The editor said, Dee. 22nd

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Livet Complaint, Jaundiee, Dysapesia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thonsands, and a friend at our elbow says he had himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in tast and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

TAKE PAINTICULAR NOTICE.—Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep and if not curred renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents should be statched from all prospects and enjoyments of his by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret labit.—Such persons before contemplating.

MARKHAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisitists to promote connubial happiness. "If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

who are at all indisposed, to give a rial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the also throe years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be esablished, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this Medicine will care Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomed in all bilions discases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

FEPSIN is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastrie Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines, It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastrie Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a Complete and Perfect Substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Deblity, Emachation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of thegrave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable.
