

Portical.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

I've wandered to the village, Tom; I've sat beneath the tree, Upon the school-house play-ground, which sheltered you and me;

The grass is just as green, Tom; bare-footed boys as play, Were sporting just as we did then, with spirits just as gay;

The old school house is altered some; the benches are replaced By new ones, very like the same our penknives had defaced;

The boys were playing some old game, beneath that same old tree; I do forget the name just now—you've played the same with me;

The river's running just as still; the willows on its side Are larger than they were, Tom; the stream appears less wide—

And swung our sweethearts—"pretty girls" just twenty years ago. The spring that bubbled 'neath the hill, close by the spreading beech,

Is very low—'twas once so high, that we could almost reach; And, kneeling down to get a drink, dear Tom, I started so.

To see how much that I am changed, since twenty years ago. Near the spring, upon an elm, you know I cut your name,

Your sweethearts' just beneath it, Tom, and you did mine the same; Some heartless wretch had peeled the bark—'twas dying sure but slow,

My lids have long been dry, Tom, but tears came in my eyes; I thought of her I loved so well—those early broken ties;

I visited the old church-yard, and took some flowers to strew Upon the graves of those we loved, some twenty years ago.

Some are in the church-yard laid—some sleep beneath the sea, But few are left of our old class, excepting you and me;

And when our time shall come, Tom, and when we're called to go, I hope they'll lay us where we played, just twenty years ago.

HOBBS AGAIN.—A London letter says: American skill has once more triumphed in England, and in this manner: The directors of a well known Insurance Office, in Moorgate street, had assembled at their rooms last week to hold an important annual meeting.

When the books and papers of the company were called for, the Secretary could not find the key of the large vault where they were kept. After an unsuccessful search, Mr. Chubb, the maker of the large iron door and the lock was sent for, and asked if he had a key that would open the lock.

He replied in the negative. He was asked then if he could pick the lock. He again replied in the negative, and rather indignant withal, at the insinuation that his celebrated locks could be picked! The directors asked what was to be done. Mr. Chubb answered that the only method by which the books and papers could be produced was to cut the door down.

The directors would not consent to such a proposition, and Mr. Chubb left the premises.—A message was despatched to Chesapeake, for the American, Hobbs, who sent one of his workmen, with instructions to take impressors in wax of the keyhole of the lock. The man departed, and in a few minutes returned with the impression. Mr. Hobbs then selected a few simple instruments, and accompanied his workman to the Insurance Office.

After operating upon Chubb's lock ten minutes only, the bolt was turned, the door was opened, and all the books and papers were placed before the Board of Directors, to their utter astonishment.

Birmingham Female Seminary. The liberal patronage which this School has received in the past, encourages the proprietor and friends of female education, to expect by proper exertion to make it both a permanent and important Institution; and no pains will be spared to sustain its growing reputation. Three years actual experience has developed a more philosophical, if not a truer reason for the existence of Birmingham than many which have been assigned—that it is the situation for a Female Seminary, surrounded as it is by most romantic scenery—retired—healthful—easy of access and in itself a place where one might almost grow wise in the study of Nature alone untroubled by the works of Art. BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

WHERE may be obtained the most speedy remedy for SECRET DISEASES.—Gleets, Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Pain in the Loins, Affections of the Kidneys, and all those Peculiar Affections arising from a SECRET LAZAR, particularly the youth of both sexes, which if not cured, produce Constitutional Debility, rendering Marriage impossible, and in the end destroys both Mind and Body. YOUNG MEN Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence. Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

DR. JOHNSTON, Office No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET, SEVEN DOORS FROM BALTIMORE STREET, East side UP THE STEPS. BE PARTICULAR in observing the NAME and NUMBER, or you will mistake the place. A CURE WARRANTED, OR NO CHARGE MADE, IN FROM ONE TWO DAYS. Take Notice—Dr. Johnston's Office is in his dwelling, or THE STEPS. His very extensive practice is a sufficient guarantee that he is the only proper Physician to apply to.

DR. JOHNSTON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many attended with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.—It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this horrid disease owing to the Unskillfulness of ignorant practitioners, who by the use of that deadly poison Mercury, ruin the Constitution, causing the most serious symptoms of this dreadful disease to make their appearance, such as affections of the head, throat, nose, skin, etc., progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to their dreadful suffering, by sending them to that Bourne whence no traveler returns.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when young—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit.—Such persons before contemplating MARRIAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage. The prospect hourly darkens to the eye, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection, that the cup of bitterness of another becomes blighted with our own.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.—Dr. J. prescribes young men, and all who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgence. IMPUISSANCE.—These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of excess, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dropsy, a Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Digestive Functions, General Debility Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirit, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated, I see a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

MARRIAGE, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J. and be restored to perfect health. OFFICE, NO. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET, Baltimore, Md. ALL SURGICAL OPERATIONS PERFORMED.—N. B. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately either personally or by letter. Skin Diseases Speedily Cured. TO STRANGERS.—The many thousands cured at this Institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witness by the Reporters of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guarantee that the afflicted will find a skillful and honorable physician.

As there are so many ignorant and worthless quacks advertising themselves as Physicians, ruining the health of the afflicted Dr. Johnston would say to those unacquainted with his reputation that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office. WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS immediately cured, and full vigor restored. EYE AND EARS POST PAID—REMEDIES SENT BY MAIL. Jan. 8, 1852.—1y.
