Aughwich Collegiate School.

Aughwich Collegiate School, SHIRLEYSBURG. This School will commence at Shirleysburg on he last Wednesday in September. Instruction vill be given in the usual academic studies, and nany branches of a collegiate education that may be required. The healthful and retired situation of the village, its beaufild scenery and the con-renience of access by the railroad renders this lace one of the most desirable points for the es-ablishment of an Academy in the State. The neighborhood of the flourishing Fermale seminary, under the charge of the Rev. James Jampbell, offers an inducement to parents who lesize to send their children from home, together. The very auspicious commencement that has een made, the friendly zeal of the citizens for its uccess, and the wealth and intelligence of the urrounding country, give assurance that the de-ign of rendering this institution permanent will a sustained.

TERMS :

Tuition per session of 22 weeks, $10 to $12.--Boarding can be had in the village at $1,25 te $1,75 per week, according to accommodations,--No deduction for absence except in case of pro-tracted illness.
