are sincerely sorry to learn that William Searight, the Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner, is dead. His disease was chronic diarrhea, under which he had been laboring for many weeks.

Our Ticket. We this week present the full ticket to be supported by the Whigs of Huntingdon County at the next election, from President of the United States to County Auditor.—The Congressional Conference which met at the Summit, in Cambria County, last Friday, has presented the name of JOHN McCULLOCH, of Petersburg, for Congress, a gentleman, who has been an undeviating Whig, and who commands the esteem and confidence of the party and a large circle of acquaintances.

The County Convention, as will be seen by the proceedings, have put in nomination the following persons: Col. SAMUEL S. WHARTON, of the borough of Huntingdon, for Assembly. He has been long and favorably known in the county, and a consistent and uniform supporter of Whig men and measures. We bespeak for him the cordial support of his fellow Whigs.

JAMES L. GWIN, is the candidate for Assembly presented by Blair county, whose name together with Col. Wharton's is before the Whigs of Huntingdon county for their support. He is well known in Blair county as a consistent Whig. We ask the undivided support of the party in this county for him as well as his worthy co-candidate Col. Wharton.

SAMUEL WIGTON, of Franklin township, is the candidate for County Commissioner. This is an important office, in which all the people in the county are interested, and Mr. Wigton is well qualified to fill it. He is a man of good and safe business habits and strict integrity of character. No better selection could have been made for this office, and none that would command a more hearty support.

JOHN BREWSTER, of Shirley township, is the candidate for Director of the Poor. He is a man, in whose hands that important branch of the county business will be safely lodged. He is possessed of eminent business qualifications and will attend to public, as faithfully as he does to his private affairs. He is possessed of enlarged views and has succeeded in life by thrift and economy.

RALPH CROTSLEY, of Cass township, is the candidate for County Auditor, an important but not lucrative office. He is a farmer possessed of a more than ordinary share of intelligence, and will perform the duties of the office to public satisfaction.

We have understood that there is an attempt being made to get up a guerilla candidate for the legislature. The locofocos are busily engaged hunting and making splits into which to drive their own wedges. Several trig gentlemen of this town are trying their hands at it—but we hope every Whig in the county will promptly denounce it as destructive to their organization and inauspicious for the interests of Gen. Scott. If the party preserve its unity and shall frown down every attempt to throw discord and disorder into its ranks our presidential candidate will have such a majority, the like of which was never known in the county. We have the very best reason for saying that Gen. Scott's majority will considerably exceed that of Gen. Taylor.

We know the nominations were fairly made, and no one having the success of our presidential candidate at heart, will lend himself to either defeat or cripple the ticket.

The Whigs of Iowa have elected both Congressmen, and a majority of the Legislature. In North Carolina, the Democrats have carried their Governor, but the Whigs will have a majority of two on joint ballot in the Legislature. Both these States may now be considered certain for Scott and Graham.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening last, ag Messrs. F. B. Wallace, W. Glasgow, D. P. Gwin were training a couple of spirited colts, belonging to Esquire Wallace, to run in the carriage, the animals became unmanageable, broke the lines, and ran furiously up the Warm Spring road, leaving the hind-carriage at the first breaker above town. We are sorry to hear that our friends, Gwin and Glasgow, were considerably injured in jumping from the carriage, which was uncoupled, upset, and much broken. The horses, after running more than a mile, with the fore-carriage, left the road, became entangled in the woods, and were found unhurt, by persons in pursuit. The Squire, though a staunch Pierce man, came off "scott free."

Scott Boys, Hurra!

The Chippewa Glee Club will meet at the usual place on Thursday evening, to discourse sweet sounds, and transact other interesting business. Full attendance is desirable. By order of the President. D. H. HUYETT, Sec.

Incidents in the Life of Gen. Scott. The man who can rise from the perusal of the following incidents in the life of Gen. Scott, and the pages of history which detail the thrilling particulars and glorious results of his laborious and brilliant services, and yet doubt his genius, ability, integrity, and devotion to his country, must be so blinded by party prejudice, or the hope of public plunder, as to deaden in his bosom every sentiment of gratitude common to our nature, and darken both his intellectual and moral vision to all that is great or good.

For the Journal. Messrs. ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

A large and enthusiastic Whig meeting was held in the Court House, in Huntingdon, on Tuesday evening the 10th August inst., to respond to the County and National Whig nominations, when the following persons were chosen officers, viz: J. M'WILLIAMS, President. J. H. STONEBRAKER, CHAS. MICKLEY, S. REED, J. GREENLAND, BENJ. BEARS, ESQ., JAS. MILLER, and JOHN M'PHERAN, Vice Presidents. D. Blair, Esq., Jno. C. Watson, Jno. Hudson, and J. A. Africa, Secretaries.

On motion a Committee of 20 be appointed to report Preamble and Resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, to wit:—S. L. Glasgow, James M'Ilroy, J. Dysart, Dr. J. Ashcom, Dr. H. L. Brown. Daniel Logan, John Dean, John W. Matern, Daniel Womelsdorf, Brice X. Blair, John Garner, Robert Madden, T. T. Cromwell, Esq., Jacob H. Dell, Elias Wilson, S. Wigton, Col. John Foster, James Entreklin, and John Shaffer.

The Committee appointed for the purpose, returned and introduced Col. Corny, who responded in an able speech. Dr. J. D. Wintrobe next was called on and addressed the meeting. John Williamson, Esq. next addressed the meeting. Col. S. S. Wharton was then called in, who entertained the meeting in an able argumentative speech.

The Huntingdon Minstrels then entertained the meeting with a song. The Committee on resolutions reported the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in Gen. Winfield Scott, our candidate for President, we present to the American people a Hero who never lost a battle, a Statesman who never made a blunder; a Pacifist who never failed in his embassies of peace, and a Philanthropist who, neither in war or peace, ever forgot the duties of humanity. Resolved, That we can and will elect him President of the United States. Resolved, That William A. Graham, our candidate for Vice President, is a true Man and a true Whig, of the gallant old North State which for three successive Presidential elections has rolled up her majority of thousands for the Whig Candidates, and will do so again next November. Resolved, That in Joseph Buffington, our candidate for Supreme Judge in Pennsylvania, is a Jurist of high legal attainments and pure moral character, and one who will fill with credit to himself and the State, the place made vacant by the death of the popular and humane Coulter. Resolved, That in our candidate for Canal Commissioner, Jacob Hoffman, we have a man alike distinguished for integrity, capacity and sterling consistency; and one that may secure the support of judicious reflecting men of all parties. Resolved, That in the death of Henry Clay, that great patriot and profound statesman, whose sublime eloquence floated across this Continent in swelling strains inspiring every heart to noble deeds, the Whig party, and all sincere, consistent lovers of freedom, have lost the brightest star in the galaxy of existing greatness, and the truest and most devoted friend of our country's welfare that ever trod God's green earth since the days of Washington; that we believe he did more to give dignity to labor, advance the interests of the poor man, and develop the nature of our Republican institutions, than any other statesman of the age—that we reflect on his departure from our midst with feelings of deep sorrow, and regret that we have none to take his place in the councils of the nations—that we will ever cherish his memory with liveliest sensations of gratitude, and suffer our affections to cluster unceasingly around his grave. Resolved, That as a Statesman of profound intellectual capacity and extended views of American policy, and as a patriot of unimpeachable sincerity and honesty of purpose, ex-Gov. Wm. F. Johnston has no superior in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. His valuable services to the State, whilst her Chief Executive, and his sincere devotion to her interests should never be forgotten by any one who loves and desires her prosperity—that we believe he is, as he always has been, warmly and devotedly attached to the Constitution of his country with all its enactments, provisions, and compromises, and that distinguished and deserving honors from his friends and the country are in wait for him. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to give to the Ticket this day nominated, our united, our determined and hearty support. [Signed.]

It should be universally known—for it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptic! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoodland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alternative, cathartic, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. General depot, 120 Arch street.—We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above.—Philadelphia City Item.
