

For the Journal. MR. EDITOR:— In the Globe I see a piece headed "Wharton and the town jakeys," that we in the country would like you to explain. If we understand the language, it says "we knew a despicable opposition would be raised to his election." Wharton was the regular Whig candidate; and the "Globe" and its party leaders are the "despicable opposition" to all such candidates, of course. In this township, it was just the likes of them who brought out the Friedley tickets and circulated them, and the "Globe" does not tell the truth, when it says "the only opposition to Col. Wharton was made by Whigs." But if it was true, 661 Whigs in the county voted against Wharton. As the Colonel's particular friend, this is unkind of the "Globe," for it proves that he only got 1492 Whig votes in a county that can poll 2500, and of course it claims Wharton's success as a loco foco victory. May be after all, that the "Globe" thinks it has got up a fight among the Whigs, and it must do something to keep up the fire. Well, we in the country have determined to have nothing to do with the Whigs, who are dancing hum-sung with the "Globe" and its party. Walker tp., October 21, 1852.

CHEAP BOOKS.—We learn, and notice with pleasure that our esteemed fellow citizen Eliel Smith, Esq., has been appointed as a colporteur for the sale of the publications of the American Tract Society.—The publications of the Soci ety are among the most valuable religious work of the times, and as all know, who are acquainted with the history of that Society, are entirely free from Sectarian bias, and calculated to further the cause of Evangelical religion, and the spread of Gospel truth. They are the cheapest Books we might almost say in the world.

WE have received the first number of the "Weekly Ledger," an independent, dollar paper, just started in Littlestown, Adams county, Pa. by Francis B. Davis. We can hardly realize the fact that we have before us a neat and spirited Newspaper issued within a few rods of the spot, where thirty odd years ago, we toddled with our New England Primmer to almost the only English school in the town or neighborhood, and that held in a delapidated Smithshop! But it is even so; and we rejoice at this pleasing evidence of intellectual progress in our place of nativity, and cordially wish the talented editor the highest success in his noble enterprise.

MARRIED.

In Huntingdon, on the 10th inst., at the Rail Road Hotel, by Rev. J. B. Williams, Mr. WILSON D. DUFFEY to Miss MARGARET FUNK, both of Warriorsmark, Huntingdon county.

On the evening of the 14th inst., by the Rev. Samuel Hill, Mr. ASBURY R. STEWART to Miss MARGARET J., daughter of Judge Hutchinson, of Blair co.

DIED.

At the residence of her father, in this county, on the 6th inst., Miss MARY J. C. COUCH, aged 20 years, 3 months and 24 days.

"Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee— Though sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb— The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is a thy guide through the gloom." J. B. W.

On Thursday, the 21st inst., in Alexandria, CONRAD BUCHER, aged 77 years and five months.

The deceased was an old and valued citizen, of our county, and one who enjoyed the confidence and respect of the whole community. His loss, though not unexpected, will be felt and mourned by all who knew him. He filled many places of trust and confidence, to which he was called at different times by the voice of his fellow citizens, and enjoyed the high reputation of being an honest man, a good citizen, a kind, liberal, and an indulgent father. A devout Christian he died—" Like one that draws the drapery of his couch About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams." But, though he is gone, he still lives, for—" Can that man be dead Whose spiritual influence is upon his kind? He lives in glory; and his speaking dust Has more of life than half its breathing moulds." [Communicated.]

Most Popular Religious Books of the Age.
WORKS OF THE REV. HENRY BLUNT, 4 vols. 12mo. Price reduced to 75 cents each, viz:
LIFE OF OUR SAVIOUR, 1 vol.
LIVES OF ST. PAUL AND ST. PETER, 1 vol.
LIVES OF ABRAHAM, ISAAC AND JACOB, 1 vol.
SERMONS AND DISCOURSES ON THE XXXIX ARTICLES, 1 vol.
30,000 of these books have been sold in England, and from 3 to 4000 in this country, where they are now offered at less than half their original price. No religious writings are more pleasant or profitable to read. The style is very clear and beautiful; the spirit of Christian tenderness and love beams in light on every page; and few books inculcate a safer and more practical acquaintance with Holy Scripture, as a whole. A thousand copies should be read where one is now.

Huntingdon, Oct. 14, 1852.

MR. EDITOR:— I was one of the many of our citizens who were attracted by the "Grand Exhibition," of our neighbor Charles S. Black, Esq., and I of course attended the opening exhibition. I am also one of the few who understand the value of a good newspaper. Being therefore "hooked up" in the facts, and the price of the press, and anxious to impart substantial knowledge to the understandings of my neighbor, I have taken this method to say to all,—If you would have your Soles well cared for, call at Black's, and examine his stock of Ladies, and Gentlemen's, shoes and boots, he warrants the work not to tip; and stitches without charge if it does. Neighbors try him.

Huntingdon, Sept. 7, 1852.—1y.

Shirleysburg Female Seminary.

The winter term, of the second year, of this institution will commence on Tuesday the 2d day of November.

The location is unsurpassed in salubrity of climate and beauty of scenery—and a sufficient trial has shown that a flourishing institution can be maintained here, notwithstanding the prore-wisdom competition on the subject of education throughout this entire region of country.

Additional improvements are in progress which will afford accommodation for a few more boarding scholars. The services of a very accomplished teacher of instrumental and vocal music, and of the French language, have been secured.

The year is divided into two sessions of twenty-two weeks each. Eleven weeks constituting a quarter.

No deduction made except in case of protracted sickness.

TERMS.—Boarding and lodging, per week, $1.50. Tuition $4.00 and $5.00. Instrumental music, French, &c., extra.

The examination of the pupils will commence on Thursday 30th day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and continue two days.

The parents and friends of the institution are respectfully invited to attend.

Rev. J. CAMPBELL, A. M., Principal.

Aughish Collegiate School, SHIRLEYSBURG.

This School will commence at Shirleysburg on the last Wednesday in September. Instruction will be given in the usual academic studies, and in any branches of a collegiate education that may be required. The healthful and retired situation of the village, its beautiful scenery and the convenience of access by the railroad renders this place one of the most desirable points for the establishment of an Academy in the State.

The neighborhood of the flourishing Female Seminary, under the charge of the Rev. James Campbell, offers an inducement to parents who desire to send their children from home, together.

The very auspicious commencement that has been made, the wealth and intelligence of the surrounding country, give assurance that the design of rendering this institution permanent will be sustained.

TERMS:—
Tuition per session of 22 weeks, $10 to $12.—Boarding can be had in the village at $1.25 to $1.75 per week, according to accommodations.—No deduction for absence except in case of protracted illness. Tuition fee payable in advance.

The Principal will expect the application of each student to his studies, the employment of his time and his general deportment throughout the session to be subject to his supervision.

Valuable Farm at Private Sale.

The undersigned offers for sale at private sale; his valuable Farm in Clay township, Huntingdon county, Pa., on which Mr. Nathan Rickets now resides, consisting of about 100 Acres, adjoining lands of W. Corbin and others, about 100 of which is cleared, the balance is good timber, under good fence, and in a high state of improvement, upon which is a comfortable frame house, nearly new, a very good bank barn, 40 by 70, with stable under the whole, well finished; a well of excellent water at the house, and running water within a few rods of both house and barn; the land is all tillable, has levers, enough to work both ways, and is quite a desirable farm well suited for a good market. Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the above property, as there will be a good bargain offered.

Any information can be had by calling on N. Rickets on the premises, K. L. Green near Scottsville, or Saml. M. Vitty Shirleysburg.

Terms accommodating.
