It is again our pleasant privilege to acknowledge, the kind attention of a number of our subscribers who have called with us and made settlements or sent us money since the Court. We hope the good work will go on, at least until all arrears on the old books are settled. Persons calling when we are absent, will be waited on by our accommodating foreman, Mr. Nash, who is authorized to make contracts for work, receive money, and give receipts.

Aughwick Collegiate School.

This Institution, announced in another column, is under the immediate care of Mr. J. H. Campbell A. M., a young gentleman of prepossessing manners, and evidently desirous to honor his high vocation. We have enjoyed the pleasure of an interview with professor Campbell, and being pleased with his views of Education and the proper means of promoting it, we commend his enterprise, as we have all similar ones, to the favorable notice of our readers.

SCHOOL JOURNAL.

This excellent periodical has just paid us its welcome monthly visit. It abounds in interesting and highly important information on the great question of Common School education. No Board of Directors should be without this invaluable publication;—no Teacher, that wishes to rank high in his profession, or leave any enduring impress of his labors on the community he serves, will deny himself the advantages to be derived from the perusal of this and similar educational works.

Shirleyburg Seminary.

We are pleased to learn that this Institution under the care of Rev. James Campbell, is in a very flourishing condition, having nearly thirty pupils, with a promise of largely increased patronage at the opening of the next session. For particulars, see advertisement in another column.

The Chippewa Club will meet at Capt. Carmon's on Saturday evening next. George A. Coffey Esq., of Hollidaysburg will be in attendance to deliver an address. We request our friends to turn out in force. Mr. Coffey is an eloquent speaker and we ask for him a full attendance.

Our Candidate for Congress.

Of Dr. McCULLOCH, the nominee, we will only say now, that he is a gentleman of fine education, of strong practical common sense, of undisputed integrity, of plain and unassuming address, with a kind heart and liberal mind; and that he is one of the most sterling whigs alive; ever true, active and efficient. At his own home amongst his neighbors, he is highly esteemed and much beloved, and in his county at large, enjoys a high degree of popularity. His only drawback is that he is not a public speaker; but this will hardly be regarded a very serious objection when it is remembered that speccifying in Congress has grown into an abuse, and that talkative members are continually wasting their own time and the time of the House with their too often slang harangues for 'Buncombe,' which should be devoted to the preparation and enactment of wise and wholesome laws. In conclusion, we command the Doctor to the united, cordial and zealous support of the Whigs of the entire district, and trust that they will roll up for him such a majority as will tell for SCOTT in November.—Hollidaysburg Reg.

Our Legislative Candidates.

The nomination of JAMES L. GWIN Esq. of Blair, and Col. S. S. WHARTON of Huntingdon county, so far as we can learn, meets with the unanimous approval of the Whigs of Blair, and will be ratified by the district with a large majority. The importance of sending good men to the Legislature, cannot be too highly estimated by the citizens of this Commonwealth, and we feel satisfied that with GWIN and WHARTON as our Representatives from this district, our wants will be cared for, and the interests of the Whig party properly guarded.—They are deserving of our united and enthusiastic support, and we hope no Whig will be found in opposition to them. Let us stand firm and united—all pull together, and our enemies will be compelled to acknowledge their utter defeat before the day of trial comes.—Blair County Whig.

Woodward's Hostility to Foreigners.

The Locofoco press teems with abuse of Gen. Scott for having at one time written a letter in favor of Native Americanism, and for having subsequently changed his views and renounced the opinions therein expressed. And yet these same journals float at the head of their Pierce and King electoral ticket the name of GEORGE W. WOODWARD, who, in the Reform Convention, moved to instruct a Committee to report a clause to amend the Constitution so as to prevent any foreigners, who might arrive in this State after the 4th of July, 1841, from acquiring the right to vote or to hold office in this Commonwealth. He not only offered such a resolution but made a speech in its favor which may be found in the debates of the Convention, and from which we make the following extract:

Sir, I appreciate as much as any man living, the many political rights and privileges which I, in common with the people of the United States, are now enjoying; but it is my honest impression, that we do but squander those privileges in conferring them upon every individual who chooses to come and claim them. He knew that a great portion of those who came among us from foreign countries, consist FREQUENTLY of the WORST part of the population of those countries, that they are UNACQUAINTED with the VALUE of those privileges, and that, therefore, they DID NOT KNOW how to value them. In thus conferring them indiscriminately upon all, we are doing injury to our liberties and our institutions; and I believe that, if the time has not come, it will SPEEDILY, when it will be indispensably necessary either for this body, or for some other body of this State, or of the United States, to inquire whether it is not right to put some plan into execution by WHICH FOREIGNERS SHOULD BE PREVENTED FROM CONTROLLING OUR ELECTIONS, AND BROW BEATING OUR AMERICAN CITIZENS AT THE POLLS.

Such were the opinions, freely and publicly expressed, by George W. Woodward in 1837, who now heads the Locofoco electoral ticket, holds a commission as Judge of the Supreme Court from Gov. Bigler, and has just been nominated as the candidate for that office. Does he still entertain those views? If not, why then not abuse him in the same style as they abuse Gen. Scott for changing his? Perhaps the Pennsylvanian can explain.—News.

Who is Gen. Scott?

Lest our Locofoco friends should be in a quandary to know who this Gen. Scott is, whose name is now ringing through the country as the Whig candidate for the Presidency, we give, says the Reading Journal, for their especial information, a list of the battles and brilliant victories of which he was the hero, viz:

QUEENSTOWN HEIGHTS,
FORT GEORGE,
FORT MATILDA,
FORT ERIE,
CHIPPEWA,
NIAGARA,
LUNDY'S LANE,
VERA CRUZ,
CERRO GORDO,
CONTRERAS,
CHERUBUSCO,
MOLINO DEL REY,
CHAPULTEPEC,
CITY OF MEXICO!

Here are seven brilliant battles in each war, in all of which WINFIELD SCOTT was the master spirit. Such is Gen. Scott—the hero of two wars, who will, if he lives, be the next President of the United States.

Interesting Correspondence.

The following letters were written more than thirteen years ago, before Gen. Scott had been seriously talked of as a candidate for the Presidency. The signers are among our most eminent citizens of all parties, most of them still alive. Will our citizens compare them with what is now said of Gen. Scott by the political associates of some of the signers?

NEW YORK, April 1, 1839.

SIR: Your friends and fellow-citizens of New York have learned with unfeigned gratification the result of your glorious efforts to avert, in a manner equally honorable to both parties, occurrences which menaced a collision that would have been deprecitated by the whole civilized world, between two great nations connected by every tie that can bind together kindred people.

What you have accomplished in the recent pacification on our eastern frontier is, however, sir, only what a knowledge of your previous career could not have failed to induce us to anticipate. "As the hero of Chippewa, your name has been, for more than a quarter of a century, familiar to the whole American people, and is, in the minds of the rising generation, associated with the most memorable events of their country's history;" while in the various contests which it has been your duty to carry on against savage foes, we have ever found the talent and energy to applaud, which were so conspicuous when employed against the veterans of Europe.

But if the General, who wins laurels on the field of battle, in the vindication of a nation's honor, be entitled to our grateful recollections, how much more deserving of them must he be by whose prudence and wisdom the necessity of a recourse to arms is averted? Without again advertizing to transactions now present to the minds of all, in you we recognize the republican commander, who, though an ardent supporter of the institutions of his own country—who, entrusted with the neutrality of the Canadian frontier, not only knew how to preserve and maintain the majesty of our own laws, but too well understood the duties which one nation owes to another, to foment, for the propagation of political principles, a civil war among the subjects of a neighboring and friendly power.

As a testimony of our respect and esteem, and with the view of exchanging congratulations on the most important event, to which you have recently so happily contributed, we would invite you to partake of a public dinner in this city on such a day as it may comport with your convenience to appoint.

NEW YORK, April 2, 1839.

DEAR SIR: It is now two years since, that, inspired by the meritorious services you had rendered to our common country in Florida and Alabama, and rejoicing in the then recent approbation pronounced by the President of the United States, upon the finding of a court martial of inquiry, in which these services were brought into question, your fellow-citizens in New York had the honor of inviting you to meet them at a public dinner, and of receiving your acceptance of the invitation.

Untoward circumstances, now no longer existing, but which then weighed heavily upon this community, induced you to ask an indefinite postponement of the dinner, and influenced us, as the organs of others, to acquiesce in that request. But now that the commercial difficulties, then existing, have passed away, and that you, from that period to the present, have been going on from one civic triumph to another, when, in addition to the preservation of our neutral obligations on the Canada frontier, and the bloodless removal of the Cherokees from their ancient homes, you have, under circumstances of peculiar difficulty and excitement, succeeded in preventing any violation of the peace of the country, and in preserving the due subordination of the State to the Federal authority, in the territory in dispute between the United States and Great Britain, we claim the fulfillment of your pledge to meet your fellow citizens of New York at a public dinner; and our present purpose is to invite you to name a day when the debt we rejoice in owing to you, may in part be paid.

DEAR SIR: It is now two years since, that, inspired by the meritorious services you had rendered to our common country in Florida and Alabama, and rejoicing in the then recent approbation pronounced by the President of the United States, upon the finding of a court martial of inquiry, in which these services were brought into question, your fellow-citizens in New York had the honor of inviting you to meet them at a public dinner, and of receiving your acceptance of the invitation.

"If I know myself—if I believe in God—if I hope for an eternity, I desire to see England humbled and Ireland free. I would be no man were it otherwise. I would betray my nature, my name and origin if with my whole heart I did not desire to see England in ruins. There is no Irishman who is not craven and renegade that would not offer up his life, give his blood drop by drop, his flesh piece by piece, if by so doing he could crush, destroy, annihilate that hellish power!"—(Cheers.)

This same James T. Brady is a Locofoco leader in New York, and one of the strongest champions of British Free Trade policy in the country. How can such a man speak as above and then read the following from the London Times of July the 6th, without the blush of shame at his lying assertions?

"In respect to the Tariff policy, we take Gen. Pierce to be a fair representative of the opinions of Mr. Calhoun, and AS SUCH A VALUABLE PRACTICAL ALIY TO THE COMMERCIAL POLICY OF GREAT BRITAIN."

There! you canting, drivelling hypocrite; you want to "annihilate the hellish power of Great Britain," do you, at the very moment you are trying to move heaven and earth to elevate a man to the Presidency in whom Great Britain expects to find such a "valuable ally" in the promotion of her commercial interests! That's a likely story now, isn't it?

STATE OF INDIANA.—The news from the West is of the most cheering character. A prominent citizen of Indiana, in a letter to a citizen in Maryland, says that "the Whigs are very sanguine of success"; that they are raising Scott poles two hundred feet high in every direction, that "the enthusiasm is greater than 1840"; that "no doubt Indiana will go for Scott and Graham"; and that the Locofocos are down in the mouth, and "give up the election."

Divine service may be expected in St. John's Episcopal Church on Thursday evening by the Rev. Mr. Billsby.

"With a mind of the highest order, and harmoniously developed, Pierce combines the suavity of a child."—Cleveland Plaindealer.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, Aug. '52.
To the editor of the Republic:

SIR:—Please caution the public, through your paper, against the use of the wax seals on letters which are to be transmitted across the Isthmus, either to or from the Pacific.

The Postmaster of San Francisco reports, under date of 15th of July, that "the (then) last mail from New York contained a large number of letters thus sealed, which (owing to the melting of the wax) it was impossible to separate without injury to a portion of them."

Similar complaints have been received from other quarters, and particularly from England, in respect to letters sent sealed in this manner from California.

Editors of newspapers generally would do a public service by calling special attention to this matter.

I am, respectfully your obedient servant,
N. K. HALL,
Postmaster General.

LET—"Let's take a horn!" is a phrase of frequent utterance. The blast of that horn may be the signal for the porter to open the gate to death.

LET—"There is no money better laid out than that which contributes to domestic happiness.

LET—"It should be universally known—for it is strictly that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhea, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of this! dyspepsia! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoagland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alternative, active, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. General Bitters, 120 Arch street.—We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above,—Philadelphia City Item."

MARRIED.

On Thursday 19th ult., by Rev. S. H. Reid, Mr. JOHN McMULLEN to Miss MARGARET POOL, both of Sinking Valley, Blair county, Pa.

DIED.

On Sunday morning 22d ult., at the residence of her son-in-law, Jeremiah Row, on Mill Creek, Mrs. BETHIAH WALLACE, aged 72 years.

State Legislature.

The undersigned offers himself as an independent candidate for a seat in the State Legislature, and respectfully solicits the support of the independent voters of the district, promising, if elected, to perform the duties of a faithful representative.

JOHN K. MCNAHAN.

Aughwick Collegiate School, SHIRLEYSBURG.

This School will commence at Shirleysburg on the last Wednesday in September. Instruction will be given in the usual academic studies, and in any branches of a collegiate education that may be required. The healthful and retired situation of the village, its beautiful scenery and the convenience of access by the railroad renders this place one of the most desirable points for the establishment of an Academy in the State.

The neighborhood of the flourishing Female Seminary, under the charge of the Rev. James Campbell, offers an inducement to parents who desire to send their children from home, together.

The very auspicious commencement that has been made, the friendly zeal of the citizens for its success, and the wealth and intelligence of the surrounding country, give assurance that the design of rendering this institution permanent will be sustained.

TERMS:

Tuition per session of 22 weeks, $10 to $12.—Boarding can be had in the hotel at the village at $1.25 to $1.75 per week, according to accommodations.—No deduction for absence except in case of protracted illness. Tuition fee payable in advance.

The Principal will expect the application of each student to his studies, the employment of his time, and his general deportment throughout the session to be subject to his supervision.

H. J. CAMPBELL, A. B., Principal.

September 2, '52.—2m*

Shirleysburg Female Seminary.

The winter term, of the second year, of this Institute will commence on Tuesday the 2d day of November.

The location is unsurpassed in salubrity of climate and beauty of scenery—and a sufficient trial has shown that a flourishing institution can be maintained here, notwithstanding the praise-worthy competition on the subject of education throughout this entire region of country.

Additional improvements are in progress which will afford accommodation for a few boarding scholars. The services of a very accomplished teacher of instrumental and vocal music, and of French language, have been secured.

The year is divided into two sessions of twenty weeks each. Eleven weeks constituting a quarter.

No deduction made except in case of protracted sickness.

TERMS.—Boarding and lodging, per week, $1.50. Tuition $4.00 and $5.00. Instrumental music, French, &c., extra.

The examination of the pupils will commence on Thursday 31st day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and continue two days.

The parents and friends of the institution are respectfully invited to attend.

Rev. J. CAMPBELL, A. M., Principal.

Auditor's Notice.

The undersigned, appointed by the Court of Common Pleas to distribute the proceeds arising from the Sheriff's Sale of the real estate of James Frank in the hands of Wm. B. Zeigler, Esq., will attend for that purpose at his Office in the borough of Huntingdon, on Saturday the 2d day of October next, when and where all persons interested can attend or be forever debarred.
