

THANKSGIVING DAY, A Proclamation.

Fellow Citizens.—The Almighty and merciful God has continued His guardianship over our Commonwealth during the year that is past. Except in a single community, which claims our sympathies, "the pestilence that walketh in darkness, and the destruction that wasteth at noonday," have not had His leave to smite. Health has generally prevailed. The tumult of internal strife has not been heard. Unexampled prosperity has attended the peaceful pursuits of our citizens. "Seed-time and harvest have returned." Our garners have been filled with the finest of wheat. Our cup of blessings has overflowed. The educational institutions of our Commonwealth are growing in the affections of the people, developing the youthful mind, and elevating our National character. General intelligence and morality are on the advance. Our holy religion, through its own institutions, continues to exert its sacred influence on the public mind—to administer its consolations to the contrite and the pure, and inspire them with the hopes of immortality.

As a nation, we are at peace with all the world, and eminently prosperous. The free institutions of our government have been strengthened by the trials of the past, and a brighter promise dawns upon the future. To God, most great and good, we owe all our blessings. To Him our thanks are due.

Under this solemn conviction, and in conformity with the wishes of many good citizens, I, William Bigler, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby appoint Thursday the twenty-fifth day of November next, as a day of general Thanksgiving and Prayer throughout the State, and earnestly beseech the citizens of the Commonwealth, of all classes, that setting aside all worldly business on that day, they unite in offering thanks to Almighty God for His blessings, and invoke the continuance of His goodness.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and of the Commonwealth the seventy-seventh.

By the Governor: E. S. GOORICH, Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Value of Fruit.

The following from Henry E. French, Esq., of Exeter, N. H., shows the income which may be obtained from a fruit orchard: "To show by facts and not by theories merely; the advantage of raising fruit, I will state what has been the value of the crop of a single orchard. Mr. Joseph Robinson, of Chester N. H., has an orchard of less than two acres, which produced a crop in 1847, for which he was offered $300 on the trees; in 1849 a crop which sold for $680; and last year he was offered $415 for the fruit on the trees, and declined the offer. His orchard has been long in full bearing, and bids fair to last for at least a generation to come. His fruit has been sold in the neighboring markets for from one to three dollars per barrel. From his own account I am satisfied that the average net income of that orchard for the period of ten years past has been more than three hundred dollars per year—the interest of five thousand dollars! A gentleman in Hampton, in this State, sold the fruit of four acres of land, last season, for $800, and before he received $1400 for the fruit of the same orchard."—Bridgeton Chron.

Take Sheep from pasture.

The time for taking sheep from the pasture, must depend on the state of the weather and food. Severe frosts destroy much of the nutriment in the grasses, and they soon after cease to afford adequate nourishment. Long exposed to cold storms, with such food to sustain them, will rapidly reduce their condition. The only safe rule is to transfer them to their winter quarters the first day they cease to thrive abroad.

An ounce of fact is worth a pound of theory; and the swarm of conclusive facts that cluster round that incomparable preparation, Hootland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, establishing its value as a tonic and restorative, are such as would prevent incredulity itself from questioning its efficacy. In all cases of disease of stomach, whether acute or chronic, it may be recommended for its soothing, cordial, and renovating influence. Dyspepsia, heart-burn, loss of appetite, nausea, nervous tremors, relaxation, debility, &c., are relieved, by the Bitters in a very short space of time; and a perseverance in their use never fails to work a thorough cure. sept. 30.

HEADLEY'S NEW WORK.

Lives of Winfield Scott and Andrew Jackson, by J. T. Headley. 1 vol. 12mo., with Portraits. Uniform with "Napoleon and his Marshals."—$1.25.

Scott and Jackson are here placed together as the two military men who have made the deepest impressions on their country since the time of Washington. They both achieved a brilliant reputation in the war of 1812, and by the battles of Chippewa, Niagara, New Orleans, &c., gave their country a reputation at home and abroad, and though differing widely in some characteristics, they were very similar in others. The author has not only sketched the biography of each, but has given a faithful and graphic description of the brilliant battles in which they were engaged. The biography of Winfield Scott, which constitutes the greater part of the volume, is full and authentic; the materials for it having been derived from public documents and from many officers who had served under Scott. It presents to the reader also a panoramic view of the brilliant campaign of Mexico, embracing the storming and capture of Vera Cruz, the battles of Cerro Gordo, Churubusco, Contreras, Molino del Rey, Chapultepec, storming of Mexico, Triumphal Entry, with description of the scenery, personal incidents, &c. The author has fully sustained the reputation acquired by "Napoleon and his Marshals," and other works, of which over 200,000 volumes have been sold.

FRANK FREEMAN'S BARBER-SHOP. A Tale for the South and North, by Rev. B. R. Hall. Author of "Something for Everybody," "New Purchase," &c. 1 vol. 12mo. 75c.

This work, while it advocates the cause of the African, would do justice to the South. It would awaken sympathy, but not excite wrath, nor turn pity for the Negro into vengeance against the White, nor inculcate treason under pretence of love and freedom. It would have love do the work of hate. It will be marked with the characteristics of the author, so well known to the public by his previous works, of whom it was said in the publication of "The New Purchase," that "He was master of many styles, and had stepped to the highest round of the ladder at once." The work is no defence of slavery; but it would be a balance-wheel, not to stop, but to concentrate, equalize, and direct other motions. It treats the African of the North to the Laxation. The writer writes in a style that he describes, and real persons are introduced under new names, so that the work, while it will possess the interest of fiction, is not only true to life, but in many of its scenes and characters is true in fact.

Will be published in October. CHARLES SCRIBNER, 56 Park Row and 145 Nassau St. N. Y. N. B.—Either of these works will be forwarded by mail (prepaid) to the address of any party sending the prices annexed. Nov. 11, '52.—1m.

BRITISH PERIODICAL LITERATURE.

Republishing of the LONDON QUARTERLY, THE EDINBURGH, THE NORTH BRITISH, AND THE WESTMINSTER REVIEWS, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

These periodicals are the critical consensers of the British scholastic and literary world. By their criticisms, they aid readers in the selection of standard valuable books; and by the epitomes which they present, often obviate the necessity of consulting works too voluminous for general examination. They fill a place which American magazines cannot supply; for they discuss topics relating more strictly to the affairs, political, religious, scientific, and literary, of the continent of Europe. They are conducted by the best talent of Great Britain and are engaged with the most important questions which interest or agitate the civilized world. Whoever subscribes to them all, may read the ablest representatives of the principal parties into which the people of Great Britain are divided.

Shirleysburg Female Seminary.

The winter term, of the second year, of this Institution will commence on Tuesday the 23rd day of November.

The location is unsurpassed in salubrity of climate and beauty of scenery—and a sufficient trial has shown that a flourishing institution can be maintained here, notwithstanding the praiseworthy competition on the subject of education throughout this entire region of country.

No educational improvements are in progress which will afford accommodation for a few more boarders. The services of a very accomplished teacher of instrumental and vocal music, and of the French language, have been secured.

The year is divided into two sessions of twenty two weeks each. Eleven weeks constituting a quarter.

No deduction made except in case of protracted sickness. TERMS.—Boarding and lodging, per week, $1.50. Tuition $4.00 and $5.00. Instrumental music, French, &c., extra. The examination of the pupils will commence on Thursday 30th day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and continue two days.

The parents and friends of the institution are respectfully invited to attend. Rev. J. CAMPBELL, A. M., Principal. September 2, 1852.—2m

Aughwick Collegiate School, SHIRLEYSBURG.

This School will commence at Shirleysburg on the last Wednesday in September. Instruction will be given in the usual academic studies, and in all branches of a collegiate education that may be required. The healthful and retired situation of the village, its beautiful scenery and the convenience of access by the railroad renders this place one of the most desirable points for the establishment of an Academy in the State.

The neighborhood of the flourishing Female Seminary, under the charge of the Rev. James Campbell, offers an inducement to parents who desire to send their children from home together.

The very auspicious commencement that has been made, the friendly zeal of the citizens for its success, and the wealth and intelligence of the surrounding country, give assurance that the design of rendering this institution permanent will be sustained.

TERMS: Tuition per session of 22 weeks, $10 to $12.—Boarding can be had in the village at $1.25 to $1.75 per week, according to accommodations.—No deduction for absence except in case of protracted illness. Tuition fee payable in advance. The Principal will expect the application of each student to his studies, the employment of his time and his general deportment throughout the session to be subject to his supervision. H. J. CAMPBELL, A. B., Principal. September 2, '52.—2m
