

Address to the Farmers of Pennsylvania.

The numerous Brewers and Malsters of the City and County of Philadelphia, embrace the opportunity of offering a few facts for the consideration of the Farmers of Pennsylvania...

Within the county of Philadelphia, there are annually consumed for the purpose of Brewing about six hundred thousand bushels of barley, supplied from the state of New York...

The State of New York now produces an annual average crop of about two millions five hundred thousand bushels, which meets with ready purchasers during the months of September, October and November...

The present time is a favorable one for the introduction of its culture in our own State, and its becoming a staple article in our market...

The entire adaption of the climate and soil of Pennsylvania to the cultivation of Barley—the increasing demand in this city, as well as the neighboring ones of N. York and Baltimore—the new facilities that are opening for its transportation from all parts of the State to markets where it finds cash purchasers...

An ounce of fact is worth a pound of theory; and the swarm of conclusive facts that cluster round that incomparable preparation, Hoodland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson...

SERIES FOR 1853.

THE BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD.

New Year—New Features—New Type.

THE HOME JOURNAL,

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, AT THE LOW PRICE OF $2 PER ANNUM.

ON SATURDAY, THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY next, THE FIRST NUMBER OF A NEW SERIES OF THE HOME JOURNAL will be presented to the public, printed on fine white paper, and a new and beautiful type, manufactured expressly for the purpose.

Mr. WILLIS will continue his usual editorial labors, writing on the PASSING TOPICS OF INTEREST, as they occur. He will also give, from time to time, passages from his Travels in the Tropics, and in the South and West, with portions of which the readers of the Home Journal are already familiar.

Our readers are acquainted with one successful effort in this class of writing. His "Letters from under a Bridge" described mere country life, as experienced in a remote retirement on the Susquehanna. For the last year or two he has been taking advantage of the new facilities given by improvements in railroads and steamboats—uniting the repose and beauty of rural life with the comforts and advantage of easy access to the city.

A New Novel, translated from the German by a graceful and brilliant American author, entitled "Wild Flowers," will adorn the columns of the forthcoming NEW SERIES.

TERMS. For one copy, $2; for three copies, $5, or for one copy for three years, $5—always in advance. Subscribe without delay. Address MORRIS & WILLIS, Editors, 197 Fulton street, New York.

HEADLEY'S NEW WORK.

Lives of Winfield Scott and Andrew Jackson, by J. T. Headley. 1 vol. 12mo., with Portraits. Uniform with "Napoleon and his Marshals."

Scott and Jackson are here placed together as the two military men who have made the deepest impressions on their country since the time of Washington.

They both achieved a brilliant reputation in the war of 1812, and by the battles of Chippewa, Niagara, New Orleans, etc., gave their country a reputation at home and abroad, and though differing widely in some characteristics, they were very similar in others. The author has not only sketched the biography of each, but has given a faithful and graphic description of the brilliant battles in which they were engaged.

FRANK FREEMAN'S BARBER-SHOP. A Tale for the South and North, by Rev. B. R. Hall. Author of "Something for Everybody," "New Purchases," &c. 1 vol. 12mo. 75c.

This work, while it advocates the cause of the African, would do justice to the South. It would awaken sympathy, but not excite wrath, nor stir up party for party. It is a noble and beautiful work, not to be put to the test of the "Wives, not inductive treason, nor of love and freedom. It would have done the work of a hundred sermons, and would have done it better than a hundred sermons, and would have done it better than a hundred sermons, and would have done it better than a hundred sermons.

I was one of the many of our citizens who were attracted by the "Grand Exhibition," of our neighbor Charles S. Black, Esq., and I of course attended the opening exhibition. I am also one of the few who understand the value of a good newspaper. Being therefore "booked up" in the facts, and the price of the press, and anxious to impart substantial knowledge to the understanding of my neighbor, I have taken this method of saying to all—If you would have your Sales well cared for, call at Black's, and examine his stock of Ladies, and Gentlemen's, shaws and hosiery, he warrants the work not to rip, and stitches without charge if it does. Neighbors try him. Oct. 14, 1852.
