Birmingham Female Seminary. The liberal patronage which this School has received in the past, encourages the proprietor and friends of female education, to expect by proper exercision to make it both a premanent and important Institution; and no pains will by spar-ed to sustain its growing reputation. Among other considerations which inspire hope as to its future success, the location is not unim-portant. Three years actual experiment has de-veloped a more philosophical, if not a truer reas-on for the existance of Birmingham than many which have been assigned—that it is the situation for a Feunale Seminary, surrounded as it is by most romantic scenery—retired—healthful—easy of access and in itself a place where one might al-most grow wise in the study of Nature alone un-mocked by the works of Art. The school year is divided into two Sessions of twenty-two weeks'each, the summer term com-mencing the last Tuesday in April, the winter term the last Tuesday to October. Charges to date from time of entering, and no deductions made for absence except in case o sickness.
